Summary

Author's note: This fictional story is set in Hawaii and contains fictional and real Hawaiian words. No disrespect of the Hawaiian people or their language was intended in any way. I love Hawaii and its friendly people. The story started out as a simple family incest story but the characters took me on a wild ride that I hope the reader will join me on. Leave your logic and reasoning behind and find out what happens to the Martin family when they move to Maui.

Warning!

This story contains sexually explicit material involving minors including boy/girl, girl/girl, and boy/boy. If you do not wish to read this type of literature, or you are under age, PLEASE LEAVE NOW! Nothing involving the characters in this story actually happened or ever should happen. None of the events in the story are true. This is pure fantasy. If you understand that and like the subject matter then I hope you enjoy this story.

Chapter 1 - A new job

Daniel Martin was trying to not show his anxiety as he approached the TSA checkpoint. Although he was that last person who would ever think about hurting anyone the screenings always made him nervous. This one was extra stressful because his wife and children were with him. If someone could have negative self-confidence it would be Dan. Something as simple as forgetting to remove his watch before stepping into the machine would cause him to frantically apologize and feel like a complete idiot in front of his family. His wife Emma tried to help him remember to put shoes, electronics, and pocket contents into the bins but the pressure to be perfect and the feeling that he was holding up the line always made him a nervous wreck.

If this was a simple vacation trip it would be one thing but they were boarding Hawaiian Airlines flight 3244 non-stop from Boston to Honolulu then taking the short hop over to Maui where Dan was starting a new job in two weeks and new life with his family in Hawaii. Dan had been devastated when his company had gone bankrupt and he was laid off at age 35. When his unemployment was close to running out he expanded his search from New England to the entire United States and found the opening on Maui. At first he dismissed it but with Emma's encouragement and some research he decided to apply and after a phone interview and a couple of internet face to face calls he was offered the job at a substantial pay increase, an agent who would sell their house in Massachusetts, six months free housing and all moving expenses paid. The movers had packed everything into a container the previous day and after spending the night at an airport hotel they were ready for the eleven-hour flight and the beginning of a new adventure.

Emma had been his rock. She convinced their children, ten-year-old Ben and nine-year-old Grace, that it would be a grand adventure and they would make new friends in Hawaii where they could learn to surf and swim year-round. The plane was configured with two seats, five seats and two seats across. They decided to each take a child and sit in the outside seats one behind the other. They figured with the long flight there would be a lot of moving around and being by themselves they wouldn't disturb anyone else. Grace and Ben each had tablets with headphones and were given unlimited screen time, something that rarely happened. Grace had always been daddy's girl and she spent most of the time with Dan. He helped her find movies to watch and enjoyed holding her when she closed the screen and cuddled up to him for a nap somewhere over the middle of the country. The direct flight made a long day but better than a long layover somewhere and the possibility of the second flight being cancelled. The clock said five PM but their body clocks said eleven PM when they checked into the Maui airport hotel for one night. They and all their luggage had arrived safely in Hawaii.

The next morning Dan and his family set out in the rental car for their new Hawaiian life. The company had set him up in an extended stay hotel until he could find a house to rent. It was the middle of June so he had lots of time to get settled before the children would have to be enrolled in a school. Since none of them had ever been to Hawaii they spent the week before he had to report to work exploring the island and hitting some of the tourist spots. There would be lots of weekends for beaches and more exploring. Grace loved Hawaii from the first day. She always liked the water and the idea that she could swim twelve months a year excited her. Ben thought he would miss his friends but was happy to see baseball fields at many of the parks and schools.

Dan's new company had set him up with a real estate agent who promised to find him a house to rent until they were ready to commit to buying one.

Prices were extremely high on Maui but Dan's substantial raise helped. He was hired by a large international import/export company and his experience with the industry and his numerous contacts in the shipping industry made him the perfect candidate. On his first day at work he was surprised at the casual nature of the office. Most of the men wore comfortable, sometimes very colorful Hawaiian shirts and there wasn't a tie to be seen in the building. After checking in with the receptionist he waited for his new boss, Jason to come get him.

"Dan! Welcome to Cooper-Backster company. Let me show you around before our HR guy buries you in forms to sign."

Jason was big and round and jolly. He would make Santa Clause look thin in comparison. After a strong handshake and a slap on the back he led Dan on a tour of the company. The offices were at one end of a large warehouse and Dan estimated there were at least thirty truck bays along one wall. Jason introduced him to people left and right as they walked and Dan struggled to keep names and positions straight. When they reached the opening to the huge warehouse he stopped at the last office.

"Dan, I want you to meet Kimo Kalani, our warehouse manager. You and Kimo will be working close together. He's the best warehouse manager you'll ever meet and a helluva nice guy."

Dan guessed right away that Kimo was native Hawaiian by his looks and the many tattoos on his neck and arms.

"Nice to meet you Kimo. Looks like you have quite an operation here. I look forward to working with you."

"Welcome brother. I'm sure we will work great together. Do you have a family here?"

"Yes, my wife Emma and my two kids came with me. It's a big change from Massachusetts, that's for sure."

"Ah you have Keiki. That's great brother. You'll have to come visit and meet my family."

Dan looked confused. "Um, what's Keiki?"

Jason laughed and explained that Keiki was Hawaiian for children.

"Kimo, it's his first week here. Give him some time to learn the language. Dan, I'll let Kimo explain the operation. Kimo, drop him at HR when you're done, okay?"

"Okay boss. "

Kimo spent the next hour explaining how the company locates exporters from all over Southeast Asia and brings goods in to send to multiple customers on the mainland. He spent an equal amount of time talking about his extended family including a lot of "cousins" and "auntie's" although Dan got the impression the words didn't always mean blood relatives. Kimo explained that he was native Hawaiian for several generations back and that he might be related to the famous Hawaiian king Kamehameha. He insisted that Dan bring his family for dinner that Friday night after work.

The rest of the day was filled with HR paperwork, settling into his new office and meeting people. He was nervous about starting a new job but everyone was warm and friendly, much friendlier than back in New England. Back at the hotel Grace continued a tradition she had started as soon as she could walk. When Dan walked through the door she ran full speed at him and launched herself into his arms. At age nine she was almost getting too big to catch without falling backward but it was the highlight of his day and he never wanted to give it up.

"Daddy! We saw a big turtle on the beach today! Can we go swimming after supper. It's so warm here, I love it.!"

Dan wrapped his arms around Grace and absorbed some of the love she seemed to emit like a beacon. He loved both his children but Grace was his joy. Her shiny black hair flowed down her back to her waist in a smooth cape and her perfectly straight bangs framed her sparkling green eyes. Her flat chest gave no hint of the woman she would become but he guessed that she would be fit and petite like her mother. Dan had loved Emma's small perky breasts from the moment she first let him touch them right after they became engaged. She was an old-fashioned girl and even though they had cuddled naked together many times during the engagement they were both virgins when they made love for the first time on their wedding night.

As soon as he put Grace down Ben stepped in to get his hug and required tussling of his curly blond hair like his dad's. Ben had Dan's brown eyes and hair even curlier than Dan's. It was the constant subject of friendly disagreements about the length. Dan liked it a little long and wild looking but Emma wanted it shorter and neat looking. Of course she usually won out since she was the one usually taking him to get it cut. During supper Dan filled Emma in on the first day activities and the invitation to Kimo's house.

"That was quick. What should we bring? We don't know any of the customs here. I wonder what they will serve. I hope it's something the kids will eat."

Dan promised to ask Kimo before Friday and gave Emma a quick squeeze on her bum before sitting down to supper. It was beginning to sink in that they were going to live in one of the most beautiful places on earth, even with the increasing tourist traffic and high prices. After supper they settled for the hotel pool since sunset was earlier in Hawaii than back home. It was one drawback to being closer to the equator and close to sea level. Sunsets were beautiful but fast and early. After a relaxing swim with his family Dan helped Grace and Ben get ready for bed. Grace was a little too old to shower with Ben but they were still young enough to share a bedroom although Grace usually changed in the bathroom. Ben was just beginning to notice girls but he didn't look at his sister as a girl. She was just the little kid that could be a pain when she followed him around. Dan was not looking forward to dealing with puberty and Grace insisting on total privacy. He hoped he could afford a three-bedroom house in Hawaii.

The new job turned out to be interesting and well within his ability and before he knew it Kimo was giving him his address in a development just south from Lahaina. It was on Kimo's way home but Dan would have to drive past Lahaina to pick up Emma and the kids and circle back. By the time they found the house Kimo had the grill going and a cooler of beer ready. Dan was glad to see bottles from the Maui Brewing Company. He had acquired a taste for craft beer from the many small brewers in New England and was hoping he could find good beer on Maui.

"Hey brother, you found us" Kimo shouted as they entered the back yard. It seemed like he called everyone "brother".

The house was small compared to back home but like most Hawaiian houses almost half the house was the open porch or Lanai. There were comfortable chairs, a table and even a flat screen TV on the Lanai. Dan introduced Emma, Grace and Ben and Kimo immediately dropped to a knee and opened his arms to hug Grace. She was a little surprised when he wrapped her in a bear hug and put a big hand on her bum to pull her in.

"Hi little keiki. Come give uncle Kimo a hug. Dan, you're going to have to chase the boys away with a stick pretty soon. Grace here is a beauty."

Dan just smiled and took Grace's hand when she broke away from Kimo.

"And who is this warrior here? Come here Ben. You can give Uncle Kimo and auntie Leloni a hug too."

As he said it Kimo's wife came out holding a platter of fruit.

"Hello everyone. Come in, come in. Nice to meet you. Oh what a handsome boy we have here. Come give auntie Leloni a big kiss."

Coming from reserved New England upbringing all the affection was more than a little unexpected. Emma was surprised at how much attention was given to the children, especially when Leloni kissed Ben on both cheeks and it looked like she started to kiss him on the lips.

"Dan said you have children too." Emma said to break up the kiss fest."

"Oh yes, kids, come meet our guests."

Leloni introduced them as the three kids exited the house.

"This is Kaleo, the man of the house when Kimo is at work. Here comes Luana, she is nine but her birthday is next month and here is our little Angel Cindy. "

"Cindy?" Dan asked before thinking.

"Ha, ha, yes. It's a long story but she has a mainland name." Leloni added.

Kaleo was a normal boy of ten, except maybe for his deep tan and maybe being a little plump for his age. Luana was a beauty. Her long silky hair was similar to Grace's and she was wearing a cute crop top with a fringe that showed off her deeply tanned belly and bright pink knit shorts. When Cindy came bouncing in Dan and Emma had to bite their tongues. She came in wearing tiny bottoms to a swimsuit and nothing else. Ben's eyes got a little wider as he watched the topless girl skip up to between her parents.

"Cindy, I told you no sprinkler tonight. We have company."

"Okay daddy." She said smiling but made no move to get dressed.

Supper was delicious as Kimo introduced them to some Hawaiian specialties and he and Leloni laughed when Emma asked if they were serving poi.

"That's just for the tourists and the historical reenactment attractions. No one chooses to eat poi."

The four adults hit it off right away and agreed to spend Saturday with Kimo and his family exploring some of the beaches known only to the locals. Kimo had a big off-road SUV and said he would show them some places the tourists couldn't go. Dan had a list of tourist places he wanted to see like the road to Hana but Kimo convinced him to wait and see them later. They had years to explore the island and Kimo would tell them when the attractions would be less crowded and when the flowers would be at their peak and the waterfalls full.

Kimo and his wife had an easy-going demeanor that made everyone comfortable. Dan didn't even notice when Kimo held Luana in his lap by putting his arm between her legs and holding her bum. He thought it was sweet how Kimo sat Grace on his lap and Leloni did the same with Ben and they asked the children how they liked Hawaii and what they wanted to see. Dan was a little surprised when topless Cindy asked Dan to pick her up and put her on his knee. He wasn't sure where to put his hands and when she wiggled and almost slipped off, he ended up holding her by her bum with one hand and his other hand on her bare middle. Emma asked Kaleo and Luana about school and their interests. Of course they all liked the beach and surfing and Kimo promised to give the Martin family surfing lessons someday.

When it was getting late Leoni said it was time for baths and Luana asked Emma if she would help. Emma was a little surprised but agreed and got an even bigger surprise when all three kids marched into the bathroom naked and climbed in the tub. She thought Kaleo was a little old to be bathing with his sisters, especially when he displayed a small but very stiff erection before sitting down. Leloni didn't seem to notice and Emma told herself things were different there and it didn't mean it was bad.

Bath time was the usual laughing and splashing with Leloni washing each child with her bare hand, including all the private parts. It seemed like a lot of touching to Emma but the kids didn't even seem to notice. When bath time was over Emma held up a towel and Kaleo stepped out of the tub and stood in front of her. She smiled an embarrassed smile as she wrapped the towel around the naked boy and dried him like she would dry Ben. It felt strange to be that close to another person's naked son while his mother was right there. When everyone was dry Cindy grabbed her towel and ran out of the bathroom.

"I'm gonna say good night to Daddy and Mr. Martin." She yelled as she ran with the towel trailing behind her.

"Cindy get dressed first" Leloni yelled but it was too late.

Dan was talking to Kimo about houses to rent when Cindy came streaking out the door with her towel over her head like a hood and wide open in front.

"Goodnight Daddy" she squealed as she ran into his arms and planted a kiss right on his lips.

"Here is my little angel. Good night Princess. Can you say goodnight to Dan too?"

Before he could react Dan was handed the mostly naked seven-year-old who proceeded to kiss him quickly on the lips then cuddle into his chest. He had to reach around and hold her but he managed to get a little towel between his hand and her bare bum. The way she smiled at him was so cute he had to laugh and give her a hug.

"Good night Cindy. You are a little cuddle bug, aren't you?"

Dan tried to keep his eyes focused on her face because he knew her whole abdomen was uncovered and it wouldn't be polite to look at the seven-year-old's private parts.

"She's not shy is she?" He laughed as he tried to pull the towel over her front.

Kimo laughed. "No, Cindy is our nature girl. She knows her ancestors would think it was strange for us to bind ourselves in uncomfortable cloth. Before the Europeans came to the island men and women only wore the minimum needed to protect sensitive parts from scratches. A lot of us wish we could return to some of the ancient ways. That's a discussion for another day. Pass the nature girl over and I'll put her to bed.

"No, I want uncle Dan and auntie Emma to do it"

Kimo smiled and asked Dan if he minded. Dan loved bedtime with his own kids so he said sure as he stood up and carried Cindy inside. He was surprised to find all three kids slept in the same bed with tube like bumpers separating them. Emma had been recruited to help Kaleo and Luana and was tucking them in when Dan carried Cindy in and set her down on the bed. Leloni casually took the towel away and watched as Cindy stood up and bounced on the bed a few times before crawling under the covers nude.

"She sleeps like that?" Emma asked Leloni.

"Oh yes. She always has since she was out of diapers."

Leloni replied as if it was perfectly normal for a seven-year-old to sleep naked beside her brother. Apparently in that house it was. Ben and Grace had followed Dan into the house and they stood with mouths open as Cindy did her naked dance before climbing under the covers. Dan and Emma decided it was time to leave and they arranged to meet back at Kimo's house the next morning for a beach day. The drive home was quiet but when Dan tucked Grace in she turned her head as he tried to kiss her cheek and kissed him on the lips.

"That's how Cindy kissed her daddy goodnight."

"Well Cindy's family does things a little different than we do. Our Mommy and Daddy kisses are on the cheek. Okay?"

"I guess so" she said as she snuggled under the covers. She wouldn't argue with her father but she didn't agree with him. Kissing on the lips felt nice. It shouldn't matter if it was Auntie Leloni or her parents or even Kaleo doing the kissing. She liked it and hoped Leloni would convince her parents that it was okay. When Dan closed the door she whispered to Ben.

"Hey Ben. What do you think about Hawaii now? Did you see Cindy jumping on the bed like that?"

"I tried to look the other way but yea she jumped around naked in front of her brother and all of us. Pretty wild."

"Luana seems nice. I think she likes you."

"She is nice and pretty too but she probably has a boyfriend."

"Ha-ha, you like her don't you." Grace teased.

"Well you like that Leo guy. I saw you smile at him."

"It's Ka-LEE-Oh. Go to sleep."

"Do you think they swim naked? Mom would never let us do that."

"God I hope not. I don't want to see our parents naked. Gross"

"Goodnight Gracie."

"Ugh, now I can't stop thinking about that. Goodnight Benny."

Dan poured some wine for himself and Emma and joined her in the living room. Emma took the glass and said.

"Well that was an interesting night. Kimo is quite a character."

"He sure is but he's a great guy and I have to work closely with him in this new job. Things are different here and he is native Hawaiian from way back so he will have different traditions."

"Like feral children who run around naked and kiss like adults?"

Dan smiled and sipped his wine.

"Yes and it rubs off. Grace just tried to kiss me goodnight like Cindy does. I told her we have different customs."

"Well they sure are different but the kids were well behaved and happy so I guess we can go with the flow. We are not letting Grace or Ben swim naked tomorrow no matter what Kimo's kids do."

Dan finished his wine and put his arm around Emma.

"No, the Martins will not be skinny dipping but I wouldn't be surprised if Ben gets an eye full tomorrow. Did you see his face when Cindy jumped on the bed?"

"Maybe you should warn him to not stare and explain it's natural and not sexual."

"I'll say something about staring. I'm not bringing up the subject of sex. That could open a flood of questions. Enough about the kids. Can you believe we're living in Hawaii? How about a little fun on the lanai?"

The extended stay apartment they were renting had a large balcony with a solid wall about three and a half feet high. There were no units directly across from them and if they stayed low enough no one could see him slide Emma's shorts and panties off when she laid in the lounge chair. He hoped they couldn't see his naked bum as he slid his extra hard dick into her over and over. There was something naughty about sex in the open air on the lanai that made him cum harder and longer than he had ever done. It was so draining he had to slide beside her and wait for the aftershocks to subside before he could think about getting up. Overall it had been a stimulating day.

Chapter 2 - Beach day with the Kalani Family

After breakfast Saturday morning Emma had everyone put on swimsuits and packed a change of clothes, towels and a lunch before they headed off to Kimo's house. They were happy to see Cindy was wearing a shirt but her bare legs hinted at another tiny bikini bottom under it. Kimo and Kaleo came out wearing a European style skimpy suits and Luana and Leloni both were wearing thong bikinis with lots of bare backside showing. Emma felt like an old maid in her one piece swimsuit and Dan and Ben felt out of place wearing board short style suits.

They all climbed into the big SUV with surf boards on top where some of the kids had to double up on a seatbelt in the third row. Kaleo made sure he was next to Grace and Ben ended up next to Luana. He tried hard to not stare but Luana was wearing bikini bottoms that were too big for her and he caught glimpses of her privates inside the leg opening when she lifted her leg to scratch an itch. Cindy chose to ride between Emma and Dan and ended up pulling her shirt up passed her waist before sitting down.

They drove down the coast in the direction of the extinct volcano, past exclusive resorts and small towns until they reached the end of the paved road near Makana state park or what is better known as Big Beach. Kimo explained that the surf was usually too rough for swimming but it was a great spot for whale watching in the winter when thousands of whales come to Hawaii to give birth or mate.

"Of course the big attraction is Little Beach" Kimo added as they drove past the entrance.

"What's Little Beach?" Dan asked.

"Little Beach is a little secluded beach separated by a big lava flow from Big Beach. It's the only unofficial nude beach in Hawaii. Technically it's illegal but the cops have an agreement that as long as no one gets hurt or get too rowdy they stay away. During the week it's mostly old hippies and gay guys but the Sunday night drum circle is a family event you really should check out."

"I don't think we will be going to any nude beaches, especially with kids."

"Well I hope you change your mind someday. It's a beautiful thing to see families dance around the fire to the beat of a dozen drums. A few women just go topless but most people are au naturel. We go every chance we get. There are rumors it's going to be shut down because too many tourists are bringing alcohol and leaving a mess."

The thought of seeing someone he works with dancing around a fire naked didn't set well with Dan. He preferred to think of Kimo as the excellent warehouse manager who made his work life easier.

They reached the end of the paved road and Kimo switched to four wheel drive. Tourists with rental cars were not allowed to drive on unpaved roads so anyone they met would be a resident. He followed a set of tire tracks up into the lava flow and down past a couple beaches with cars until he reached one with no cars in sight.

"This is it. Everyone out. Kids don't go in the water without an adult close by. Grace and Ben, the number one rule in Hawaii is never turn your back on the ocean. A big wave can come and knock you over when you least expect it. This cove is pretty shallow but you should always be careful."

Everyone piled out and Ben got an eyeful when Luana turned to get something in the back and presented him with two round bare globes with nothing but a string between them. Dan helped get the surfboards down and Kimo said he would give Dan's two children some lessons. Grace was up first and after falling several times in shallow water Kimo moved her out to just under waist high for him so that he could hold her upright as she learned to balance. Since he was standing beside her he ended up with one hand on her lower back and one on her belly. She started out with her hand on his head but after she learned to stay standing he moved the board out deeper. The next time she was about to fall he reached out to hold her and ended up with one hand on her bum and one on her abdomen well below her belly button. He only held her for an instant but Grace thought she felt him squeeze her bottom before he let go again. The last lesson was for her to ride a wave while on her knees and he gave the board a shove just at the right time and watched her scream with delight as the board brought her to shore. Dan and Emma were there to congratulate her with hugs as Ben jumped up from talking to Luana and took the board out to Kimo.

Ben's lesson went well and by lunch time both kids were riding the board successfully for short distances. Dan and Emma declined to try it in front of their kids but they did enjoy the warm water and having fun with their kids and Kimo's. Emma gradually decided that the skimpy bathing suits and Cindy's nudity were just cultural differences and that Kimo and Leloni were a nice couple and good parents. She decided to work harder at leaving her stoic New England upbringing behind and learn to live the Hawaiian life. She even considered going to Little Beach with Dan someday in the future but not with Grace and Ben.

After lunch the adults sat by the water and let the kids play. They all seemed to get along good although it looked like Ben was developing a crush on Luana. Grace loved the protected cove they were in. The waves would roll in and gently lift her up as they passed. At times she felt like there were hands on her waist lifting her but no one was that close to her. One time when she dove under a wave she thought she heard a woman's voice say "Aloha Grace. Welcome"

The children swam and played and recruited Kimo for a huge game of Marco Polo. He would lunge in the direction of a voice and several times it seemed like he caught one under the water but they would get away. One time he did catch Luana by her loose bikini bottoms and pull them down below her bum before letting go.

"Hey, no undressing the competitors." Leloni shouted then laughed as her daughter struggled to position the string back in her butt crack.

When it was time to leave Ben and Grace assumed that they would wear their wet bathing suits back to Kimo's house and change there but as they approached the car they watched Cindy take her bottoms off and dry herself in full view of everyone before slipping on knit shorts and no top.

Leloni held up two more sets of clothes. "Kaleo and Luana, come change so you don't get the seats wet. Emma, did you bring a change of clothes for Grace and Ben?"

Emma was a little stunned. "Yes but I thought they would change at your house. They're a little old to be changing in public."

Leloni looked around at the empty beach. "Oh, but we're the only ones here. I guess you could go in the other side of the car if your two are that shy. They're only kids. They don't really have anything to hide yet."

Emma thought for a minute as Ben watched Luana struggle to get out of her wet bikini and then dry herself in full view of the Martin family. His eyes followed her body from the flat chest with no hint of a tan line, down her trim stomach, passed her innie belly button to that mysterious crease of flesh between her legs. He had seen Grace a few times and knew the general anatomy but seeing another girl out in the sunshine like that was a new experience. Kaleo wasn't as much of an exhibitionist and he stayed behind the towel most of the time but Grace did get a few peeks of his boy dick. When they were finished Emma retrieved the kids' clothes and took them around to the back of the car.

"There's no one here so don't be embarrassed. Grace look at the water while your brother changes." She practically whispered.

"It's no big deal mom. Auntie Leloni said there's no one here but us."

"I know Ben. We shouldn't be embarrassed about our bodies. Things are just different here. It's a lot to get used to and it's still illegal to show your private parts in public even in Hawaii so hurry up and finish."

Ben was more embarrassed about his mother seeing his erection than about Luana seeing him. He really liked how free Kimo's children were and looking at Luana's trim naked body was about the most exciting thing he had ever done. While Ben was changing, Grace watched as Kimo wrapped a towel around his middle, held it with one hand to make a tent and somehow changed out of his swimsuit and into some shorts without dropping the towel. She was fascinated by the process and received a few peeks inside the towel as he struggled to get the suit past his knees. It gave her a little tingle between her legs to watch Luana and Kaleo change right out in the open and to know Kimo was naked inside the towel.

She was beginning to like Hawaii a lot and hoped she could be more like Cindy and Luana someday. Grace was drawn to Cindy, maybe because she didn't have a little sister or maybe because she admired how free Cindy lived her life. When they were in the water Grace had stayed close to Cindy and a few times picked her up when a big wave threatened to knock her over. Cindy had hugged her and Grace got a warm feeling inside when Cindy's practically naked body had pressed against her. She wished that she could take her top off the way Cindy did but that wasn't likely with her strict parents.

After Grace had changed Emma insisted on sitting on a towel and not attempting to do what Kimo had done. Dan went behind the car and made an attempt but would have been arrested if it was a public beach. He kept losing one side of the towel and watching it flap open and as he reached for it. Leloni decided to sit on her towel like Emma did just to make her comfortable. She could have easily changed like Kimo did but it usually meant dropping the towel to put her top on.

The ride home was quiet and uneventful except for two things. Kaleo put his towel across his and Grace's lap and placed his hand on her bare leg. If she was back in Massachusetts, she would have yelled at him and pushed his hand away but here in Hawaii things were different and she wanted desperately to fit in. She also wanted to live more like Kaleo's family did with more freedoms and fewer rules about modesty so she let him keep his hand on her bare leg and pretended to sleep leaning on him as his fingers slipped down between her thighs and up closer to her privates. Luana saw what Kaleo was up to and put Ben's hand on her leg then casually moved it to her inner thigh. Normally Ben would have punched Kaleo for touching his sister but Luana held his full attention with her smile and her baby soft thighs. Ben sat with a guilty grin on his face the whole way home as he felt the hot soft skin on his fingers.

They arrived back at Kimo's and Emma took her clothes to the bathroom to change. She was startled by a knock on the door and Leloni saying that Cindy desperately needed to pee and could she come in. As soon as Emma said yes, the door burst open and Cindy raced in, dropped her shorts and sat on the toilet just as the flow started. Emma tried to look away and finish dressing as Cindy finished up and sat swinging her legs back and forth on the toilet. She seemed to be in no hurry to leave.

"You're pretty" Cindy finally said.

"Well thank you Cindy, so are you."

Emma finished getting dressed and waited for Cindy to wipe and jump off the toilet. When Cindy held her arms up for a hug Emma knelt down and pulled her shorts up before wrapping her arms around her. Cindy gave her a big hug then leaned back enough to kiss Emma on the lips.

"Where I come from only grownups kiss each other on the lips. Grownups kiss children on their cheek."

"That's silly" Cindy giggled and she was off.

Emma found out how silly it was when it was time to leave and all of Kimo's children kissed each of the Martins, adult and child, lips to lips. Kimo did the same to Grace and Leloni to Ben before giving hugs to Dan and Emma. They promised to spend another Saturday together and Kimo told Dan about a house for rent that they might be interested in. It was in a newer development but still close to Kimo's house. Dan was very interested and promised to look into it. After they left Leloni settled in Kimo's lap.

"What do you think? Will they adapt?"

"It's too early to tell. I hope so, that Grace is a cutie."

"Grace is more than cute. Did you feel the love when you hugged her? Ben isn't too bad either and I think Luana likes him already."

Chapter 3 - The gradual change

By the first week of July the Martin family was beginning to be settled in their Hawaiian life. Kimo's "cousin" had found a two-bedroom house for Dan to buy in a newer section on the edge of Kimo's development. It had a private fenced in yard which was unusual for Hawaii but the developer was appealing to new arrivals from the mainland who valued their privacy.

Kimo spent most weekends showing them the sights and usually ending up at a secluded beach only accessible by four-wheel drive. Unknown to their parents Grace was letting Kaleo explore inside her shorts on the rides home and Luana was encouraging Ben to do the same.

Emma ended up spending at least part of most days either at Kimo's house or hosting them at her new home. Dan and Kimo had put up a round, four foot high, above the ground pool in Dan's back yard and it was a big hit with Kimo's family. Emma hardly noticed her conservative upbringing slipping away as she first consented to letting Cindy and Luana swim in shirts and panties when they had forgotten their suits.

Leloni was very persuasive and talked a lot about Hawaiian culture and religion. It all made sense to Emma and she found herself criticizing her New England strict upbringing. At first she only let the girls swim in underwear while the boys played video games in the house. As Leloni continued to work her magic Emma came to accept that it was natural for children to see each other's bodies and it was only corrupt adults who said it was bad. Leloni smiled when Emma agreed that the wet shirts were uncomfortable and let the three girls go topless. It took more persuasion for her to wear the skimpy bikini that Leloni gave her, saying her old one-piece was not a Hawaiian swim suit.

While Leloni worked on Emma during the week Kimo worked on Dan during lunch breaks and on the weekends. He also talked about Hawaiian culture and about how pure and joyful the lifestyle was before the first Europeans came and spoiled everything. He told Dan that he was a member of an organization trying to bring back some of those customs. The cornerstone of the ancient religion called Kapulehie (Ka-Poo-Lay-Hee) was the belief that children were a gift from the gods designed to bring joy and pleasure to the world. On the weekends Kimo made sure Dan got lots of peeks of Kaleo and Luana changing and at least one moment with a naked Cindy.

Dan received an unexpected benefit from Emma's education. He found that on days that Emma had spent with Leloni she couldn't wait to get Grace and Ben settled and get Dan in bed so that she could feel his dick slide inside her. Leloni had convinced her that children were a precious gift and the act of making a new one was like performing a miracle even if birth control prevented the completion of the act. It also felt really great practicing.

After their lovemaking she would fill Dan in on the latest adventures with Leloni, making it clear that she approved of all of the changes in her attitude toward nudity and kids. Dan would tell her about Kapulehie and how it might be nice to belong to something bigger than themselves. Like many people on the mainland they had drifted away from church and didn't have a religion they believed in.

Leloni's next conquest was getting Emma to take her top off in the back yard and in front of the three girls. She gave Grace strict orders to not tell anyone what happened in the privacy of their back yard. Grace was fully accustomed to being topless and didn't understand why her mother had waited so long. She actually wanted Kaleo and Ben to join them so that Kaleo could touch her under the water and she thought Ben would like to see the hint of breasts forming on Luana. Grace got her wish a few days later when Ben came into the back yard to tell his mother that he and Kaleo were bored and wanted to swim. Emma was enjoying the sun on her breasts and in a mellow mood so she said yes without thinking about what the boys would see. The boys didn't react at all to the state of undress of the two women and three girls and Leloni made sure to point that out. Children did not equate nudity with sex unless they were taught it by adults.

When they weren't swimming Grace loved to hear Leloni talk about Hawaiian culture. She had felt at home in Hawaii from the moment they arrived on Maui. She noticed it most in the water. Swimming in the surf and being lifted by the waves always made her feel like the water was hugging her. She was also aware that her long silky black hair was almost identical to Luana's and she wondered if she might have a little Hawaiian in her.

The next week was topless week at the Martin's house and poor Dan almost wore out his dick with the amount of sex he got at night. The one that completely blew his mind was when Emma took him out to the pool after dark, undressed him and led him into the water for the best fuck of his life.

"My god Hawaii has really changed you." He gasped as his dick slowly shrank inside her.

"For the better I hope. Leloni has really shown me what we have been missing."

"Thank you Leloni" Dan laughed before pulling Emma into a long kiss.

"Dan, I've been wondering. Do you think it would hurt the kids if they saw each other and us naked like Leloni's family?"

"I don't know. What made you ask that?"

"Leloni said they never wore swimsuits at that secluded beach until we started going with them. She said her kids keep asking when they can stop wearing them. It feels pretty good in here doesn't it?"

Dan pulled her close and let her naked body slide across his in the pool. He had to admit it felt really good.

"Do you think the kids could keep it a family secret? We don't need child protective services snooping around."

"Leloni said family nudity is pretty common here so even if it was reported nothing would be done as long as sex wasn't involved. It's weird though. She kind of hinted that sex was okay but something to keep private."

"Mmmm. You feel fantastic sliding against me. I'm definitely open to swimming like this with the kids but we may have to explain erections to them because I will definitely be having them."

"That won't be necessary. I'm pretty sure Ben has one every time he sees Luana, even fully dressed. He probably wouldn't think the same about Grace and me."

Emma reached down and felt Dan rising again. He wasn't quite as hard as before but hard enough to fill her up again. She supported herself with the ladder and enjoyed him slowly sinking his dick into her over and over and over as his fingers brought her to multiple orgasms. They had been in the pool an hour when he deposited his second, smaller but just as satisfying, supply of cum into her waiting womb. Someday soon she would talk to him about stopping her birth control.

Leloni was busy the next day so Emma took her kids shopping and out to lunch before returning home for a swim. Before getting swimsuits on she stopped to talk to Grace and Ben.

"You both have seen how Leloni's children take showers together and they all change in front of each other. What would you think about the three of us not wearing swimsuits in the pool today? We won't do it if it makes you uncomfortable. If you like it then Dad will join us after supper."

Grace was the first to answer. "That sounds awesome. Luana told me they never wear clothes at the beach when they go alone."

"What about you Ben. Would it creep you out to see your mom naked?"

"No way mom. Keola said you look hot."

"Well, I'm not ready to include Leloni's family yet but maybe someday."

Emma decided the best idea was for them to undress at the doorway and just bring their towels to the pool. She was very grateful for the privacy fence surrounding their yard and that the houses were all one story high. Ben and Grace giggled as they stripped off clothes and ran to the pool.

Emma got down to her panties and had to take a breath and build up her courage before stepping out of the panties and strolling purposely towards the pool, climbing the ladder and slipping in.

"See, isn't this nice?" She asked as Grace and Ben floated and dove under water.

"This is so cool!" Ben exclaimed as he hung onto a pool float.

"Thanks mom, this is great." Grace said as she swam over and hugged Emma.

When Grace put her arms around her mother's neck Emma reached around and supported her with a hand on each butt cheek. She hadn't held her naked daughter since Grace started taking baths by herself and it felt good to be that close to her again.

"I love you sweetie. This is nice. Hey Ben. Group hug." Emma said as she shifted Grace to her hip.

Ben came over and Emma wrapped her arm around him as Grace did the same and they enjoyed a three-way naked hug. Ben was a little self-conscious about the boner he pressed into his mother's side but she didn't seem to notice it so he didn't say anything. Feeling playful, Emma gave each child a peck on the lips and then tossed them backwards into the water. They came up laughing and jumped on Emma, pushing her under.

There was a lot of touching of bare skin as mother, daughter and son wrestled and played in the pool. When Emma called for a truce, she climbed out of the pool and lay in a lounge chair with her towel under her.

She didn't feel a need to cover up, even when Grace and Ben joined her. They had a nice cuddle and rested until it was time to prepare supper.

Sure Ben had gotten erections but that was natural and they eventually softened when she ignored them. Emma decided that Leloni was right and being naked with her children was as natural as breathing. She was beginning to wonder what other advice Leloni might have for adopting the ancient Hawaiian life.

When Dan arrived home from work Grace and Ben were bubbling about their adventure with mom in the pool. They begged him to join them after supper and he finally agreed. Both Dan and Emma reminded the kids again that it was a private family thing that was not to be discussed outside the house.

"What about Kimo's family? Can't we swim like that with them?" Grace asked.

"We'll have to think about that. Maybe they could be one exception but only them."

Dan was shaking with excitement all during dinner. He loved the idea of being able to skinny dip every night after work but worried about the effect on Grace and Ben. Emma kept reassuring him that it was fine in the afternoon and that kids are born nudists until they are told it is bad.

Watch any two-year-old after a bath and they all love to jump and dance around naked. Once the dishes were done Grace and Ben led him to the "undressing area" by the door to the back yard. Dan told them to wait a minute while he checked for the third time that the front door was locked.

They groaned when he checked the gate leading to the back yard then cheered when he returned and said "let's do this"

He took his time pulling his shirt off and dropping his pants as he watched Grace and Ben peel clothes off with big smiles on. They clearly liked the idea of skinny dipping with mom and dad. He admired Ben's athletic body and even his erection that Dan figured would someday give great pleasure to a lucky girl. It was Grace who melted his heart though. She was developing a deep tan and the tan lines across her chest were beginning to fade from the topless sunning she had been allowed to do.

Her chest was almost as flat as Ben's but there was a slight puffiness around each tiny nipple and a hint of the mini-cupcakes that would pop out in a couple of years. He drew in a breath when she removed the last of her clothes and stood waiting for him to finish. Her abdomen was still smooth with no trace of the dark hair that would cover it. Her mound rose up like a ski slope then curved down and under, hiding her crease from view as he stood above her.

Dan pushed his shorts and briefs down in one move and took Ben and Grace by the hand. Emma watched from behind as they ran to the edge of the pool, and Dan lifted each child up by the waist and tossed them over the edge and into the water. She laughed as his thickening dick waved back and forth as he climbed the ladder and cannonballed into the middle of the pool. Their family had crossed another bridge built by Leloni and Kimo and part of her wondered where the next one would lead.

She was gradually warming to Leloni's talks about Kapulehie where children were the source of all love. She didn't understand parts of it yet but she was beginning to consider the idea that her love for Dan shouldn't be hidden from Grace and Ben, it should be shared with them.

Dan felt the water swirl between his legs and around his dick and he resolved to spend as much time as possible skinny dipping. He even thought about trying to get Emma to go to the nude beach with him. His thoughts were interrupted by two little bodies pressing against him. Grace and Ben moved in for hugs and he pulled them both close. The feeling of their skin on his was exhilarating and filled him with love for his children. It was as if clothes were a barrier to the love passing between them and a naked hug was the best way to show them how much he loved them.

"You two are the best! I love you so much."

"We love you too Daddy." Grace said and she leaned in and kissed him quickly on the lips.

"Me too Dad" added Ben as he pulled himself up level with his father and hugged him.

Dan reached around and held Ben by his bottom as Ben hugged him. When Emma joined them it became a four-person hug session with kisses exchanged in every direction. Of course Dan kissed Emma longer and deeper which made the kids giggle, after which he gave Grace a longer than usual kiss on the lips and Emma did the same to Ben. They broke up the kissing when Dan started tickling both children and they dove away.

The next half hour was spent swimming and playing in the small pool until it was time for the children to get ready for bed. Emma decided that Dan and Ben should shower first and she and Grace wrapped up in towels and cuddled on the Lanai. Emma kept playing with Grace's long silky hair and telling her how beautiful she was. When it was their turn she rinsed the chlorine off and took a long time washing and rinsing Grace's hair. She was in no hurry to get dressed so she and Grace wrapped in fresh towels and sat in the living room while she dried and brushed Grace's hair.

She was a little sad when it was time for the children to climb into bed and get their goodnight kisses from Emma and Dan. Cheek kisses had disappeared by then and a series of quick goodnight kisses on the lips had replaced them. It became a game to surprise Grace and Ben with one more kiss, than another and another until everyone was laughing.

"Well that was different." Dan said as they returned to the living room.

"Oh Dan! I haven't felt this close to the kids since they were breastfeeding. Kimo and Leloni are really onto something. We need to keep learning about their traditions.

"I'm sure they would love to teach us. Kimo said something about a spiritual leader they go to. I think they call him Kahuna. I hope it's not just for native Hawaiians."

Ben and Grace were too excited to sleep. Life in Hawaii was so different from back home. They loved how free Kimo's children were and how close they felt to their parents in the pool. Swimming naked should have been considered very naughty but their parents had made it a way to show their love.

Their bedroom was divided into Ben's side and Grace's side. His side was all sports posters and decorations and hers was all pink and girly with princesses and unicorns. When they were both in bed Ben looked over to Grace's side of the bedroom.

"You're really pretty Grace. I like seeing you with no clothes on, even if you are my sister."

"Thanks but I bet you would rather see Luana naked."

"Ha, ha well maybe but you probably want to see Kaleo."

"I like seeing you too Ben. Is your thing always stiff like that?"

"Just when I see a pretty girl like you."

"Is it stiff now?"

"Yea. I wanna touch it real bad. Do you touch yourself?"

"Sometimes..."

"Grace....."

"Yea?"

"Can I come over there and kiss you goodnight again."

"I'd like that."

Before they moved to Hawaii Ben would rather kiss a frog than his little sister but now he knew how good it felt to kiss on the lips he was glad to have a chance to kiss Grace. He crossed over to Grace's side of the room and watched as she lifted the covers for him to get in. His eyes went wide when he saw that she had removed her shorts and was bottomless. She had pulled her shirt up passed her nipples too.

"Take yours off" she said and he quickly stripped naked.

Ben's erection got even bigger when he let Grace see him up close. He awkwardly climbed into Grace's bed and slipped his arm under her neck but didn't come in close contact right away. He was afraid he would cum all over her belly and gross her out if he did but Grace wanted him close and pulled his body against hers.

"That's better." she said as she put her hand on his bare back.

"Now kiss me goodnight like mom kissed you."

Even though Ben was older he didn't know much about kissing. He turned his head slightly and touched his lips to hers. He felt her lips soften and her warm body touch his all the way down to his toes. Grace felt the warmth in her abdomen as soon as her lips touched Ben's.

Kissing was such a nice way to tell someone you loved them. She didn't understand why every family didn't do it. Her Dad had said that their family didn't kiss on the lips but he had just kissed her in the pool and gave her several goodnight kisses. They were quick kisses but long enough for her to want more. Kissing Ben was different. She let her lips soften and stayed in contact with his while she absorbed all the great feelings the kiss generated. Holding him close she felt his skin touching hers down below where everything was so sensitive. She and Ben continued to kiss for several minutes until Grace reached down to touch Ben's dick. He moved back and pulled her hand away.

"I don't think we're supposed to do that."

"You can touch me if you want."

Ben wasn't sure about all this family touching yet so he settled for more kisses and returned to his own bed. He turned his back to Grace and filled a tissue with cum within five minutes. Grace was disappointed but liked the kisses and went to sleep with her hand between her legs and loving their new life in Hawaii. Down the hall in the family room Dan and Emma waited until they thought the kids were asleep then headed to their bedroom for another night of wild lovemaking. Dan was glad the new job had better hours because he had been trading sleep for sex with Emma for the past week. He promised to ask Kimo more about Kapulehie the next day.

Chapter 4 - The first step on the path

The next day at work Dan asked Kimo to have lunch with him at one of the outdoor picnic tables. He said he wanted to talk privately.

"Kimo, Leloni has been telling Emma about Kapulehie and we'd like to learn more about it. Could we meet your Kahuna and ask about joining?"

"Whoa, brother! That's a big step. You have to be fully onboard with the teachings before you can meet the Kahuna and you haven't even arrived at the dock yet. What exactly has Emma learned?"

"This is all confidential between you and me, right?" Dan asked.

"Of course brother. And Leloni of course. I don't keep secrets from her."

"Of course. Well Emma had been going topless and letting Grace do the same in front of Ben and yesterday she and the kids skinny dipped in our pool. Last night I joined them and I've never felt so close to Grace and Ben. It was a religious experience and I want to learn more."

Kimo became very serious and lowered his voice. "Dan, it's our religion but some of it goes against the haloe state laws."

It was the first time Dan had heard Kimo use the word haloe which means white person.

"Well if I have to rob a bank I'm not interested but if it's about something in the privacy of my home than I want to at least learn. I promise I won't reveal anything you tell me. If I don't think we can do it I'll just quietly say it's not for us and only you and Leloni will know."

Kimo laughed. "No bank robbing required but you will need to forget everything you've been taught about what's proper and private. You and Emma need to open yourselves up to the love your children have inside them. Here's what you need to do first!"

Kimo gave Dan an assignment that shocked him at first but he said he would talk to Emma and they would probably try it. He agreed to report back to Kimo before the weekend to let him know if they wanted to keep going.

Dan pulled Emma aside after supper and filled her in on what Kimo had said. Her first reaction was against it but as he explained the concepts of love flowing from and to children she could see some of the logic. If they were going to do it the children would have to be trusted with a big secret. In spite of Kimo's assurances that it was religion it sounded very illegal even for Hawaii.

Grace interrupted them with a request.

"Can we go swimming again like last night?"

"Actually mom and want to talk to you and Ben about something important."

He called Ben over and Emma pulled him into her lap. Dan pulled Grace up onto his lap so that Grace and Ben faced each other.

"We have been learning a lot about family love from Kimo and Leloni. Your mom and I want us all to learn more but you both have to be completely comfortable with everything and you can't tell anyone what we do. Kimo and Leloni's kind of family love is very private and no one but us and maybe them can ever know about it. Can you keep a big secret like that?"

Ben answered first. "If we can be like them then sure. I like the way they kiss all the time and take baths together. Kaleo is no sissy and he lets his sisters see him naked. It's nobody's business what we do as a family."

"Perfect answer Ben. It is no one's business, even your best friend who you might tell everything to. How about you Grace?"

"I love what we've been doing and I want to do more. Is that bad?"

Emma answered before Dan could speak. "We don't think it's bad. We would never do anything bad to you but other people might think it's very bad and report us to the police. They could take you away from us and put you in foster homes so no one can know."

"What mom is saying is we are thinking of trying a new religion. Well, actually it's an old Hawaiian religion called Kapulehie but new for us. We haven't really raised you in a formal religion and we think we may have found one we believe in. The problem is there are laws meant to protect children that may not always agree with this new religion so we need to keep it quiet. Are you both okay with that?"

They both agreed and Grace asked what was next.

"Well Kimo said we have a lot to learn before we can join his church so he gave me two assignments. The first one will feel strange but he said it's important. He said I need to kiss Grace like I kiss your mom and she needs to do the same with Ben. Kimo said touching lips lets the love flow between us. He also said we should hug places we don't usually hug like cute little bums.

Dan squeezed Grace's bum then turned her to face him with her knees inside his on the couch. Emma did the same to Ben and immediately turned her head and touched her lips to Ben's. It was awkward at first but she thought she could feel Ben's love trying to get through.

"Ben, I know it's weird but you need to stop smiling and relax your lips. Maybe you should close your eyes."

Ben did as he was told and when Emma made contact again she was flooded with sensual emotions. Ben's small mouth was touching hers, not in a quick son's peck, but in a slow lover's kiss. She ran the fingers of one hand through his curls and let her other hand slide down and cup his bottom. Emma could feel the love flowing freely between them and when she broke the kiss she sighed deeply and smiled. She had completed her first assignment with no regrets or hesitation.

Dan looked at Grace, pointed to Emma and Ben and smiling said "Do what they did"

Grace had watched every detail and was very willing to try the grownup thing with her dad. She leaned in and let him press his lips to hers in her first adult style kiss. She knew immediately that she wanted more of them, a lot more. Dan felt her soft lips against his and his whole body relaxed. His lips seemed to melt into Grace's and his hands roamed across her back and down to her bum. Unlike Emma, he didn't keep his hands outside her clothes. The kiss gave him an urge to feel her skin and he slipped his hand inside her panties to hold a bare bum cheek. Grace responded by lifting up to give him better access and kissing him harder. Kimo had told Dan to let the love flow and imagine he was kissing and touching Emma. Dan got so wrapped up in that fantasy that Emma had to touch his shoulder and bring him back to earth. It was time for the more difficult of the two assignments.

"Whew. That was amazing Grace. Could you feel the love?"

"Oh yes Daddy. It was wonderful. Do we have to stop?"

"Kimo gave me two assignments to get us started in learning Kapulehie. That was the first one."

"I wish our teachers gave homework like that." Ben added laughing.

"Well Kimo and Lelani are our teachers and we have another assignment that will be hard for your mom and me."

"What is it Daddy?" Grace asked.

"He said we have to include you in our most private intimate form of sharing love. He wants you both to be with us when we make love."

"How do you make love? Isn't it just inside you?" Ben asked.

Emma laughed. "Well usually when you get a little older we would sit you down and try to explain it without telling you all the private details. Tonight we will show you but remember this is one of the most private things anyone does so"

"We can never tell anyone ever. We know" both kids said together.

"Let's move to the bedroom and get comfortable."

Dan and Emma decided to keep it simple for this first time. Nothing kinky, no strange positions, just foreplay and missionary position intercourse. They led the children to their bedroom for the first lesson.

"Making love is all about giving love to the other person. That starts with kissing and continues with undressing each other and touching sensitive places that make the other person feel good."

As Grace and Ben watched Dan pulled Emma into a deep kiss and slowly pulled her shirt up and off. She did the same for him and then hugged him as he reached around and unhooked her bra. When it was loose he backed up, slid it off her arms and moved in to kiss her breasts. Emma sighed and ran her fingers through his hair as his tongue did wild things to her body.

"Does that feel good mom?" Grace asked.

"Oh honey it's wonderful. When you grow you will find out how sensitive they are. Why don't you both take your shirts off."

Dan backed up to the bed and sat down with Emma in front of him and Grace and Ben on either side of her. Dan slipped his hands inside Emma's shorts and started to work them down. Suddenly he had an idea.

"Kids, why don't you undress us. This is all about sharing love so you shouldn't just stand and watch."

Dan stood up to give them access and Emma whispered in his ear. "I hope we know what we're doing."

"Me too. Remember it's all about love and we love our children."

Ben stood behind his mother and tugged at her shorts and panties while Grace slipped in front of Dan and worked at his shorts. When he unsnapped them she was able to push them down, kneeling down to pull them off over each foot. She reached up and grabbed the waistband of his briefs and pulled them down. His dick bounced above her as she got them down and off. He had to stop her when she tried to feel it.

"Not now Grace. Tonight you watch."

Ben was the first to get the hint and he stripped off the rest of his clothes. Dan saw him and said "Good idea Ben." Then he moved Emma to the middle of the bed and slid up between her legs. Grace and Ben climbed on opposite sides of the bed to watch. Dan gave Grace a hint by reaching over and pulling one side of her shorts down.

"Cloth keeps the love from passing from one body to the other. This is all about sharing love and we don't want anything in the way."

He watched as Grace pushed her shorts and panties down and off. She moved up next to Emma who was laying on her back smiling.

"Now what happens?" Ben said from the other side of the bed.

"Well your father and I kiss some more and tell each other how much we love each other and then he shows me by putting part of his body deep inside mine. That's how he made you and Grace."

Dan was holding himself above Emma and his body was telling him to get moving and fill the need his dick was screaming about. It was a need to be inside his wife and he lowered himself down to spread some precum. She was already pretty wet with anticipation and he almost came from the touch of his crown on her wet pussy. He leaned down and kissed Emma as his dick slid along her vagina and bumped her clit.

"Oh Dan. I can't wait any longer. Put it in me now."

Dan moved up and back just enough and found her opening. For a mother of two she was still pretty tight and the stimulation from sliding fully into his wife was always magnificent.

"Watch down there kids "he said as he pressed forward and sank fully into Emma.

Having an audience was so overwhelming he almost shot his load immediately. To hold off he stayed still and lifted up enough for Grace and Ben to see where Dan and Emma were joined. Grace reached down and felt for her hole and Ben stroked his already hard dick.

"How about a kiss Grace?"

He said as he leaned over to her. Emma did the same to Ben and slid her hand down his bare back to his bum as she received a lover's kiss from her ten-year-old son. Dan's arms were both busy holding himself up but he managed to give Grace a long sexy kiss while embedded in his wife's vagina. When he couldn't hold out any longer he said "Here we go!" and started to move in and out of Emma. The kids watched fascinated as his hard dick appeared all wet and shiny then disappeared inside their mother. Grace couldn't keep her hands off of her pussy and Ben was stroking g himself non-stop as Dan built to his climax. The only sound was the unmistakable slapping of a dick sliding into a wet vagina and the occasional moans from Emma. Dan wanted to give the kids a good show but after only three strokes he could feel the eruption starting and no force in the world could stop it. He closed his eyes, slammed his abdomen against Emma and felt the first blast race up his shaft.

"He's doing it kids. He's putting his seed inside me. Oh it feels so good. Someone kiss me please." Emma pleaded.

Grace was the first to reach her and she gave her mother a kiss as she pressed their bodies together. Dan was so rocked with ejaculations he could only lock his arms and pump more and more cum into Emma. It was the fourth blast before he could open his eyes and when he did he was looking at the back of Grace's head. Grace was still kissing her mother when she felt Ben pushing his face in. He wanted to kiss Emma but ended up kissing Grace first.

"That's okay Ben. You can show your sister some love. This is private family love, anything goes as long as no one gets hurt."

Ben was so excited from watching his parents fuck that he didn't think about the fact that Grace was his sister. He wanted to kiss someone and Grace was already kissing his mother. When Grace turned her head towards him he moved in and enjoyed the touch of his little sister's lips on his. He pulled away when Dan pointed out what he was doing and looked down to where Dan was still pressing his abdomen against Emma's. Dan finally stopped humping against Emma and lifted up to show Ben and Grace where he was still inside her. Ben reached down to feel where his dad entered his mom but pulled his hand back.

"Ew, it's all wet down there."

"That's a good thing" Dan replied. Sex is messy, it's supposed to be. If everything is slippery it doesn't hurt when I go inside mom.

"Can I feel?" Grace asked.

"Of course honey. We want to share everything with you."

"Will you put it in me someday?" Grace asked her father.

"Oh that's something really different. Daddies are not supposed to do that to their daughters."

"Are they supposed to do this?" She asked, pointing to her two naked parents still joined together.

"Well no but I'm pretty sure that me doing it to you wouldn't be part of Kapulehie."

"Okay, well this was awesome. Thank you for letting us watch."

"The lesson isn't quite over yet. Your mom made me feel really good and shoot my seed into her but she didn't get the good feelings yet. You should always try to make the other person feel just as good. Next time maybe I can show you some things I do to make mommy feel all tingly inside. For now we can use our hands and our mouths."

Dan shrunk enough to slip out of Emma and he slid down beside her. He had Grace sit between Emma's legs so that she could see where he touched and he had Ben take over kissing Emma and touching her breasts. Emma was already on high alert and when Dan found her clit with his fingers while Ben kissed her it was too much and she blasted off into an orgasm. Her muscles tightened, her eyes shut and she moaned as the pleasure signals fired all through her abdomen and out from her breasts.

"Is mommy okay?" Asked a scared Grace

"Oh she's very much okay. When a grownup gets that much love feelings it's kind of overpowering and it takes a few minutes to calm down.

"Oh God Dan. That was so good and yes Grace, mommy is very much okay. Come give me a hug."

Emma pulled Grace on top of her and twitched when Grace's knee rubbed her sensitive clit. After a few kisses she gave Grace to Dan and pulled Ben up for hugs. She almost pushed his stiff dick inside her as he dragged it along her crease. She thought that would probably come soon.

Dan and Emma decided to let the kids sleep between them to share the love. Dan spooned Grace and Emma spooned Ben as the two children faced each other. Before drifting off to sleep Emma whispered in Ben's ear.

"Kiss your sister goodnight Ben."

Ben moved against Grace and gave her an awkward kiss before sliding back against his mother. He didn't want his parents to know that he had already kissed Grace while laying naked beside her the other night. Grace just smiled and said goodnight.

Chapter 5 - A lesson for Ben and Grace

Dan and Emma woke up feeling very guilty. They were naked with their naked children between them and the magnitude of what they had done hit them hard. Everything they had learned up until that point screamed that it was wrong to involve children in sex of any kind. Dan said he would talk to Kimo. The morning dragged on until it was finally lunch time. Dan led Kimo to a far table so they could talk.

"Kimo, we're not pedophiles. This feels really wrong."

"So you don't love your children? Because that's what pedophile means, someone who loves children. Dan, maybe you have too many years of brainwashing to open yourself up to the truth."

"What truth?"

"That in your whole history people in power have controlled you by telling you if it feels good it was bad. The Romans lived a life of pleasure so the Christians said it was bad. The Renaissance celebrated the human body so the church blamed the Black Plague on it. All through your haloe history the church wanted you miserable so you would buy your way into their fantasy called Heaven with donations. If that's what you believe then you will never accept our truth that children are the source of all love."

"It's a lot to swallow." Dan said quietly.

"Do me one favor Dan. Just forget everything I told you and don't try to "save" me or my family."

"Kimo, I didn't say I wanted to stop learning. I just said it's a lot."

Kimo hesitated a minute then leaned closer to Dan.

"If you're serious then take a week to continue what you did last night with one addition. Include Grace and Ben in the foreplay. Let them feel what you feel to release some of their internal love fire. If you still want to learn more after a week then we can talk."

"You want me to molest my daughter?"

"Keep talking like that and we're done. I want you to love your daughter and release her love with your touch. Her love is tied up from your twisted teachings. She needs help releasing it. Either you want to learn Kapulehie or not."

"Okay, Kimo. We'll try it. I really do want to learn."

"You should do one more thing then. You and Emma should get a DNA test from one of those Genealogy companies. It will make a big difference if you have some native Hawaiian in you."

"What kind of difference?"

"There are areas of the island and customs only allowed for native Hawaiians. Some of state laws don't apply in those areas. That's all I can say."

That night they enjoyed another skinny-dipping swim. Dan spent extra time hugging Grace and rubbing against her slippery body. Emma did the same with Ben and by the time it was bedtime the sexual tension was so high you could almost hear it crackle. Dan told Emma he didn't think he could hold off to cum inside her and she said she understood. She had never felt so loved in her life.

They went directly from the pool to the bathroom for showers then bed. This time Dan and Emma washed every inch of their children with their hands. Emma felt a thrill deep in her vagina when she slipped Ben's little stiff rod between her soapy fingers. Dan was extra gentle as he soaped between Grace's legs and let his finger trace her crease. His dick kept pressing against her back as he washed her hair and each touch brought him closer to cuming. He wished he had asked Emma to bring him off in the pool. When they got to the bedroom Dan explained the changes.

"Kids, we're going to try something different tonight. Were you both okay with what we did last night?"

Both Grace and Ben said they were and Dan tried to think how Kimo would explain it.

"Last night you watched us release the love we have inside. Tonight instead of watching us you will get to experience some of it. Just relax and let your love flow out. If you don't like something tell us right away and we'll stop. Let's start with you in the middle."

Dan lay on one edge of the bed facing Grace and pulled her close. He could smell the shampoo and soap but there was also a faint scent that could only be described as child. Every parent knows it and it's best right after a warm bath or shower. Emma did the same and pulled Ben's chest into her breasts. She was the first to start the kissing and since he couldn't reach her bum she put his free hand on her breast. Dan slid his arm under Grace's neck and reached her lower back. He used his free hand to caress her cheek and explore down her front. When she tried to reach between them he stopped her.

"Grace, this is so beautiful the second you touch me I'm gonna squirt my love juice out. Let me make you feel good first then we can get some tissues and you can make me feel good like mommy does."

"Okay Daddy. What should I do?"

"Just kiss me honey. I'll do the rest."

Grace was beginning to really like kissing her dad. She closed her eyes and let the feelings flow as his big hands caressed her neck and back and down to her bum. She liked it when he cupped her bum cheeks and squeezed them gently as they kissed. She was a little disappointed when he moved to her hip but gasped when he slipped his hand down across her privates and between her legs. It felt so good to be touched down there. Daddy's wrist felt much better than the stuffed animals she would squeeze between her legs. She liked it even more when he played with her bum while pressing his arm into her privates.

Dan was shaking with excitement as he felt Grace's warm smooth skin on his arm. Reaching between her legs was so much more erotic than just touching her abdomen. It was more intense and he hoped better for Grace. Her ragged breathing and grinding against his arm said he was doing something right. He looked over to Emma who had both hands-on Ben's bottom and was grinding him into her torso. It looked like Ben had at least one hand between his mother's legs and Dan wondered if Emma would have the courage to give Ben one of her outstanding blow jobs.

Emma could do things with her tongue that would drive any man or boy crazy.

Dan moved his hand up and decided to see if Grace could orgasm yet. He let his fingers slide over her anus and up to her vagina where the heat she was throwing off surprised him. Was that part of the love that flowed from children? To find out he let his middle finger press into her folds and seek out moisture. He didn't find enough so he secretly moved his hand to a place where it was flowing freely, the tip of his dick. He was already leaving a wet spot on the bed and on Grace's leg.

Taking his now slippery fingers, he explored all of Grace's sex while showering her with kisses and telling her how much he loved her. He was afraid to penetrate her but he found her little bump and played with it until he felt her stiffen and heard her cry out. "Oh Daddy." It was the sexiest thing he had ever heard. Grace instinctively reached for his dick and caused Dan's volcano to erupt. To minimize the mess he rolled her on top of his body and humped his dick between her legs as he coated her with semen.

"Oh Fuck! Grace! I love you so much. Feel me give you my love juice."

Dan almost passed out from the intensity. He hugged Grace tight and shook through several aftershocks. She felt the cum running between her legs and squeezed them together. That caused more aftershocks for Dan.

"Daddy you said a bad word and you made a mess."

"Sorry honey, sometimes bad words slip out during sex. It's the one time when it's okay to say them and sex is messy but that's okay. Eating ice cream can be messy but we still like it."

"I like sex better than ice cream Daddy. When can we do it again?"

"Whew, you have to let Daddy recover and make some more stuff to squirt. We didn't actually have sex we just did some sexy things to unlock your love. It's complicated."

"Well I liked it whatever it is."

"How you doing over there Mommy? Your daughter drained me so Ben will have to take over for me."

Emma had watched Dan and Grace between kisses with Ben. She had guided his hand down between her legs where it was now covered in her pussy juices. Now that Grace was taken care of she decided to take the leap and give Ben the special love she was so good at.

"Ben, I want to do something nice for you. It will seem weird and might tickle at first but I think you will love it. It would be great if you would keep touching Mommy like you were doing but turn around so that I can kiss you down here." Emma patted his little dick as she said it.

"You want to kiss my pecker?"

"Ha, is that what the boys call it? Yes and believe me you will love it."

"I totally agree." Dan added. "Just relax and let Mom do her thing."

Emma had loved feeling Dan's dick in her mouth since the first time he talked her into trying it on their honeymoon. Since they were both inexperienced they were both open to trying anything that didn't hurt.

She had never licked another dick besides Dan's until she pulled Ben's body into position and tasted her son for the first time. Everything was so different she couldn't describe it. First of course was the size. Dan wasn't huge but he was more than satisfying in length and thickness. Ben was somewhere between a pencil and a marker in thickness and maybe three inches long. She could easily take all of him in her mouth which she did right away.

"Don't bite it!" Ben said as he stiffened in fright. He was genuinely afraid she might accidentally snip it clean off.

"Oh honey don't worry. I'll be careful. Can you put your hand where I showed you?"

Ben was clearly uncomfortable touching Emma's dripping wet pussy and not being able to see what she was doing to his dick. Dan wiped Grace with some tissues and told her they needed to help mommy. He slid off the bed and came around to Emma's side.

"Honey, let us help" he said as he lifted Ben up and off his mother.

Dan took hold of Emma's legs and swung her around until her abdomen was at the edge of the bed. He then picked up Ben and lowered him down onto Emma's chest so that she could lick Ben's stiff little dick and Ben could see what she was doing. Dan had regained enough hardness to slide between Emma's legs and insert his dick into her. Grace was given the job of first kissing her brother and then playing with her mother's breasts. She had a front row seat to watch her father's dick slide in and out of her mother.

"Okay everyone. Let's make Mommy feel really loved and see if we can release some of Ben's love energy. "

Dan was beginning to believe what Kimo told him about children possessing love energy that could be released and shared. It allowed him to perform what would normally be considered a very perverted act in front of Grace and Ben. As he sank his dick in Emma he stroked Grace's silky hair and tickled Emma's clit. Grace liked the feeling of her mother's nipple on her tongue and began to flood Emma with pleasure signals.

Once Ben stopped worrying about being bitten he realized how good it felt down below. He started to hump in and out of Emma's mouth and she held him by his bum cheeks to help him move back and forth.

Ben's movements kept bumping into Grace so she lifted up out of the way and leaned in to kiss Dan. Dan responded by pulling her closer then cupping her bald pussy. It wasn't exactly a four-way orgasm but Emma felt Ben stiffen and she thought she tasted a few drops of boy cum. That taste combined with Dan driving his dick into her sent Emma into orgasm land and she sucked Ben's dick so hard it hurt him a little. Grace had a mini orgasm on Dan's fingers as they kissed and Dan was satisfied with some good feelings from fucking his wife with his children there.

When they all calmed down Dan carried Grace to the bathroom for a quick shower then got back in bed where Emma was holding Ben close and playing with his curly hair. Dan put Grace next to Ben and slid in to hold her close. After a few gentle kisses he and Grace drifted off to a peaceful sleep.

Chapter 6 - Love is all around

Dan ordered two of the DNA kits and he and Emma sent in saliva samples.

It was supposed to take about two weeks for the results. Kimo had said give the inclusion of the children in the love making at least a week and that's what Dan and Emma did. After the first couple wild nights they settled into a calmer routine where Dan would bring Grace to orgasm with his fingers, Emma would do the same for Ben and then Dan would give Emma a slow sensual fuck while the kids watched. After Emma and Dan were satisfied they would all cuddle naked and sleep together. At the end of the week Dan reported back to Kimo.

"You did good brother. Are you starting to release the love?" Kimo said at lunch when Dan told him he was ready for the next step.

"I think so but it seems like it's still mostly me and Emma."

"That's okay brother. It takes time. Ready for your next lesson. This one won't take a week."

"We're ready. What's next?"

"Okay, forget your old ways and teachings. Child love doesn't have a gender. What you need to do the next couple days is switch partners. You love Ben and let Emma love Grace."

"Won't that make us gay?"

"That's your old life talking. Ben has powerful love to give. Your job is to find out how to release it. Same for Grace. If you can do it we can try the next step this weekend."

After supper that night Emma didn't know if they could do the assignment. She was pretty sure Grace would be open to being touched by a woman but it didn't seem right for Dan to touch Ben.

"Remember, that's our old life talking. I need to find a way to release Ben's love energy." Dan reassured her. He was sounding more like Kimo every day.

During their evening swim Dan spent more time with Ben than with Grace. He asked him if he was okay with all the family changes they had made.

"Are you kidding Dad? It's been great. Me and Grace love being with you and mom when we do the love stuff. I don't have to rub myself after Grace goes to sleep anymore."

"You don't have to wait for mom either. You have love inside that I can help you release. You just have to relax and let it happen."

Dan lifted Ben up and supported him with his left arm as he reached between them and found Ben's penis. Although it was small it was as firm as his own and he let it slip between his fingers and rubbed the tip with his thumb.

"Is this okay for us to do Dad?"

"It's more than okay. It's what we should be doing to release our love so that we can share it. There's more that we can do too." Dan said as he leaned in and kissed the surprised boy.

"Wow. That was so different from mom. Can we do it again?"

"We can do whatever gives you those special feelings. You will be surprised what two men can do to please each other. As long as the love flows it doesn't matter if you are with me or mom or Grace or maybe someone in Kimo's family. As long as we all believe the same thing and keep the family secret we can explore all kinds of ways to release the love."

Dan shifted and moved his erection up so that it was next to Ben's. Then he put both hands on Ben's bum and went searching for his anus. He whispered to Ben.

"Let me show you something new. Tell me if it hurts and don't shout if I surprise you."

Ben felt his father's fingers running across his bum crack and then felt a strange sensation as Dan found the wrinkled muscle and started playing with it. He circled the rim and wiggled a finger back and forth looking for an opening. When Ben relaxed Dan was able to pry the tight muscle open a bit and feel where it curved inside.

"Push out a little like you have to poop then relax." Dan whispered.

Ben did what he was told and felt Dan's finger slip inside his bottom.

"That feels so weird." He whispered

"I know but it gets better. Just keep thinking part of me is inside you just like I go inside mommy."

"Oh yea. Wow. Can you show me how to kiss better too?"

Dan smiled and leaned in to touch his lips to Ben's. This time he let the tip of his tongue wipe across Ben's lips. Ben's eyes went wide and he broke out in a big smile. When he came back for another kiss he touched Dan's tongue with his. Dan continued to play with his son's anus while teaching him the finer points of French kissing. He had a funny thought that this was much more fun than teaching him to hit a baseball. It got even better when Ben reached down to wrap his hand around Dan's dick combined with his own. The feeling of Ben's hand and Ben's dick rubbing the side of his pushed him over the edge and he grunted as a new feeling spread over him.

Dan had been having intense orgasms since the first assignment from Kimo but this was different. First he felt a warmth like a heat lamp was suddenly shining on him. His eyes screwed shut but instead of blackness he saw flashes and waves of pink and blue light moving before his closed eyes. His body seemed to float for a second then rocket up past the highest volcano and back down in an instant. He pulled Ben tight to his body and felt an energy flow between them. There was cum, lots of it flowing between their bodies but Dan wasn't reacting to the pulses of cum surging up his shaft. He was absorbing Ben's love directly through his skin and converting it to the immense pleasure from his ejaculations.

Ben felt it too and cried out. "Dad! Oh shit I can feel it. Hold me Dad." as his father's hot cum splashed against his belly and his dick erupted with at least a couple tablespoons of boy cum.

His body was adapting to the stimulations and starting to produce the liquid that gave such fantastic feelings when it was forced up the narrow tube. Dan leaned back against the wall of the pool and held Ben by his bum cheeks while his middle finger was still completely inside Ben's rectum. Man and boy trembled through several orgasms before Dan took a deep breath and released it with a sigh.

"Wow! That was intense Ben. Are you okay?"

"Yeah Dad. I'm great. I didn't think I would like it but it was awesome."

Emma and Grace were much calmer and quieter during their connection time. Emma had put Grace on a float and had spent the first few minutes just kissing and touching. The float put Grace level with Emma's breast and she fed them to her daughter while caressing Grace's hairless abdomen. When Dan and Ben started toward their climaxes Emma turned the float so that Grace could watch her brother and father together. While Grace watched the action, Emma came around behind her and stroked her to multiple orgasms. When she saw Dan and Ben stiffen and hug each other she pulled Grace into a face-to-face hug, pressed Grace's knee into her pussy and enjoyed her own flashing lights orgasm as her daughter humped her leg into Emma's hot pussy.

They moved into a four-way kiss and hug session until Ben said he was hungry and they all laughed. Ben loved the newly discovered sex but he was a growing boy and needed food after all the exercise. They decided to order delivery and Dan was chosen to get dressed to open the door when the food arrived. Emma, Grace and Ben stayed out of sight until the door closed then rushed to the kitchen carrying towels to sit on. Dan just shook his head in disbelief as he sat at the table and watched his naked wife and naked children dig into pizza like they hadn't eaten in a week. He made a mental note to run the pool filter overnight and check the chemicals. Skinny dipping was becoming a nightly occurrence and it now included doses of cum and girl juices for the filter to remove.

At bedtime Grace and Ben agreed that Dan and Emma should have sex while they lay on either side of them. In spite of having cum a few hours earlier Dan knew he wouldn't last long so he gave Grace and Ben a lesson in cunnilingus. They had both experienced oral sex but seeing Dan get ready to dive into Emma's wrinkled, wet vagina made Ben a little squeamish. Grace said that she loved it when Emma had licked her. Dan didn't think they would want to hear that pee was sterile and although it was bitter he had tasted it many times when probing for Emma's clitoris. Emma was a willing partner and pulled herself open so that Ben and Grace could see all her inner parts. She jumped when Ben tried to stick his finger in her hole but then held his hand and slowly guided it inside her vagina. She was glad to see him smell his wet finger then tentatively taste it.

"How is it Ben?" Grace asked.

"Just salty. Not bad. You try it."

"Just go slow Grace"

Emma held her breath as Grace traced the path from her clit to her opening and pressed her finger completely inside her mother. Grace removed her finger and after a quick sniff put her whole finger inside her mouth and licked it clean.

"If you guys are through with your taste tests could you let you father get to work? My body is begging for his tongue."

Dan took the hint and buried his face in Emma's wet pussy. He moaned in pleasure when he dipped into her well and tasted Emma's salty nectar. The kids watched intently as he worked her whole vulva, pressing into her hole then drawing his tongue up to her clit, stimulating her pussy lips as he did. When he sucked her whole clit into his mouth she grabbed two fistfuls of his hair and pressed him into her clit as her first orgasm hit. Dan knew his wife and immediately moved up to let her taste her own juices as he sank his dick fully inside her.

Grace and Ben again watched as Dan's thick erection disappeared inside their mother's body. They saw the fire in Emma's eyes as she felt Dan's dick deep inside her and accepted his tongue coated with her own juices. Grace instinctively reached down and rubbed her pussy as Ben stroked his dick. She wondered when it would be her turn to feel someone's penis press inside her and would it be Ben's or her dad's or even Kaleo's. She had seen how his bulged out under his swimsuit.

Grace and Ben's thoughts were interrupted by the string of shouts and obscenities coming from their mother's mouth as Dan's dick sliding in and out of her brought her to another orgasm. She thrashed her head back and forth and reached desperately for her children's bodies to touch.

"Ben, Grace! Come close!"

She gasped as she stretched out her hands palms up on the bed. The kids jumped into action and she felt an even bigger orgasm build as one hand cupped Grace's bald pussy and the other played with Ben's little erection. It was a good thing the windows were closed when she felt Dan slam into her and grunt because she screamed in ecstasy when she felt him thicken and fill her with cum. Dan came so hard it hurt as his body squeezed every little sperm out of him and deep inside Emma. The kids cheered and crawled up to kiss Emma and hug her as she trembled through a huge orgasm. Dan collapsed on top of her and lay there panting as aftershocks pushed more little spurts of cum into his wife's hungry pussy. He and Emma were too spent to move so Grace cuddled up with Ben and fell asleep in his arms.

Chapter 7 - The road to Hana and beyond

Dan couldn't wait to tell Kimo about their latest adventures.

"Hey brother, you and Emma are making great progress. The next step should be easy. Children have too much love to keep to just their parents so you need to let them share it with trusted friends and relatives. I want you to all to join my family for a swim at a hidden beach on Saturday where we will swim and play like the gods intended with nothing covering our bodies."

Dan hesitated. "I'm not ready to say anyone but Emma and I can touch my children. Is that okay."

"Sure brother. Baby steps. First they share their beauty. When they are ready they share their bodies. You should know that Grace let Kaleo touch her and Luana let Ben touch her already in the car so keeping them apart might be hard."

"Okay but no intercourse. I don't want Grace losing her virginity to Kaleo or you even."

"No worries. Her first time should be with the one who made her. It will release the maximum amount of love."

Dan hadn't considered having sex with Grace. It was pretty obvious that was where they were headed but he had blocked it out of his mind. He was pretty sure that Emma would be okay with the nude swimming with Kimo's family.

"Oh Dan. Before I forget. Cindy will want to share her love with both you and Emma. Maybe with all four of you. That girl is overflowing with love energy and she needs to burn it off. I can't keep up with her so I hope you will help me out. She keeps asking when it will be okay."

"Wow. And she's only seven? She must take after her dad. How much sharing are we talking about here?"

"As much as you can take. My advice is stay out of the deep water with her. You don't want to risk drowning if you pass out from love energy overload. Once you join your body to hers you will literally see stars and feel the love energy she expels."

Dan explained everything to Emma, Ben and Grace that night. Grace was a little hesitant to let Kimo see her naked but her pussy tingled when she thought about letting Kaleo see her and her seeing him. She wondered if he was bigger than Ben down there.

Kimo explained that they would be seeing one of the most popular tourist attractions on Maui, the Hana Highway and they needed to start early. Dan managed to get everyone to Kimo's by 7 AM where Leloni had coffee ready for the adults and pineapple and pastries ready for everyone to eat in the car. Grace and Ben were on vacation time and were not fully awake. After eating, Grace was very happy to let Kaleo put his arm around her and let her cuddle up to him. Ben took the hint and did the same to Luana and enjoyed the special feeling of a girl's soft body in his arms.

Cindy was a different story altogether. She was wide awake and full of energy. She kept asking Kimo if they were going to stop at this waterfall or that overlook. She seemed to have the entire route memorized which was quite a feat since the road is over fifty miles long with about six hundred curves and over fifty bridges.

"Daddy, will we see the rainbow trees? Those are my favorite." She bubbled.

"Yes Cindy. We will stop to see your trees."

"What are rainbow trees?" Emma asked.

"Oh they're just the prettiest trees in the world. Wait till you see them."

"They're rainbow Eucalyptus Trees." Kimo added. "The bark is multicolored stripes. They are pretty stunning. Cindy, don't forget we want to take the Martin's swimming at our special place so we can't make too many stops."

"Okay Daddy. When will we get there?"

"Not for a while. Why don't you rest a bit until we get to the first stop."

Cindy took the hint and stopped asking questions. She took Emma's arm and put it around her and leaned against Emma's side. Emma pulled her into a hug and felt at peace holding the warm soft seven-year-old. Cindy sucked her thumb and tried to settle down but something was missing.

She finally took Dan's hand and put it between her legs. After squeezing her legs together to get a little burst of pleasure she settled down and closed her eyes. Dan looked at Emma with a mixture of shock and joy.

Touching Cindy so boldly was sending sparks of energy up his arm and signals to his dick to rise. He accepted the strange situation when Leloni looked back at Cindy and smiled at Dan. He had Cindy's mother's approval to keep his hand right where it was, buried between Cindy's legs.

Kimo pointed out some sights for the Martins to check out on their own someday like the famous seafood restaurant on the shore and the kite surfing beach where the steady winds propelled surfers skimming across the water and high in the air. They stopped at the Three Bears waterfall and watched the tourists descend the steep path to the river. Kimo explained that most tourists get to the bottom and find that the rock filled stream bank at the bottom are too much of a challenge. They either try it and end up with a sprained ankle or climb back up and end up with sore legs for the next three days of their vacation.

When they reached the park with the rainbow trees Cindy led the way and Emma and Grace laughed at the sign "Quiet, trees at work" on the path.

Cindy knew every tree and pointed out her favorites. Kimo said he wondered if their ancestors talked to Cindy through the trees. She would stop at a tree and touch the colorful bark and nod her head as if agreeing with something she had been told. After visiting all of her tree friends she took Emma and Dan's hands and walked back to the car with them.

About half way back to the car Dan looked at Emma and saw she was smiling like he was. Holding Cindy's hand seemed to fill him with peace and he couldn't stop smiling. He wondered if there might be more to Kimo's Kapulehie than he thought. Ben was usually shy around girls but he was talking nonstop to Luana. Grace was quieter but holding Kaleo's hand as they walked. Secretly, Dan hoped Kaleo wouldn't steal Grace away from him.

The next stop was a state park with beautiful views of the ocean and a food truck with the best barbecued pork tacos they had ever tasted.

When Dan warned the kids to stay away from the edge Kimo told the story about a honeymoon couple who had stopped there. The new bride wanted a picture and kept telling her new husband to back up closer to the edge. With a straight face Kimo said.

"He took one too many steps back. The wife flew home in first class, the husband went home in cargo."

Ben asked what that meant and Dan explained that the husband had fallen off the cliff and went home in a casket. Leloni slapped Kimo on the arm and told him to stop scaring the children. After lunch they continued on the Hana highway and reached one of the unique features of Hawaii.

Because the winds generally blow from the same direction the sides of the island that get hit by the moisture filled wind are green and lush with lots of rain. As soon as you reach the point where the volcano blocks the wind everything is dry. It's very evident past Hana where within a few blocks the land changed from green and tropical to dry and lifeless.

Tourists can't go there because the road isn't paved and only a few tour buses travel it.

Kimo switched to four-wheel drive and continued on. Kaleo saw the change and told Grace they were almost at the beach. When they reached some tire tracks heading down the hill Kimo turned and followed them. Only a few natives knew about this beach and he was sure it would be empty. They bounced over rocks and sand and around a large lava flow that completely hid the beach from above. When they turned the corner Dan and Emma leaned forward to look out the window.

"Oh Kimo, it's beautiful." Emma said.

In front of them was a cove with lava flows on either side and a sandy beach between them. There were no other cars there.

"Welcome to Aloha Keiki beach."

"Does that mean hello children?" Dan asked.

"Child Love beach is closer." Leloni said. "It's not an official name of course."

Kimo parked parallel to the beach and everyone climbed out. Dan had explained to Ben and Grace that they would be swimming nude with Kimo's family and they shouldn't be self-conscious about showing their bodies. Ben thought that was a lot easier for Grace. She didn't have an erection sticking out that was so hard it hurt. He felt a little better when Kaleo undressed and he was just as stiff and about the same size as Ben.

Kimo was first in the water, dropping his clothes and leaving them in the car. Emma joked to Leloni that Kimo had a "nice ass" and she responded that Dan did too as Dan dropped his shorts and briefs. Emma helped Cindy undress then took her hand and headed to the water for her first nude swim in front of someone other than Dan, Ben and Grace. Nude swimming in the ocean was so much better than in their little pool. The waves slapped her pussy and washed up to her breasts. Sinking down to Cindy's height she enjoyed another of the naked adult-child hugs she had learned to love.

"Oh Cindy. This is wonderful. And the water is so warm."

"That's for us. Namaka, the goddess of water asked her sister Pele to warm it for us."

"Well thank you Namaka and Pele." Emma said smiling. She pulled Cindy into another hug and felt a definite warmth flow through her body.

The four other children played in the waves like any clothed children with the exception that accidental touches could be on private places that stirred new emotions. There was no obvious touching or any kissing at first but Kaleo and Luana taught Ben and Grace a few naughty games when their parents weren't looking. Kaleo and Luana were excellent swimmers and could dive and swim under Grace and Ben. Grace was very self-conscious when Luana told her to spread her legs wide so that she, Kaleo and Ben could take turns swimming between her legs. She almost yelled when Kaleo turned and faced up and cupped her pussy to pull himself through her legs.

Leloni swam over to Dan and Emma who were watching the children play.

"This is a love beach. It has the power to magnify love. Kimo and I can watch the children if you want to test it. The children should participate to get the maximum effect but I understand if you are not ready for that yet."

"Thank you Leloni. I don't think we are ready for your children to be part of that yet. Maybe someday."

"I understand." She said as she swam over to Kimo.

"Did she just tell us to make love right here?" Dan asked

"I think she did. Sounds like a good idea to me."

The waves made a constant up and down motion as Emma wrapped her legs around Dan and positioned his dick at her entrance. Dan slid into her with little effort and soon developed a rhythm in tune with the waves.

When the wave lifted Emma up he would slide almost completely out of her, feeling the cool water on his dick. In the trough of the wave he would push fully into her until his dick was supporting most of her weight.

They both looked over at the children jumping in the waves and showing beautiful little bodies with each jump. Each wave brought them higher until they were both trembling with excitement.

"I'm so excited I'm shaking." Dan said between kisses. "Can you feel the difference?"

Emma ground her clit into Dan every time he sank into her but she couldn't push herself over the edge.

"Oh god yes. We should have cum by now but I keep getting higher."

It was true. Dan was way past the point where he should have cum but he kept sliding in and out of Emma's pussy and going even higher. He wasn't sure how long his legs could keep supporting Emma in the surf and his brain was screaming at him to cum.

"Dan, I know what's missing."

"I do too. Ben, Grace come over here please, hurry."

Kimo had already explained to Ben and Grace that their parents would need their help to release their love energy. He didn't go into details about how it was a child love beach and a child was needed to complete the love. He figured it was better for the Martin family to figure that out on their own.

Grace saw her mother moving up and down in front of Dan the same way she had in the pool. She figured her father's dick was sliding inside her mother but she couldn't understand how they had been doing it so long.

When she reached her parents Dan took one hand to pull her into a kiss.

Emma did the same for Ben and they all saw stars and flashing lights as Dan and Emma finally reached their peaks and brought their children along for the roller coaster ride. During Dan's first shot of cum he reached under Grace and slipped a finger inside her vagina. Emma found Ben's bum hole and did the same. The effect was like plugging a power source into four interconnected lamps. When Dan shot his cum into Emma, Grace and Ben felt a surge of pleasure. When Emma felt a surge of emotion from her orgasm Ben and Grace twitched and felt it too.

During Dan's third spurt of cum Grace reached out to hold Ben's dick and he started adding some boy cum to the ocean.

Several yards away Kimo and his family watched and waited. He had experienced the same thing with his family and knew how exhausting it was.

"We better get over there before they drown." Leloni said.

"Give them another minute. Get ready kids. Kaleo, you catch Grace. Keep her head above water. Luana and Cindy, you take Ben. Get him to shore as quick as possible. We'll take care of the parents. Let's go now."

Dan was on cum shot number six when he felt light headed. His eyes had shut closed with the first blast and he couldn't force them open until the fourth squirt of cum was deposited in his wife's vagina. He saw the flashing lights and rainbows even after he opened his eyes and was struggling to hold Emma with one arm and Grace with the other. He slipped out of Emma when a wave hit them and he felt the world spinning as he moved backwards. Kimo's strong arms kept him from going under and led him to shore where he collapsed on the sand.

Kimo's family knew exactly what to do, having been through it themselves. Leloni caught Emma as she slipped out of Dan's grip and led her to where Dan was laying. Kaleo caught Grace under her arms, spun her around and lifted her up like a groom carrying his bride. She had almost passed out from the surge of love energy transmitted through her father's finger inside her. Cindy and Luana put Ben's arms around their necks and half dragged him to shore where he dropped down next to his parents. Finally Kaleo carried Grace to shore, stole a quick kiss and placed her next to Dan. All four of the Martins lay on the sand with huge smiles on their faces. Kimo and his family returned to the water for some more play time.

When Ben and Grace came to their senses and sat up Kaleo and Luana called them to come join them in the water. Grace and Ben were so comfortable with nude swimming that they didn't give it a thought when they joined Kimo's family for more fun in the waves.

"You kissed me." Grace said to Kaleo when she approached him.

"Yeah, hope that was okay. You looked so beautiful I couldn't help it."

"I liked it. Would you do it again?"

Kaleo held both her hands out to the side then stepped forward to touch his belly to Grace's. He pulled her hands around to his back and let go so that he could wrap his arms around her. When they kissed Grace felt a warm surge feeling of happiness flow out of the water and into her body. Her lips softened like warm chocolate and she dug her fingers into his hair and let her whole body feel his against her. A force from the water seemed to take control and move her hand down toward the hard shaft pressing against her abdomen. The spell was broken by Kimo's voice.

"Kaleo! Not yet. She hasn't been prepared yet. You need to be patient."

"Okay dad. Sorry."

"What do you mean, prepared?" Grace asked.

"It's part of the journey your family is on. Your parents will explain when the time is right."

Kimo then went to Ben who was sandwiched between Cindy and Luana and said the same. Cindy looked disappointed.

"But Daddy! I need it."

"I know sweetie. Try to wait until we get home."

Dan and Emma recovered enough to wade out to Kimo.

"Hey brother. What do you think of our little beach now?" Kimo asked.

"That was a religious experience. I wouldn't even try to explain what happened but it was beautiful. So what's the next step?"

"We can talk about your next assignment Monday but Cindy might need your help on the ride home today. Are you ready to leave?"

"I could stay here forever but the kids are starting to look like prunes so maybe we should head back."

Kimo insisted that everyone put clothes on for the ride to his house and everyone took their places in the car. This time there were no wet swimsuits to deal with so they just dried off and dressed in the clothes they came with. Kimo continued on the dirt road around the volcano and everyone cheered when they hit smooth pavement again.

Chapter 8 - Cindy shows the way

Cindy had started squirming as soon as they got in the car. By the time they reached the paved road she was twitching and rubbing her pussy constantly.

"Mommy! I need to release." She cried.

"I know honey. I thought we could make it home. Dan, she needs your and Emma's help."

"Sure." Replied Emma. "What should we do?"

"Just follow Cindy's lead" | ..And tighten your seat belts. You kids in back too. Buckle up."

Kaleo and Grace were sharing a seatbelt and he already had his arm around her.

"What's happening?" Grace asked.

"Something really good. Just wait for it." Kaleo said as he turned and kissed her.

Ben thought the shared seatbelt was a great idea and joined Luana in hers. He followed Kaleo's lead and cuddled close to Luana. She was the one who initiated the kiss but Ben was very willing to participate. Until they moved to Hawaii, he was much more interested in baseball than in girls. Now all he thought about day and night was kissing and touching warm, soft females.

Cindy was sitting between Dan and Emma and took Dan's hand and pushed it under the waistband of her thin shorts. There were no panties under the shorts and he found his fingers cupping a small hairless vulva. Cindy sighed and closed her eyes but opened them almost immediately.

"You have to rub me Mr. Martin." she said in a frustrated tone like he should have known that.

"Oh, sorry sweetie. I'm new at this."

Dan started caressing the seven-year-old's pussy and dipping his finger in to find moisture. He had no trouble getting his middle finger deep into Cindy's vagina. Cindy scrunched up her eyes like she was concentrating then opened them and looked over at Emma. She unsnapped Emma's shorts and pushed her little hand under Emma's panties and search for her clit. When her hand was as deep into Emma's pants as she could reach she closed her eyes again and let out a big sigh. Emma looked at Dan and just shrugged. She couldn't think of a stranger sight than Cindy sitting between them with Dan's hand in her pants and Cindy's hand in Emma's.

Dan was trying to ignore the fact that Cindy's parents were in the front seat while he molested their daughter behind them. He had found lots of moisture and was alternating between dipping in her hole and playing with her clit. He was surprised at the amount of heat her pussy generated. She could keep a person warm on a cold winter night just from her pussy heat. He looked left and saw Emma had Leaned back and closed her eyes as Cindy worked her clit. Dan paused for a minute when Leloni turned to talk to them.

"Dan, she needs at least two fingers in her and get ready because it looks like Cindy is about to release. Kimo, she's close."

Dan saw Kimo nod and put both hands on the steering wheel. He continued to work Cindy's pussy and slipped a second finger in her like Leloni suggested. He turned in Cindy's direction and started rubbing her flat chest with his other hand. Cindy started moaning and talking in a language he had never heard before then pulled Dan in for a tongue filled kiss.

Only Kimo and Leloni completely understand what happened next. Cindy climaxed on the kiss and Dan and Emma felt a wave of intense heat flow through their bodies followed by a blinding rainbow of colors. Dan immediately ejaculated without touching his dick and Emma was thrown into an orgasm as she humped against Cindy's hand. In the back seat all four children felt the heat and a wave of energy flow through their bodies.

Grace wrapped her arms around Kaleo and kissed him like they were about to die. Ben did the same to Luana who grabbed his dick and squeezed it as they kissed. Up front Kimo had slowed the car down to leave room in front of them and fought to see the road through the flashes of light. Leloni anticipated the release and had three fingers inside her pussy when Cindy's love release flowed through her.

It was all over in a few seconds but the Martin family would never forget their first love release. When he could talk Dan spoke first.

"Kimo, what was she saying as she started the love release?"

"The best we can figure is it was ancient Hawaiian. We think our ancestors channel through the children. What do you think of our Kapulehie now brother."

"Well, I sure wouldn't want to try to explain it to anyone else but I'm a believer now. That was a life changing experience. Are you okay Cindy?"

"Oh she will sleep for a while. It's a pretty draining experience but completely safe."

Dan shook his head in astonishment and looked at Emma who was smiling broadly. She had experienced one of the best orgasms of her life just from Cindy's touch. One thing that surprised Dan was the way Kimo and his family went back to normal activities after experiencing Cindy's love release. Kimo talked about the attractions along the road and some more funny stories about the tourists.

They had supper at Kimo's house and as the Martins were about to leave Dan pulled Kimo aside.

"You have to tell me what's next. I can't wait until Monday."

"Okay Dan but take some time to prepare. You have experienced your children's external beauty and love. Now you are ready to experience their internal beauty. You need to be Grace's first lover and let her give you her virginity. Ben needs to do the same with Emma. Before Grace and Ben can share their love with others they need to learn to share it with you."

"I wondered when this day would come. Are you sure the kids are ready?"

"The sacred waters prepared them. They will be ready if you can give them love and control your lust. Go slow and gentle and include Ben and Emma. Spend the whole week preparing and make Grace a woman on Saturday with Emma doing the same to Ben beside you."

After the kids were in bed Dan filled Emma in on the next step. She knew the day was coming but it was still hard to accept her husband making love to someone else, even if it was her daughter. The experience at the beach and in the car had convinced her that the Kapulehie ways were right and modern society was wrong. Now she needed to prepare Ben and Grace for the most important day of their lives. The day they would join with another person in the most intimate way possible.

The week seemed to drag on. Dan had to work so Emma tried to find new things for her, Ben and Grace to explore. She read about a lava formation called the dragon's teeth and set out with her children to find them. She ended up having to park at a resort and walk down the edge of their property line to a point where a narrow lava flow stuck out far into the ocean. Lining both sides of the narrow walkway were hundreds of large triangular shaped pieces of gray lava rock that looked somewhat like teeth. Emma had read that when the waves hit the hot lava it pushed it up into points that cooled and solidified. To Grace and Ben it was a gigantic playground where they could climb on rocks and pretend to slay the dragon. Emma had to keep them away from the edge that dropped thirty feet to jagged rocks below. She got some beautiful pictures of the blue water and white waves crashing against the black and gray rocks.

Dan wasn't sure how to prepare Grace for her big day. On Monday he told her that Saturday would be a special day when she would experience something usually reserved for grownups. He said it was part of all of their education in Kapulehie. He remembered that it wasn't very long ago he had told Grace that he didn't think sex between fathers and daughters was part of Kapulehie.

On Tuesday and Wednesday he kept Grace with him when they skinny dipped and spent most of the hour caressing her body and gently kissing her as he told her how beautiful she was. Emma did a similar thing with Ben, hugging him and squeezing his bum. On Thursday Dan stroked Grace between her legs as they hugged and he let her jack him off so that she could feel how big he was. Emma brought Ben to a small cum mostly with her hands but she did let him slide his dick between her breasts.

On Friday Dan and Emma decided to bring the action to the bedroom. After a quick swim and shower they all went to Dan and Emma's room to lay on the bed. Dan and Emma coordinated their movements so that each child received the same treatment. They started with kisses and hugs laying on their sides so that Grace and Ben were back-to-back.

Adult hands caressed child bodies, ending up between legs. When Ben and Grace were breathing heavy Dan started kissing down Grace's body and Emma did the same to Ben. There was a double gasp when Dan licked Grace's pussy and Emma licked Ben's dick.

The anatomy was different but the effects were the same. While Emma took Ben's dick completely in her mouth and licked it Dan sucked the top of Grace's vulva into his and licked her clit. Dan's dick was straining as he tasted his daughter and heard her moans of pleasure. He rolled Grace onto her back and moved between her legs. With his mouth on her clit he wet his finger with her juices and gently pressed into her opening. Grace dug her fingers into Dan's hair as he pressed deeper and deeper inside her while licking and sucking her small clit.

Next to Dan, Emma did about the same but pressed her finger into Ben's anus after sneaking a bit of lotion onto it. The room was silent except for the moans and giggles of two children and the licking and sucking noises made by the adults. By the time Dan started finger fucking Grace she was moaning his name and letting a few mild obscenities slip out of her mouth.

"Oh crap Daddy. That's so good. Yes, right there. Crap crap crap. It's happening Daddyyyyyyyyyy."

Dan pressed his face against Grace's pussy and rode her as she bucked and twisted at the beginning of her orgasm. He pumped his finger in her faster and switched to his thumb at the peak of her orgasm. He was surprised at her strength as she lifted her bottom clear off the bed as he held on. Before she finished he removed his finger and replaced it with his tongue to enjoy her flood of little girl sex juice. No cocktail could ever come close to the stimulation produced by a preteen's vaginal liquids when she orgasms.

Emma elicited a similar reaction although Ben was quieter and didn't move as much. She felt him stiffen and press up into her mouth as he pushed down on her head with both hands. Emma smiled with satisfaction when she tasted Ben's salty discharge. He was going to be able to give her some of his cum, even though her birth control would prevent it from doing anything inside her. From everything she had learned from Kimo's family she felt that there would be magic in Ben's semen.

Chapter 9 - Special Saturday

Dan had trouble sleeping Friday night. He was worried that he might lose control and hurt Grace if lust overtook love. He tried to make it a normal Saturday although a father waking up to his naked daughter's bum pressed up to his equally nude body wasn't exactly normal. He breathed in her musky little girl scent and let his fingers explore her curves. When she stirred he leaned over and whispered.

"Good morning. You feel fantastic. Today is a special day. Are you ready?"

"Mm-huh." She replied sleepily.

Dan let himself drift off to sleep with his hand on her pussy and his dick rising between her legs. Emma finally shook them both awake an hour later.

"Wake up you two. You need to shower and shave while I start breakfast."

"I'm too young to shave." Grace giggled and Dan responded by tickling her from under her chin down to between her legs.

"Come on cutie. We can shower together and save time."

"Okay Daddy. Give me a minute to pee first."

"Make it quick. I have to go too."

For a second Dan had the wicked thought of watching Grace pee but he remembered Kimo's warning that the day should be about love and not lust. He headed for the half bath off the kitchen and let loose with a stream just in time. Grace was adjusting the water temperature when he got to the bathroom and when it was right he picked her up and stepped into the shower with her.

"Daddy, put me down. We have to wash before Mom calls us for breakfast."

"I know Grace but you feel so nice against me."

"You do too but mom will be mad. Put me down and wash my back please ."

Dan reluctantly let Grace down and proceeded to soap up his hands and wash every inch of her body. She returned the favor, almost making him cum when she thoroughly washed his dick and balls. They dressed quickly and went to the kitchen where Ben was helping Emma make their new favorite, pancakes with macadamia nuts and pineapple. Since moving to Hawaii they had eaten locally grown pineapple almost every day. It was so much better than what they could get back in New England. Their old home and way of life seemed like a century ago. Everything had changed when Dan met Kimo.

The plan for the day was a visit to a local beach, a light lunch, some shopping then getting dressed up and going to a fancy steak house. Dan and Emma wanted their children to feel like they were being taken on a date. Before getting dressed Grace asked Dan to take another shower with her and wash her hair. It was one of his favorite activities. He was happy that Grace had the kind of straight fine hair that looks good long and Grace's reached almost to her waist. He would start with the shampoo at the top and give her a scalp massage as he worked up a lather. Then he would comb the shampoo down through her hair until he would have to add more shampoo half way down her back. When she was little he would wash her hair with her sitting in the bathtub. Standing behind her in the shower gave him the chance to slide soapy fingers across her chest and all over her cute bottom.

Dinner was fantastic, although insanely expensive. Grace looked beautiful in her frilly red party dress and Ben was beaming with pride as Emma took his arm and let him escort her to the table. Luckily the children's menu wasn't too bad although Dan thought thirty-five dollars for a small amount of Mac and Cheese was pretty steep. He kept thinking about what was coming later and that made it worthwhile. After a satisfying meal they returned home for the main event. Dan and Emma had decided that the best plan was to imagine they were two teenage couples having a make-out session in an empty house. They had two overstuffed chairs on the lanai and they each took one. Dan lifted Grace onto his lap facing Ben and her mother. Emma did the same with Ben and gave him some gentle kisses.

If it wasn't for the size difference you might think it was a teenage make-out session. Dan and Emma started slow and gradually built up the sexual tension over a period of an hour. Gentle kisses became longer and more passionate. Gentle hugs turned into touches then caresses over clothes then hands on bare skin. Dan and Emma kept glancing at each other to keep their actions in sync. Clothing was loosened but not removed at first. Hands disappeared under shirts and down inside pants. Ben watched as Dan lifted Grace's dress and stroked her white panties. Grace watched as Emma opened Ben's pants and stroked his dark blue briefs.

"Daddy is it time yet? I'm so excited I can't stand it." Grace whispered with a shaking voice.

Her father had built up her tension to a hair trigger point. She just needed to feel him touch that special place. Dan looked at Emma and nodded then slowly pulled Grace's panties off as Ben watched.

"Oh Daddy! That's weird." She laughed when Dan brought the panties up to his nose and sniffed.

It was Emma's turn and she slid Ben's pants down and off. Then she pulled his briefs down just enough to give her full access to his dick. Grace watched as her mother played with Ben's stiff dick, stroking and catching it between two fingers.

"I think it's time." Dan said looking at Emma.

"Definitely "she answered back.

Dan carried Grace to the bedroom like a bride and Emma led Ben by the hand. They each let their "date" undress them then finished undressing Grace and Ben. The two females lay side by side on the bed and exchanged smiles and a few kisses.

"Come here handsome lover" Emma said to Ben with outstretched arms.

"You are as beautiful as your mother." Dan said as he moved over Grace and kissed her. "This is a special day. Are you ready?"

"Yes Daddy. I'm ready. What do I do?"

"Just spread your legs wide and let me love you."

Dan guided her legs up and out until her feet were almost at her bum and her knees were almost touching the bed. He supported himself on his left arm and reached down to penetrate Grace with his finger. Her orgasm hit so hard it surprised them all. One touch of Dan's finger on her pussy had sent her flying and she pulled him down on top of her and pressed her tongue deep in his mouth as a tsunami of good feelings washed over her.

Dan wasn't expecting her to cum that fast and he tried to keep plunging his finger in her but his arm was trapped between their bodies. Grace shook so violently Emma and Ben stopped kissing and stared at the nine-year-old caught in the biggest orgasm of her life. Dan covered her with kisses and tried to lift off of her but she held him tight until the trembling slowed and she could breathe normally.

"Wow Daddy."

"I know honey and what's next is even better."

Emma turned Ben's head to face her and said. "Ben, mommy needs you inside her. Slide down and I'll show you where."

She held his hips and guided him into the right position then held his dick with two fingers and aimed it at her opening. Ben was nowhere near as big as Dan but when she felt her son's hard dick penetrate her most private place it set off an instant orgasm. She put both hands on his bum and pulled him in until his abdomen mashed against hers. Instead of pumping, she ground him into her body in a circular motion, feeling every bit of him touching her insides.

"Oh Fuck Ben, stay inside me. God I can feel you in me Ben. Fuck me. Fuck your Mommy Ben!"

Grace giggled at the stream of bad words coming from her mother. Dan reminded her of the string of "Oh Crap" she had said during one of her orgasms.

"It's perfectly natural. The feelings are so intense regular words don't describe them."

They returned to watch as Emma calmed down enough to show Ben how to withdraw and press into her to give her a proper fuck. Ben was a fast learner and was soon humping against his mother and feeling things on his dick that he had never felt before. The heat and the slippery liquids made him feel much better than anything he had felt alone in the bathroom, in the pool, or even inside Emma's mouth. As he felt himself rise he pumped faster and faster until he saw the flashing lights and slammed into his mother and stayed there. Emma felt the first surge and pulled him in by both bum cheeks. She wanted him deep inside for each surge of boy cum. She wanted to feel him twitch as the semen rushed up his tube and into her and Ben willingly gave her five good shots and several dry humps before collapsing on his mother with his dick still inside her.

Grace looked at Dan and said the two words he had been waiting for.

"Our turn."

Dan lifted up and positioned his dick over her vagina. He had no idea if he would even fit so he took his time wiping precum on her opening and testing the fit. She was definitely tight, painfully tight for him but not for her. She wanted what Ben had just gotten, to be joined to her parent in a love release like she was pretty sure Kimo's family did. She grabbed Dan's hips and tried to coax him down.

"Take it slow Grace. I don't want to hurt you."

"You won't Daddy. Just do it. Put it inside me and release my love energy."

"Okay Grace. Tell me if it's too fast."

Dan let more and more weight press his dick against Grace. There was no worry about his dick bending. He had never felt it this hard before. He pressed and she resisted. He pressed again and she yielded some. He leaned down and kissed her and while she was thinking about the kiss he slipped his crown through her ring and inside his daughter. It was only her tight grip of his shaft that kept him from cuming right then.

"You're in me Daddy! You're really inside me."

"Not all the way yet. Can you see it?"

Grace lifted her head and saw where the top of Dan's dick had disappeared inside her. She watched as he pressed forward and another inch disappeared. When he pulled back and pressed two inches in her the flood of pleasure made her lay her head back on the pillow and look up at her father towering over her. He was doing it. Part of his body was inside hers and she was overwhelmed with love as he sank deeper and deeper until their abdomens touched.

"I love you Daddy. You make me feel so good inside. Will you squirt your stuff in me now?"

"Very soon Grace, very soon. I just want to show you one more thing."

As he said it Dan pulled back until his crown caught on Grace's opening. He then reversed direction and plunged into her.

"Oh wow! That felt so good." She gasped as he reversed direction and pulled back.

Dan knew he wouldn't last long so he gave her as many deep strong thrusts as he could before she ignited the volcano in his balls and he slammed into her and stayed there. The suddenness of his action set off another orgasm for Grace and she flew through the stars as he filled her vagina with the first blast of cum. Grace felt like she was riding a shooting star as flashing lights and rainbows filled her vision. She heard voices speaking a strange language and somehow she could understand what they were saying.

"Release your love little one. Send it out to the world and it will multiply."

She felt the pressure of Dan's body and the warmth of his cum flowing inside her. The warmth seemed to grow in her vagina until it filled her body and burst out into the room. Grace's naked body seemed to glow with an all over blush and Dan felt the surge of love first. Emma's jaw dropped when she felt a definite wave of heat flow out from Grace's body. It was much less powerful but similar to what she felt in the car with Cindy.

"Mommy! What's happening?" Ben said as he felt his dick grow and spurt more boy cum into his mother.

"I don't know honey. I think Grace just did a love release like Cindy did in the car."

"Can only girls do love releases?" He asked.

"We'll have to ask Kimo that. I really don't know. Grace are you okay?"

Grace couldn't answer yet so she just nodded her head yes. Her orgasm had started when she felt her father's cum squirt inside her. It wasn't like the other ones. This time she felt and then saw a glow start inside her vagina and spread outward in all directions. She could see it flow out of her body and wash over Emma and Ben even though her eyes were shut tight. The feeling was like the fastest roller coaster she had ever been on multiplied by a thousand. Everything moved very fast and the happiness that poured out of her insides made her break out in the biggest smile her mouth could form.

Somewhere in the distance her mother was asking her if she was okay. It seemed like a silly question. She was in Heaven. The whole universe was filled with love and peace. How could she not be okay? She tried to talk but she was still flying close to the speed of light and words wouldn't come out so she just nodded yes.

Above Grace, Dan felt like he had pushed his dick into a fifty-thousand-volt transformer. A good percentage of what Grace was feeling was being sent to him through his physical connection to her. He thought he had finished cuming when he felt the glow and his dick thickened until he sealed himself in Graces's vagina, filling every bit of space. He felt the surge of emotion flow from Grace, up his dick and throughout his body as her love release started. Sliding his hands under her shoulder blades he pressed his cheek to her silky hair and held on as she took him with her to orgasm nirvana.

"Oh Fuck Grace, yes. I'm cuming again. Take it all baby, take it all inside you."

Dan didn't know how but he felt two more large amounts of cum burn up his shaft and into Grace. Nothing leaked out because of the way his dick had thickened and Grace put both heels on his bum to keep him right where he was. The love release went on for several minutes. Emma coxed Ben into fucking her harder with his revitalized dick and Dan and Grace held each other through wave after wave of tremors and aftershocks. When Dan's muscle control returned he rolled onto his back taking Grace with him and lay next to Emma panting. All four participants were soaked with sweat and exhausted. Dan reached out and squeezed Emma's hand. If she had any lingering doubts about Kapulehie they were washed away by Grace's love release and she nodded yes to Dan. They fell asleep like that with Dan inside Grace and Ben inside Emma.

Chapter 10 - Drum beat

Dan couldn't wait to tell Kimo the progress they had made Saturday night. He invited Kimo and his family to a cookout and Kimo accepted on the condition that it was for lunch. When they arrived at Dan's house Kimo took Dan and Emma aside and explained that Sundays were when the drum circles met. The drum circle tradition went back decades to the hippie movement. For years it was held at the unofficial nude beach of Maui, Little Beach. Like most of the rest of the country a tiny minority of ultra conservatives decided that nudity was evil and had recently worked to shut down Little Beach. Instead of stopping the practice they just moved it a mile away to another secluded beach. Kimo and his family went as often as they could.

The drum circle consisted of people of all ages, dressed, topless and nude, children and adults who gathered at sunset to celebrate life. Those that could brought drums and created the beat that everyone danced to and enjoyed. If the crowd wasn't too big and was mostly locals Kimo would let his children dance nude along with him and Leloni. They stayed on the edge and tried to not draw attention to the fact that there were nude children in the crowd. No one objected to a two or three year old nudist but some people were uncomfortable at seeing nine or ten year old nude children. More than likely it was because deep down inside they wanted to enjoy their young bodies in ways that society said was inappropriate.

"Kimo, that's asking a lot. Dan said and Emma agreed. "What if someone reports us to the police. Isn't it dangerous letting the children be naked in public?"

Kimo understood the concern. His religion might say it was natural but the State of Hawaii made the rules and it wouldn't agree.

"Dan, we have to live by the rules the state forces on us but sometimes we can bend the rules a little. Just take our lead. If my children undress you can let your's follow. Either way you and Emma should enjoy it. Sharing your body's beauty and your children's beauty is a big part of Kapulehie. If you want to continue your journey this is the next step."

Dan and Emma agreed and Kimo said he would drive everyone because parking was very limited at the beach. They enjoyed a nice lunch and the children all stripped naked and headed for the pool. The adults sat and enjoyed their wine and beer while the kids splashed and wrestled in the small pool. When Cindy asked her dad to join them Kimo stood up, stripped off his clothes, and joined the children. He soon had five naked kids climbing on him and trying to pull him under. When he let himself be pulled down he made sure to touch as many little pussies as possible before bursting up holding Cindy high above his head. Dan quickly glanced at his fence and hoped Kimo didn't lift her too high.

They arrived at the beach around four and Kimo staked out a spot under some trees and away from the area where the fire would be built. There were already a few people enjoying the late afternoon sun. Dan and Emma had never thought about going to a nude beach so they didn't know what to expect. The first surprise was the mix of ages. Several of the nude couples looked like they were in their seventies. There were a few single men who Kimo said were the "gay guys" looking for a hookup, although any kind of sex on the beach was strongly discouraged. People wanted to enjoy the nudist lifestyle and anything sexual brought an extreme response from law enforcement.

"These look like the regulars Dan. Let's grab a quick swim before the crowd comes. Kaleo, Luana, it's okay right now. You might have to get dressed later when more people come."

Dan watched for a reaction as Kaleo, Luana and Cindy dropped their clothes on the blanket and ran to the water with Kimo. There were a few smiles from the older couples and a couple of greetings from people who knew Kimo. None of the reactions were negative so he turned to Emma and said.

" Let's do this"

"Okay kids. Let's go before more people come. It's just like at the beach with Kimo but no kissing and no touching. Touching and kissing are private."

Grace wasn't sure about letting strangers see her naked but she wanted to join Kaleo and Luana in the water and Ben and her parents were already dropping clothes on the blanket. She took a breath and pulled her bikini top over her head and pushed the bottoms down and off. It gave her a tingling feeling in her pussy to know strangers were looking at her as she walked down the beach and into the waves. She and Ben enjoyed jumping up as each wave crested and the people on the beach enjoyed the view as the wave passed by and little genitals were exposed. She moved over to Kimo.

"Kimo, people are looking at us."

That's right Grace. They are looking at your beauty and your love. You bring them joy just by being here."

Grace didn't understand everything but she loved playing in the surf without a bathing suit tugging at her and getting filled with sand. Two other younger children joined them with their parents and everyone had a good time playing in the mild surf. After about twenty minutes Kimo saw a group he didn't recognize heading to the beach.

"Dan, time's up. The tourists are coming and the entertainment will be starting soon. You all did good brother."

They all headed to Kimo's beach blanket where they all put on bathing suits. Leloni stayed topless and encouraged Emma to do the same. A few people brought firewood and lit a fire in a well-used spot. As sunset approached about twenty people with drums made a circle around the fire and started to play. Dan and Emma were impressed at how the musicians quickly established a beat and built the excitement to a fever pitch. They noticed that the few nude adults kept to the edges but about half the women were topless.

Leloni took Emma's hand and pulled her into the group to dance. Dan stayed with Grace and Ben laughing and dancing along to the beat. When the crowd got bigger and Kimo saw people bringing coolers of beer he told Dan it was time to leave. Back in the car he explained.

"For years the drum circle was mostly locals and there was no alcohol. There were a few hippies who would go into the trees to smoke some pot but that's all. When the tourists started reading about the drum circles online they started showing up with beer and liquor. That led to drunken fights, trash left everywhere and people pissing on lawns on the way back to their cars. They spoiled a good thing and that's why Little Beach was closed. Sorry Dan but most mainlanders spoil everything they touch."

"I know Kimo. That's why I want you to teach us a better way."

"You all did good there. I could feel the love coming from Ben and Grace."

"So what's next Kimo?" Emma asked.

"You have all come a long way. What you said about Grace's love release was encouraging. We don't know why but it takes longer for boys to learn how to release their love."

"That's because girls are smarter." Cindy said from the middle.

Cindy's comment started a minor war of the sexes as the five children argued about who was smarter.

"Okay, okay everyone. What I was going to say was for you all to continue to make progress Grace needs to join with her brother like she did with her father. Her parents should be on either side of her and in physical contact with her and Ben when she joins with him. Don't rush into it. Take a few days to prepare. The next step is bigger and you are all going very fast.

"Wow" Dan finally said. "I guess that's a natural progression. Ben, you're a lucky boy."

"You mean Grace is a lucky girl." Ben said from the back row which set off another good-natured shouting match.

"Time to settle down." Emma said. "Poor Kimo can't concentrate on the road with you all shouting. Find something quiet to do back there."

The four children stopped, smiled at each other and were immediately silent. Ben turned to Luana, gave her a tongue filled kiss, and sank his hand between her legs. Grace turned to Kaleo, slipped her hand inside his swimsuit, and stroked him as they kissed. Emma and Dan didn't try to find out why things were so quiet. Dan was too busy enjoying Cindy's little fingers wrapped around his dick and Emma was too busy exploring the hairless pussy inside Cindy's bikini bottoms.

Chapter 11 - Child to Child

On Monday Dan tried to get Kimo to tell him what the next step was after Grace and Ben had sex but Kimo only would say that it would show them the path to the end where they would become full members of Kapulehie.

At least Dan had his work to distract him. The new job was demanding but not above his ability and he worked well with Kimo to keep the goods flowing through the warehouse and out to their final destinations. Kimo would occasionally grumble when a big order came through headed for one of the new big box stores on the island. He felt that those companies cut their prices until they had driven all the small local stores out of business then used their monopoly to raise prices sky high. Dan would stay quiet because he liked seeing his favorite stores from the mainland showing up on Maui.

Emma, on the other hand, was home with the kids all summer. She hoped to get a job with mother's hours in the fall but wanted to spend the summer with Grace and Ben to help them adjust to Hawaiian life. She had no idea when they moved to Hawaii that Hawaiian life would include skinny dipping every afternoon and occasionally sex with Grace and Ben.

She did try to take them to some of the beautiful local and state parks and saved the big tourist attractions like the Io Needle for when Dan could join them. When she checked the Genealogy site her's and Dan's results were in. She was so excited she decided to call him at work.

"Dan, are you busy? Our DNA results are in."

"Oh good. When I saw it was you calling I thought someone might be hurt. So, what's it say? Probably all English and Irish on my side. My ancestors came over a few years after the Mayflower."

"Well one of them must have come to Hawaii. You are twenty two percent Hawaiian. It looks like your great great grandfather was a whaling ship captain."

"Wow! Wait till I tell Kimo! Gotta go. See you tonight."

"Hurry home. Grace is getting impatient. It's a big night tonight."

Emma returned to the couch where Ben was eager to put his dick back in her warm wet vagina. Grace came in from the yard and approached them.

"When will it be my turn mom? I'm tired of waiting until Daddy gets home."

"I'm sorry honey. I guess we shouldn't do it in front of you. How about if you and Ben practice getting ready some more?"

"Getting ready" was Emma's code for foreplay. She put Grace on the inside of the couch with Ben facing her and squeezed in behind Ben. They should move to the bedroom but it was more exciting to play in the living room.

"Okay Ben. Start with some nice kisses. Show Grace how much you love her."

"We know this part Mom." Ben said slightly exasperated.

"It doesn't hurt to practice. Now gently cup her breast and rub your thumb over the nipple."

"She doesn't have breasts yet." He teased.

"Shut up and get to the good parts. I'm all itchy inside." Grace practically cried.

"Right. Ben you know what to do. Slide your finger down her valley and into her tunnel. Not too hard, just slide it in."

"Ah finally! Go deeper Ben. Oh yeah, that's better."

Emma stopped coaching and pressed her pussy against Ben's butt as he worked Grace into a frenzy. She really wanted to get her hand in the action but Ben needed to learn to release Grace's love energy on his own. She wondered how they were ever going to adjust to a school day when they couldn't do anything sexual. Home schooling might be in their future.

Emma's thoughts were interrupted by Grace's moans. She looked over Ben's shoulder and saw that he was giving Grace deep tongue kisses and sucking on her lip in the way she loved when Dan did it to her. Grace had grabbed on to Ben's dick and was stroking him in time with his finger fucking her. Emma wet her finger and inserted it in Ben's bottom just as Grace stiffened and started to wail. Ben jerked forward at the intrusion, pressing his body into Grace's and feeling the cum rise in his shaft.

"Oh Fuck! Ben, yes, yes. Oh God that feels good. Hold me, I'm cuming!"

Grace was beginning to learn the signs of a love release. Ben's finger brought her close but unlike Cindy, she needed more to build up enough love to create a release. What Ben was doing still felt fantastic and she let him know with her voice and by continuing to stroke him as he coated her hand and belly with boy cum. Emma reached over Ben and pulled Grace towards him. He was pressed between his sister in front and his mother in back and felt every inch of the bare skin touching his body. He didn't know if he would ever have one of those "love releases" but his life sure had improved since his parents had learned about Kapulehie. Back on the mainland he had never even kissed a girl and now he was days, maybe even hours away from fucking his sister after being taught how to by his mother.

The three lovers dozed on the couch then took a cooling dip before supper. Emma sent Ben and Grace to shower together while she headed to the kitchen. She had decided that tonight would be the night for Ben to penetrate Grace. She couldn't keep them apart another day. When Dan came home she filled him in on the day's activities and he agreed there was no need to wait any longer. His only concern was that Ben was feeling lust instead of love and that it would prevent his chances of having a love release. He felt a little better when Ben and Grace walked into the kitchen holding hands. They were both shirtless but Emma had insisted everyone had to wear some kind of shorts or swimsuit bottoms at the table.

Supper was a lemon chicken dish with roasted potatoes and lemon pie for dessert. Emma didn't want anyone having garlic breath that night. Ben and Grace were quiet but Dan noticed Grace kept smiling at Ben and it almost looked like she was acting shy in front of the boy who had his fingers inside her a few hours earlier.

"That was a delicious meal Emma. Who's up for a swim?" Dan asked with a straight face. He knew what the reaction would be.

"Daddy no! I can't wait any longer. I need to feel Ben inside me now!"

"Yeah dad. You can swim later. Me and Grace have done enough practicing."

"Okay, okay. I was just joking. Let's go to our bedroom and generate some love. You two go put shirts on and wait for us."

Ben and Grace did as they were told although they didn't understand why they were putting clothes on instead of taking them off. Dan and Emma joined them and Dan appointed himself guide.

"Ben. Stand in front of Grace and show her some love. When you feel her return the love pull her shirt up and over her head and give her body some love."

Ben gently held Grace by the shoulders and gave her a kiss. In spite of everything they had done it still felt a little embarrassing to make out with her in front of their parents. He moved closer and slid his arms around her until he had one hand on her back and the other on her bum. She did the same and was the first to add tongues to the kisses. When Ben felt her lips soften he took hold of her shirt and pulled it up and off. He immediately kissed her neck and down passed her collarbone. The solemn way he kissed her increased the excitement and she gasped when she felt his lips cover her breast and his tongue play with her nipple.

"Finish with her belly button then stand up." Dan instructed quietly.

Ben licked and sucked Grace's other nipple then knelt down to kiss her belly and squeeze her bum. He did as instructed and stood up.

"Okay Grace. Take his shirt off and show him a little love as you work your way down in front of him."

Grace kissed her brother and pulled his shirt up and off. She licked his neck, which caused him to giggle and move away then licked each of his tiny nipples. She resisted the urge to gently bite them. She would save that for another day. When she knelt down and kissed his belly she stopped to look at her father.

"Now his shorts and make sure he is as hard as he can get but don't make him cum."

Grace slowly pulled Ben's knit shorts down one side then the other until they caught on his very stiff dick. She pulled the front out and down then slid the shorts down to his feet where he stepped out of them. When she lifted her head up his dick was standing at attention right in front of her. She took him fully into her mouth and licked one circle around his pole before declaring him fully hard.

"Okay, stand up and let Ben do the same to you. Ben, you don't have to hurry. Grace can cum lots of times and it can make things nice and slippery down there."

Ben knelt in front of his sister and slowly pulled her shorts down and off. She opened her legs and put her hands on his head as he bent his head back and covered her pussy with his mouth. He was rewarded with some of the sweet salty nectar as he pressed his tongue into her opening and tried to stretch it wider. He was nowhere near as thick as his father so there was no question that he would fit.

When Dan saw Grace's legs trembling he said it was time to move to the bed. Dan and Emma undressed and took their places on either side of Grace who was laying on her back in the middle of the bed. She opened her arms and smiled at her brother as he crawled up between her legs and kissed her.

"You're the prettiest sister a guy could have. I love you Gracie."

"Aw Benny, thank you. I love you too."

Dan smiled at Emma. Their children hardly ever called each other Gracie and Benny. It was a sign that their love energy was building.

"Okay Ben. Enjoy each other's bodies and when you feel it's time enter into her and let your love for each other flow between you."

Dan and Emma moved closer until their bodies were touching Grace's and they could rest their arms on Ben's back. Ben put his weight on his left arm and caressed Grace's young body from her silky hair to her soft inner thighs. His touch was so light it sent sparks throughout her body. When she touched the back of his neck he leaned down to kiss her and lowered his abdomen enough to make contact. As he straightened his body over her she reached down and put the tip of his dick at her opening. She closed her eyes and sighed as he let his weight press his dick into her vagina until their abdomens touched.

"You did it Ben." Emma said quietly then kissed his cheek.

Ben was all smiles as he stayed with his dick fully inside Grace. He had some idea how good it felt inside a vagina but his mother's was so much bigger than Grace's that Grace gave him much more stimulation. Her vagina was hot and tight and incredibly silky inside.

"Now for the best part." Dan whispered to Ben. It felt like a religious experience and it seemed inappropriate to talk loud.

"Pull back almost all the way then push back in. Start slow then build up speed."

Ben didn't want to leave the warm tunnel but he did as he was told and pulled back, feeling the cool air on his wet dick. He received a little thrill as he moved back but it was when he pressed back into Grace that he suddenly knew why fucking was so popular.

"Oh shit! That felt good. Gracie, did you feel it? Holy shit!"

Everyone laughed at Ben's outburst then Grace answered him.

"Yes I felt it. Now do it again and don't stop until you put your stuff in me big brother."

"Oh"!right"!ha-ha"!whooh that's good"

Ben started slow, taking several seconds in each direction. As his internal feelings grew he moved faster and faster. He also concentrated on Grace more. He stared into her eyes and kissed her every few pumps.

"I love you sis. We're connected. Can you believe it? I'm inside you. I'm actually inside you."

"I love you too Ben. Push it in deeper. Give me your love energy."

Dan and Emma watched mesmerized as their son shoved his dick into their daughter faster and faster. Ben and Grace were locked in a staring contest with their intensity building with every stroke of Ben's dick.

Emma saw the full body flush starting on Grace but then saw Ben's middle start to turn pink. She reached over to Dan and put his hand flat on Ben's bum cheek. She did the same and they let their hands rise and fall with Ben's body. Emma wanted full contact with Ben if he released any love.

Grace started panting and pressing her body up with each of Ben's thrusts into her.

"Keep going". Benny ".I'm getting"..Oh crap, I'm getting close."

"Me too". Gracie ".me"too"

Dan and Emma had never been near an actual volcano eruption but what they witnessed in that bed was probably just as exciting. Grace erupted first. She lifted her bum six inches off the bed while emitting a primal scream followed by a string of what sounded like Hawaiian words but not ones in any Hawaiian dictionary.

"Ka'ana'ana,. Macca Uei Namma Namma Ka'ana'ana".

In her mind she could hear herself say. "Magic one. Release my love energy for the ancients to receive"

Grace flopped down on the bed and pulled Ben tight to her body as she felt his dick thicken and his first blast of cum touch her vaginal walls. It was probably when the first drop of her brother's cum touched her insides that it happened. Later Dan would describe it as a blinding light and a wave of intense heat. Emma thought it was like a whole-body orgasm passing through her body. Ben and Grace felt the surge of love energy pass back and forth between them and then burst out into the universe like an atomic bomb blast. He continued to pump his seed into her and she continued to tremble from the waves of pleasure flowing out of her pussy but it was like all that was happening while they were inside a tornado that was raging around them.

When Ben collapsed on Grace, Dan and Emma wrapped their bodies against their two children and absorbed some of the love energy flowing out of them. Dan was already hard and squirted his cum over Ben's bum and onto Emma. She trembled with multiple orgasms as she pressed her vagina against Grace's and Ben's hips. They all shuddered through aftershocks until eventually Emma pulled Ben off of Grace and spooned up behind him. Dan cuddled up to Grace who hugged Ben close to her body and they all drifted off to sleep in an afterglow like none they had ever experienced.

Chapter 12 - The sleepover

Dan couldn't wait to talk to Kimo at lunch.

"It was amazing Kimo. I think they both released at the same time. Are we full members now? There can't be much more for us to do. When do we get to go to a meeting?"

"Dan, Dan. Slow down. You're making great progress, much more than any haloe I've ever heard of, but you still have a ways to go. Cindy felt the release and told us about it. Grace and Cindy seem to have a connection of some kind. So far you have kept your child love locked up in your family. To understand the depth of Kapulehie you need to release their love energy to the world. Why don't I ask Kaleo and Luana to sleep over at your house Friday night. They can teach Ben and Grace overnight and you and Emma during the day Saturday. Just do what they say. They are both familiar enough with Kapulehie to help you along your path."

"What about Cindy?" Dan asked. He was thinking of the incident in the car and what Kimo had just said about Cindy feeling Grace's release.

"Cindy overnight with your family? Ha, ha, that's rich. All we would find is four piles of ashes when we picked her up. You are not ready for Cindy's power level yet.

Dan figured he was exaggerating but it gave him a chill when he thought about all the sci-fi movies he had watched where a little girl had super powers. They were often evil powers.

Dan and Emma made the best of the rest of the week. Emma was feeling better because now Grace could help satisfy Ben's increasing appetite for sex. She even got to have some mind-blowing sex with Dan as Ben and Grace fucked like rabbits beside them. She noticed that Grace didn't always produce a big love release but either her or Ben or both would release enough love energy to boost everyone's orgasms.

Dan invited Kimo and his family to a cookout after work on Friday. His little pool was crowded with nine naked people in it but they all enjoyed themselves and the five children received lots of loving touches. Eventually the adults moved to the edges of the circular pool and let the children play in the middle.

"How about some Blind Man's Bluff before we leave." Kimo suggested.

"What's that?" Ben asked.

"Take turns closing your eyes and trying to catch someone. If you catch them they have to kiss you and then it's their turn. Kaleo, why don't you start."

Kaleo looked to see where Grace was and moved to the center of the pool. When he closed his eyes he lunged in Grace's direction but she moved left just in time. She let her hand slide across his abdomen as she moved away and giggled. He would have to earn his kiss from Grace. Kaleo lost track of where he was and ended up grabbing Emma. She gladly sank down in the water and let him find her face and kiss her. The rest of the group had to break them up because he was such a good kisser.

"I thought this game was just for the kids" Emma laughed.

"Guess not "Kimo said. "You're it"

Emma moved to the middle and closed her eyes. As soon as she did Dan moved behind her and spun her around so that she didn't know what direction she was facing."

"Hey, no fair." She said as she swept her arms out in front of her.

Emma felt something graze her leg and reached down quickly. She pulled up an arm and followed it up to a giggling head. When she felt long hair she knew she had one of the girls but didn't know which one. It didn't matter and she sank down in the water to child level and received a soft tongue filled kiss from Luana, possibly a hint of things to come.

The game progressed until all of the children had received at least one kiss then Kimo said they had to leave. He and Leloni kissed Kaleo and Luana goodbye and told them to be good and teach the Martins more about love releases. Emma served up one of their new favorites, ice cream sundaes made with pineapple topping and lots of whipped cream. They ate on the lanai so that they didn't have to get dressed and Dan couldn't help looking at Luana's bronze skin and beautiful long hair. She was shaped a lot like Grace but a little thinner with just a hint of roundness on her chest and no sign of the changes that puberty would bring to her little girl genitals.

"So Kaleo, what do you and Luana have planned for us. Your father said we should let you lead."

"Grace and I should shower together then Ben and Luana then the four of us should go to their bedroom and close the door. Father said that you should not come in. We will come to you in the morning."

"And no one will get hurt or be forced to do anything they don't want to do, right?" Dan asked.

"Father said that you would ask that because you haven't accepted our ways yet. Our ways release love. They could never include deliberately hurting anyone. I'm sure you know there can be a brief sting when parts of your body need to stretch to accept parts of someone else's."

"I'm sorry. It's natural for a father to protect his children. Thank you for coming here and teaching us."

"Daddy, can we go now?" Grace asked. "The chlorine is making me itchy."

"Yes of course. Can I have a goodnight kiss?"

Dan was surprised when Kaleo stepped in front of him and kissed him before Grace could get there. He smiled and kissed Grace goodnight then shrugged his shoulders and watched as Kaleo and Grace kissed Emma goodnight. Luana was next followed by Ben who gave Dan a very quick peck on the lips but gave his mother a proper improper mother-son kiss. As they left Dan was thinking it wasn't the chlorine making Grace itchy to get in the shower with Kaleo.

After they left Dan said. "I don't like having the door being closed. What if it's too much for Grace?"

"I think maybe Grace might be too much for them. They don't know what they're getting into." Emma replied smiling.

"How about if I get into you right now?" Dan said as he stretched out on a lounge chair on the lanai.

Emma straddled him and enjoyed the feeling of her husband's thick member sliding deep inside her, deeper than Ben would be able to go for a few years.

Grace followed Kaleo into the house like a loyal puppy. She had had a crush on him since the first time she saw him without a shirt on. She didn't know what Kaleo was going to do but she hoped it caused another love release. He took her hand and led her to the bathroom. Ben and Luana went to the bedroom for some naked cuddling before their showers. In the bathroom Kaleo pulled Grace into a standing kiss then turned and adjusted the shower temperature. Hawaiian homes didn't have big hot water heaters so he made it a quick shower, soaping his body then pulling Grace in and rubbing his body all over hers. They washed each other's backs and genitals and Grace purred.

"Mmmm, you can wash me like that anytime."

They rinsed off and took their towels to the bedroom to let Ben and Luana have the shower. Luana repeated the process with Ben, almost making him cum before they rinsed off and joined Kaleo and Grace.

"Why does the door have to be closed?" Ben asked as Luana shut it tight.

"We are the source of the love releases. If we are interrupted just before a release it can be a shock to our bodies and would stop the release cold."

"We also might make a lot of noise." Added Grace giggling.

"So what do we do?" Ben asked.

Ben wanted more of what Luana was giving him in the shower.

Kaleo led Grace to the bed and lay beside her. Then he talked to Ben and Grace.

"We start slow and change partners often like stirring the pot of a delicious stew. Some things will be very strange at first but don't say no until you try them. Sometimes we will be couples, sometimes three will please one. We will share love whatever way works best. Ben, I think we should all start with Grace. Luana will show you how we can release even more of her love energy."

"You release much more and it'll blow the house down." He said laughing.

Kaleo moved to Grace's feet and started kissing them and sucking each toe separately. He rubbed the inside of her calf on his cheek and began to kiss up her legs. Luana encouraged Ben to lay next to Grace and suck on her nipples while she gave Grace long sexy kisses. Grace lay back and took in all the wonderful sensations. She could feel Kaleo's kisses getting higher up her leg but then her attention switched to Ben gently nibbling on her nipple but Luana was doing amazing things with her mouth too. Grace was bathing in sensations and enjoying every one. In the back of her mind she still wanted Kaleo inside her and hoped that was where he was heading.

Grace was partly right. He kissed his way passed her knees and up to the hot soft skin of her inner thighs. The heat radiating from her pussy almost burned him as his lips came closer and closer. He had intended to bring her to orgasm with his tongue first but after a couple minutes of tasting her nectar he was driven by a new urge to join with her right away. Kaleo could sense that Grace was different. He had helped some of his cousins learn to release love energy but none of them pulled him in the way Grace did. He kissed up passed her belly button, past Ben licking her breast and up to where Luana had been kissing Grace.

"Give me your love Grace and we will give you ours back." He said as he looked into her eyes.

She was smiling so wide it hurt her mouth and she reached up and pulled him into a kiss as he lowered his abdomen down. Luana guided his dick into Grace's opening and Ben watched as this other boy sank his dick into his sister.

"Oh yes!" Grace whispered as she felt more and more of Kaleo's dick enter her. When his abdomen touched hers he agreed.

"Yes beautiful Grace. Yes."

Kaleo usually had a lot of control. After all, between two sisters and a mother he was depositing cum in one of them two or three times a day. Grace was different somehow. Her vagina milked his dick from the base to the tip. When he pulled back it resisted, trying to keep him inside her special place. When he thrust into her every square millimeter of his dick was stimulated with wet little tongues licking him inside her pussy. He needed to move up his timetable for Grace's love release.

"Luana, it's time for Ben."

"Already?" She asked questioning. Kaleo could usually last half an hour and he had only been inside Grace a couple minutes.

"Oh yeah, now" he answered.

Luana reached in her bag and pulled out a tube of lubricant. Kaleo held Grace tight and rolled onto his back, taking her with him and staying inside her.

"Grace honey." Luana said. "Don't be scared. We're going to help you release more love than you could ever imagine. Just relax and let it out."

Luana put some pillows under Kaleo to raise Grace's bum up. Then she started working the lube into Grace's rosebud and stretching her slightly.

"Luana! What are you doing? Grace asked as she turned and tried to see."

"It's okay Grace. Let it happen." Luana encouraged.

When everything was ready she moved Ben into position straddling Grace's legs and led him by his dick to her anus.

"In there?" he whispered to Luana.

"Yes. She will have both Kaleo and you inside her helping to release her love energy."

Grace wasn't sure about the anal but Kaleo had started moving inside her and the sensations were scrambling her brain. When her sphincter registered the intrusion of Ben's dick it put her senses into overload.

"Oh God! I can feel you Ben. I can feel both of you."

Ben and Kaleo could feel it too. A warmth and a flow of energy was traveling up their dicks and throughout their bodies. It was taking them higher with each stroke.

"Fuck! Luana, plug in now. It's happening almost like with Cindy."

Luana moved into position, took Grace's hand, and pushed two of Grace's fingers up into her pussy. Whatever happened, she would be physically connected to Grace. The emotions were so powerful Grace could only rest her head on Kaleo's shoulder and hold on. She wanted to kiss him but she was being bounced around so much by Kaleo and Ben pounding into her that she couldn't hold her head still enough for a kiss. She fastened her seatbelt and prepared for the ride of her life.

Ben couldn't believe how great it felt to push his dick into such a tight hot canal. He felt himself rising and tried to keep his weight off of Grace's legs while holding on to her hips with both hands. Every once in a while he would coordinate with Kaleo and feel his dick rub against Kaleo's with just a few thin membranes separating them. That contact seemed to elicit a moan from Grace as she felt the two rods inside her.

Ben felt the glow first. Maybe it was because he had seen it before or maybe because he was her brother but he felt the warmth spread across Grace's bum and into his body where he touched her. The feeling made him pump even faster and on the next stroke he pulled himself tight into her body and shot his first load into her rectum. Grace was already flying and at the first drop of her brother's cum in her body she blasted off.

Kaleo felt the surge and he lifted off the bed to push as deep as possible into Grace and sent the first of many doses of his seed into her.

Kaleo sending semen into Grace's vagina was like dropping a torch in a boxcar of dynamite. She sucked in the deepest breath she had ever done, held it as every muscle in her body tensed then let it out with a scream and a shock wave of love that temporarily blinded everyone in the house including Dan and Emma on the lanai. Grace's whole body turned red and pulsed with waves of love energy. Ben wrapped his arms around his sister and held on as he filled her colon with cum. Kaleo felt like she would burn him up as he was trapped under the flaming girl. He also filled her with cum, more than he had ever produced, and held her tight as she shook the whole bed.

Grace screamed

"Ka'ana'ana! maa'kaa ah oueee mai doh. E lawe i koÊ»u honua aloha", as her love energy boiled up from her insides and blasted out into the house and beyond.

The lights blinked and several breakers tripped as her love energy overloaded the circuits. At the first surge Luana had held Grace's hand tightly against her pussy so that it wouldn't pull out of her during the love release. She had multiple orgasms from Grace's energy and collapsed beside her when it gradually subsided. She was pretty sure she had felt her brother's dick and Ben's inside Grace. Ben finally finished pumping every drop of cum he had into his sister and collapsed behind Luana.

Kaleo held Grace on his chest and marveled at her power. Her love release was almost at the level of Cindy's and no one had ever come close to Cindy's.

When they had rested for at least half an hour Grace started to stir and said she needed to pee. She also wanted to clean up after feeling cum dripping out of two of her holes.

"Good idea. We can clean up and take a break before it's Ben's turn."

"Okay but I'm gonna need ice cream to survive anymore love." he laughed and they all agreed.

Emma was happy to see the kids exit the bedroom looking tired but not injured in any way. She and Dan didn't expect to see the kids until morning so it was a surprise when the four naked preteens entered the kitchen looking for ice cream. After they cleaned up, she offered pineapple sundaes for all and sat with them.

"Did Kaleo and Luana teach you anything new?" Emma asked

"They sure did!" Grace practically shouted. "You get your turn tomorrow so we can't say anything yet."

Dan turned to Kaleo. "How did it go? Do you think we will pass Kimo's tests? You know you literally blew fuses in the house. Does that usually happen?"

"We need to talk to our dad but I think it was amazing. Grace has some of Cindy's powers. I don't know what would happen if Grace and Cindy released together. It might flatten the whole island."

"It's getting late. You kids should get to bed. I'll clean up." Emma offered.

After another round of kisses the four children headed to Ben and Emma's bedroom and closed the door.

Chapter 13 - Ben's turn

Kaleo took charge of the arrangements and had Grace lay on her back at the top of the bed. He positioned Luana between Grace's legs with her head over Grace's pussy.

"Ooo, what have you got in mind? Something good I hope."

"Did you notice how good I washed you down here?" Luana replied.

Kaleo positioned Luana on hands and knees with her head between Grace's legs and her bum high in the air. When Ben moved in behind her his dick lined up perfectly with Luana's pussy. He didn't need to be told to move closer and press his erection completely inside the nine-year-old Hawaiian.

"Oh Ben! That feels so good."

"Me too but what's Kaleo going to do?"

Ben got his answer when Kaleo moved behind him and pressed a well lubricated dick between his bum cheeks.

"You going in my bum Kaleo? Will it fit?"

"You fit in Grace. Just relax. You're gonna love it once you get moving."

The positioning was awkward with Ben leaning over Luana's back to open up his bum to Kaleo's probing, but once everything was set he loved the double stimulation. Luana started licking Grace which made her moan with pleasure and hold Luana's head with both hands. Ben found that when he pressed into Luana's hot pussy he pulled off of Kaleo and when he pulled out of Luana he pushed Kaleo's dick into his rectum. Kaleo kept both hands on Ben's hips to keep the rhythm going. He concentrated on the feelings like his father had taught him and could just barely detect the love flow from Grace's vagina into Luana's mouth, through her body to her vagina, from her vagina to Ben's dick and from Ben's body to his dick deep in Ben's bowels. He was fucking Grace through the other two bodies and when he looked at her he could tell that she felt the same.

Grace felt the love energy flowing in and out of her pussy. Her body was making volumes of arousal fluid that Luana was lapping up. Every drop was like a drug sending Luana higher. She knew Kaleo was fucking Grace through her but she didn't mind because it just magnified her pleasure. She realized there was something special about Grace. She had some of Cindy's qualities and was capable of giving Luana immense pleasure just from her nectar and her hands on Luana's cheeks. Ben, of course, was adding a great deal to her pleasure. Once Kaleo established the rhythm, Ben had been driving himself and Luana higher and higher. When he pressed in she would tighten her vaginal muscles and cause flashes of light in front of her eyes. When he pulled back she would press her tongue deeper into Grace and receive another jolt of her love energy.

Ben reached a point where he closed his eyes and kept pressing himself higher and higher. He couldn't feel the bed under his knees. He felt like he was swimming in a river of energy that was carrying him faster and faster. Even Kaleo, with his experience, was swept up in the whirlpool of Grace and Ben's love energy. He looked over Ben's shoulder and made eye contact with Grace. She stared at him with laser eyes and nodded yes with the tiniest of movements. Kaleo watched mesmerized as her whole body flushed pink and seemed to glow. Luana felt sudden heat on her tongue and face. She tried to raise her head to look but Grace held her tight to her pussy. As Grace's love energy flowed through her, Luana felt her orgasm ignite and her whole body stiffened in preparation. Ben felt Luana's sudden rise in temperature and pressed as deep as he could into her as his first shot of cum entered her vagina. Kaleo kept his eyes fixed on Grace as he sent his cum deep into Ben's bowels and through Ben and Luana into Grace. There would be no physical evidence in Grace's body but she would feel every drop of Ben's and Kaleo's cum, as would Luana.

Grace sucked in a huge breath and screamed a high-pitched squeal followed by a jumble of words.

"Hele mai nei kuu aloha!

"She's giving the world our combined love. Hold on everyone!" Kaleo yelled.

The four interconnected children formed a small love energy bomb and when they released it affected more than just them. Dan and Emma had felt the energy increasing for several minutes and when the wave passed through them he already had his dick deep inside her, ready to give her all of his cum as the wave hit. The release was so powerful the lights blinked in a four square block area and people were filled with a sudden unexplained peace. Parents gathered children up to hug them, finding unusual comfort in feeling their bodies next to theirs. They kissed each other then kissed their children, many on the lips for the first time.

Parents who had been scolding their children suddenly stopped and hugged them, overwhelmed with love for the precious gift that a child was.

Ben stopped first, after continuing to dry hump Luana five or six times he had no more cum to give her. Kaleo pulled out of Ben and moved up to lay beside Grace. Ben fell to the other side and pulled Luana on top of himself for more kisses. He could taste his sister on Luana's mouth and it made his dick stiffen slightly but it would be morning before he could fully recover. When everyone's breathing returned to normal they turned out the light and cuddled, Ben with Luana and Grace with Kaleo, and drifted off to sleep. The morning news would include a report of a mysterious power surge that had happened in their neighborhood. Kaleo and Luana would have a lot to tell their parents.

Dan and Emma had fallen asleep soon after he slipped out of her and didn't wake up until he felt a small hand on his dick. Opening his eyes a slit he saw Luana smiling at him as she checked out his cum crusted genitals.

"Good morning Luana. Did you have fun last night?"

"Oh yes. Grace did a love energy release. I thought only natives could do that."

"Well she's a special girl for sure. What's the plan for this morning."

"You and I are to shower first then Kaleo and Emma to prepare you for the next part."

"And what is the next part?"

"You receive some child love energy from someone else's child. Love should not be kept inside just one family."

"So the part after that would be my children giving love to other people?"

"You need to talk to our Daddy about that."

"Right. Let's start with that shower then"

Dan slipped out of bed and took Luana's hand as he headed for the bathroom. Judging by the way his balls stuck to his skin he thought a shower was an excellent idea. Having a cute nine-year-old to join him made it extra appealing. Dan squeezed Emma's foot as he walked by her and passed Kaleo waiting to enter once he and Luana left. He left the bathroom door open as he adjusted the temperature. Everyone in the house was naked so it seemed silly to close the door for a shower.

Luana was an excellent shower-mate. She gently but thoroughly washed him from his neck to his knees, paying special attention to his dick, balls and even his butt crack. Then she stood as he soaped up his hands and caressed every inch of her body, sliding a finger along her crease and over her opening. When she turned around he had great fun playing with her petite bum and giving her bum crack the same treatment he had received. He turned her to face him and kneeling down slid her soapy body against his until he was on the edge of cuming. He wanted to hold that in reserve so he turned on the water and they both rinsed off and stepped out of the shower as Kaleo led Emma in to take their place.

"Morning" Emma said and kissed Dan as he passed her.

"It's sure starting out to be a great one." Dan laughed as he moved into the hallway to dry off.

He and Luana headed to the kitchen where he put the coffee on and fixed her some cereal for her. He was half way through his bagel when Kaleo and Emma joined them.

"Ben and Grace are in the shower." Kaleo announced. "After breakfast can we go back in your room?" He asked Dan.

"Of course. Emma and I are eager to learn whatever you can teach us."

Ben and Grace came running in snapping their towels at each other then said their hello's and dug into their cereal. When everyone was finished they all went to Dan and Emma's room with the king size bed.

"What do we do now?" Emma asked.

"There are only two things to do. Accept our love energy and share it by staying in contact with each other. If Emma, Luana, and Grace can lay next to each other with Luana in the middle we can start. They should hold hands to pass the love across the whole bed. Our father said just be sure you feel love and not lust in your heart."

"I'll try but it will be hard with three beautiful naked women laying there."

"Luana will help you Dan and I will help Emma. Ben, you are with Grace this time."

Emma held her breath as Kaleo moved up between her legs and kissed his way up to her breasts. She let it out with a sigh when he covered a nipple with his mouth and played with it with his tongue. Luana held out her hands inviting Dan to do the same. He kissed up her inner thighs, over her smooth pussy, passed her belly button and stopped at her almost flat nipples. A few licks got them to pop out enough to squeeze between his lips and she ran her heel across the back of his legs in appreciation.

Luana was in the middle and holding Emma's and Grace's hands so she didn't have a free hand to run through Dan's hair.

"Kaleo, can't we just keep our bodies in contact and not have to hold hands?"

"Maybe at first but once you start jumping around you need to hold on."

Dan came up for air and noticed Kaleo kissing Emma a foot away from him. He moved up and gave Luana a kiss, enjoying her small lips and minty taste. With her hands now free she ran her fingers through his hair as she pulled him in close. Her kisses were a lot like Grace's and he found himself getting lost in the sensations of her sensual young mouth. A gasp from Grace brought him back to reality as he saw Ben sliding his dick into his sister. Looking right he watched Kaleo move down to position his dick at Emma's opening. Things were heating up fast and he needed to catch up.

Luana gave him a hint by pulling up under his arms, telling him to move over her and give her the pleasure she wanted. He quickly reasoned that if he could fuck his own daughter he could do the same to Kimo's daughter since Kimo had sent her for just that reason. He reached down and wiped precum across her crease then lined up with her opening and pressed forward.

"Mmmm, Kaleo, you feel so good in me." Emma moaned as the ten-year-old slipped his small but very hard dick into her.

"Oh Dan! You're so big. Keep going. Fill me up." Luana said as he started to penetrate her tight opening.

Next to Luana, Grace was laying with her eyes closed and a big smile on her face as her brother again pressed his dick fully inside her and stayed there, grinding their bodies together. Dan decided he needed to concentrate on pleasing the beautiful girl under him and not be distracted by what was happening next to him. It was a little hard to see Kaleo fucking his wife but since he was balls deep in Kaleo's sister he could ignore what was happening to Emma. Sliding into Luana was every bit as pleasurable as it was with Grace. She was tight and wet and her body was generating heat like the Hawaiian sun.

Ben was still an amateur but he was a fast learner and matched Kaleo stroke for stroke. Dan was slower because of his size but his bigger, longer dick could give Luana much more pleasure and hopefully release more love energy. He stared at Luana, so petite below him, and rolled his hips forward and back to give her maximum contact and pleasure.

Emma was concentrating on the erotic idea that she was being expertly fucked by a ten-year-old boy. Dan gave her more physical stimulation from his bigger dick but mentally, the idea of letting a boy fuck her was extremely hot and she could feel herself rising. She looked at Kaleo and he seemed to be pressing harder and pumping faster.

"Getting close." Kaleo said between breaths.

"Me too" Luana said as she pressed against Dan's buttocks with her heels.

"Same here." Added Grace as she gasped for air.

"Hold hands" Kaleo practically shouted.

Grace reached for Luana's right hand and caught it just as she felt what was becoming a familiar warmth spreading out from her vagina. She felt Ben's hand grab her wrist above Luana's hand. On the other side, Luana lifted her left hand, looking for Emma's. Emma reached out and grabbed it then felt Dan's hand press the two hands to the bed. Kaleo would have liked to be touching Grace but he settled for holding Emma's other hand as he felt the first surge build.

"Take my love energy Emma." he said as the first amount of cum raced up his narrow shaft and into the mature vagina waiting for it.

"Take my love energy Dan." Luana said as her orgasm hit and she felt him hit the back of her vagina with his dick and blast cum into her.

"I love you Benny" Grace said as she felt the first drops of his boy cum touch her insides.

This time it was Luana who started with the glow. Dan watched as her face lit up with a smile and a blush crept up from her abdomen to cover her whole body. If it was possible for hair to blush hers would have as her love energy release built. She felt Grace squeeze her hand and then the whole room turned into flashing colored lights as Grace and Luana released at the same time. Ben felt it the most since his dick was inside Grace and he felt himself give her additional amounts of cum as the light show continued in front of his open eyes.

Dan had closed his eyes at the first blast of cum and he also felt the surge flow from Luana, up his dick, and throughout his whole body. That incredible feeling caused by the first blast was on repeat and he kept feeling it over and over as Luana's love energy flowed through him. When Grace squeezed Luana's hand it sent a pulse of love energy throughout the neighborhood and once again people sought out the nearest child, friend or relative, to hug. The love release caused adults to produce large amounts of endorphins when they came in contact with a child's body. Luckily, the energy wasn't strong enough to make people hug a stranger's child but it did make the lights blink again which caused another round of confusion at the electric company.

Kaleo envied the girls. He could make Emma feel really good and get satisfaction from that but generally boys could cause a love energy release in a girl but couldn't do a release of their own. Causing a release in one of his sisters and now in Grace was a pretty pleasurable experience so he wasn't complaining. By staying in physical contact with Luana he was able to receive some of the energy and pass it on to Emma who had one of the strongest orgasms she had ever experienced. He was impressed at the power of Grace's release and would have a lot to tell his parents.

Grace was tired from experiencing two love releases in such a short period of time. She hadn't spoken any ancient words during her latest release but she had felt all the joy and love that the other releases gave her. She experienced a connection with her brother that was new and wonderful.

Her body blended with his and she felt his surges of cum and he felt her orgasm as he gave her his seed. Their kisses during the afterglow were tender and sweet.

"Wow!" Dan said when he could finally speak.

"Yeah, wow is right." Emma said laughing as she hugged Kaleo tight to her body.

"Grace! Did you feel it? It was like we merged into one person." Ben said excitedly.

"Oh yes! Now I know why boys jerk off so much. I felt every drop."

"And I felt your insides like I was you. It was weird."

"Yeah but good weird."

"What are you two talking about?" Emma asked.

"Our dad can explain it better. Grace and Ben became one body. He felt what she felt and she felt what he did." Kaleo explained.

"Right now what I feel is tired" Ben chimed in. "Can we stay here a while?"

"Absolutely!" Emma said and she rolled Kaleo to the middle and cuddled with him, making sure his thigh was between her legs.

Dan rolled next to Luana with his back to Kaleo and pulled Luana in for a soft kiss. Ben took the outside and gave Grace some soft kisses before drifting off to sleep. Before they knew it, two hours had passed and it was time for lunch and the trip to Kimo's to drop off Kaleo and Luana.

They were bubbling about how well the sleepover had gone and how good Grace and Ben were at love releases. Kimo was surprised at the Martins' progress and started to believe they might be the first haloe to be accepted in their secret church. The fact that Dan was part Hawaiian made a big difference. Kimo told Dan he needed to talk to Kaleo and Luana but it looked like the Martins were ready for the next step.

"I have to be honest Dan, I didn't think you would make it this far. You've done good brother. Now that you saw how Kaleo and Luana share love are Ben and Grace ready to do the same? We could go back to Aloha Keiki beach and Leloni and I could guide them on their next step. It's important that we make a love offering to the Goddess of water"

"I'm sure they would be more comfortable if you and Leloni were their first outside our family. I need to talk to them and Emma but I think they will agree."

"Okay brother, this Saturday. Meet at my house at eight thirty."

"Oh and Dan, eventually it will be more than just us. You need to understand that."

"I do, Kimo. I do."

Chapter 14 - Share the love with Namaka

Dan called a family meeting that night to go over everything that had happened since the first family skinny dipping. He made sure that Ben and Grace were fully on board with everything and didn't feel the least bit forced into doing things. He also repeated the seriousness of keeping the secret and everyone agreed what they had done and would be doing was a precious expression of love. Grace was eager to learn how to bring on bigger love releases and Ben wanted to continue trying to do his own release.

"Grace, do you understand that for us to be accepted in Kimo's church you and Ben will need to let all of the members help you release. There will probably be a lot of touching and the kind of loving we will do with Kimo's family on Saturday."

"I want to share my love energy. Namaka told me to do it. Will you be with me when it happens?"

Mom and I will be right there. Kimo will show you this Saturday. We're going back to that special beach where Cindy almost made us all faint."

"What about me?" Ben asked.

"I'm sure the ladies of Kimo's church will want to feel this manly rod inside them." Emma said as she wrapped her hand around Ben's shaft. "Don't you want to share it with Leloni on Saturday?"

Saturday morning they got to Kimo's house early and enjoyed breakfast pastries, pineapple slices and strong coffee before heading out in Kimo's SUV. Ben and Grace didn't hesitate to pair up with Luana and Kaleo and the drive out was quiet except for occasional giggles from roaming hands inside shirts and pants. They obeyed Kimo's rule that clothes had to stay on when they were on public roads but just barely.

When they arrived at the beach Dan was happy to see it was deserted. This would be a big day for Grace and Ben and he didn't want them worrying about being seen by outsiders. Being seen by Kimo's family apparently wasn't a problem as four naked children piled out of the back seat and headed to the water. It took the adults a little longer to undress and spread thick quilts on the sand. They left a pile of clothes and towels in one corner in case they had visitors and headed for the ocean.

"Let them play first" Kimo told Emma and Dan.

The adults watched as the five children swam and played like a school of dolphins. The sun reflected off of shiny bare backs and bums as they jumped in the gentle surf. Emma noticed Leloni drifting closer until she put her arm around Emma to steady herself in the waves.

"They sure enjoy the water." Emma said as she put her arm around Leloni's back. It seemed like a perfectly natural thing to do.

"It's beautiful here." Emma finally said to break the silence.

"Namaka, the Water Goddess makes it that way for us. All she asks for in return is some love to be shared in her waters. Not just child love, any love."

"I will watch the children. Let Leloni show you what she means." Kimo said as he walked away.

"I think Namaka would like you to love your husband in her waters again." Leloni said.

"Oh! I thought you were, Oh never mind. That sounds nice." Emma stuttered. She thought Leloni wanted to have sex with her or Dan or both. The last time they had sex in the ocean they almost passed out from the intensity. Leloni must think they could handle it now.

Kimo joined the children and had fun tossing them into the waves. He only briefly glanced at his wife as she kissed Emma and turned her to face Dan. He smiled when he saw Emma mount Dan with Leloni behind her. Namaka would bless them today. When he got tired of lifting the children, he gathered Cindy in his arms and kissed her as he played with her bum. He would have carried her over to her mother but someone had to be lifeguard and he needed to save himself for Grace.

When he saw Emma standing again he called everyone over.

"We are here to give gifts of love to Namaka. Grace, would you let me release some of your love energy into these waters?"

"Yes Kimo. I want you to release my love energy. Will everyone be close by? They should share it too."

Everyone made a circle around Kimo and Grace as he lifted her up and held her by her bum. She floated up with each small wave and each time she did his dick rubbed her abdomen. Emma took a breath in as Kimo pulled her nine-year-old daughter in for a kiss. This was the point of no return where she would watch another man penetrate her daughter. Every fiber in her body said this was the right thing to do and she reached out and gently placed her hand on Grace's back.

Grace was trembling with excitement. Ever since her first orgasm she had hungered for more and bigger ones. The love releases were like a powerful drug and her body craved them. She didn't know why but she thought Kimo could bring out an even bigger release than her father or Kaleo. When Kimo kissed her, she gave him a probing tongue and put a hand behind his neck. Leloni gathered up Ben the same way and motioned to Emma to stand behind Ben and help support him.

"Little one, you are so beautiful" Kimo said to Grace. It almost sounded like a prayer.

"The Goddess Namaka is waiting for us. Will you release your love energy now? Kaleo says you have great power, almost as much as Cindy"

Grace was rising from the stimulation of Kimo's dick rubbing against her."

"Yes Kimo. I am ready. Help me to release my love energy. Namaka is here. I can feel her touching me." She panted.

Kimo supported her with one hand and reached down to position his dick. Grace reached down to help and Dan stepped forward to hold his daughter up and give her to Kimo. When Kimo felt his crown slip into Grace's tight opening he reached back around to hold her with both hands.

"Oh Namaka! You have blessed this one with great love energy. Help us release it into your waters before Pele gets jealous."

Kimo felt the difference right away. As his dick slowly disappeared inside Grace's body he could feel her vagina giving his dick thousands of little kisses. Only Cindy's tiny vagina had given him a similar feeling.

"Take me in Grace." He whispered. "Pull my seed out of me and into your love home."

Grace closed her eyes and concentrated on the immense stimulation she was receiving from her insides. Every movement of Kimo's dick inside her caused flashes of light and color in front of her closed eyes. It was like a thirsty person trying to drink from a firehose. She felt light headed and would have flopped backward if not for all the hands holding her up and moving her with the waves.

"Namaka!" She screamed at the sky. "Take my love energy. Lift me up."

No one noticed at first but the wave heights definitely increased after that. Grace's body was lifted off of Kimo's dick with each passing wave and she sank down until her clit rubbed the base of his dick in each trough. The stimulation was increasing with each wave and even Kimo was in awe of the power Grace was generating.

"Aumakua. I am not kamaaina but please accept me with your kamalii." she moaned then seemed to drift off into a trance again.

"What is she saying?" Dan asked.

"Something about not being native but asking to join something. When did she learn Hawaiian?" Leloni said. Kimo was too far gone to even hear Dan's question.

"She didn't." Emma and Dan answered together.

Grace felt the warmth start at the back of her vagina. She closed her eyes tighter and heard Namaka's voice like a howling wind.

"Soon child. You will give your love soon. Later you must give some to Pele too." The voice said.

"Yes"! I will Namaka. I promise."

Emma looked at Leloni who just shrugged her shoulders. She was holding Ben close but had decided his turn would come on the quilt after Grace had finished. She had to see how close Grace's release was to Cindy's.

"Kimo! Oh yes Kimo! I am Kumu! I am Kumu." Grace moaned as she drifted in and out of consciousness.

She continued to be lifted up and down by the waves and stimulated by Kimo's rock hard dick sliding in and out of her. Dan was rubbing his dick between Grace's butt cheeks as she rocked on Kimo's dick. He planned to plug in to Grace's release through her rosebud when the time came.

"Namaka"!the naku, the naku! Oh God THE NAKU" Grace screamed!

"Yes Grace, the waves will release you. Take me in deeper and let your love energy out." Kimo said as he held her tight to his chest. He felt intense heat passing from Grace's body to his and watched as the now familiar blush raced up her back and down her legs until her whole body glowed bright pink.

"Niu 'ohana"!niu 'ohana! Aaahhhh. Yeeeeeeee" she screamed as the volcano inside her erupted and a visible shockwave spread out in all directions. The force was so strong it pushed back the water and Kimo found himself standing in knee deep water for a few seconds before Nakama rushed in to hug them up to his waist again.

Kimo received the most intense hit and his balls emptied into Grace in an almost continuous stream of pulses. Feeling Kimo's cum inside her made Grace emit a second wave of love energy and a third as Kimo pumped more and more seed into her. Dan had inserted his dick partly into Grace's bum just as the blush spread and he too blasted out every drop of cum in his body. Some of his went inside Grace and some went to the waters as an offering to Namaka.

Emma saw the blush, grabbed Kaleo, held him tight to her body and pressed his back against Grace's side. He felt the surge through his back and contributed his sperm to Namaka as Grace's love energy flowed through him and into Emma. Cindy looked at Luana with a big smile and a surprised look and they both hugged Kimo to receive their share of the love energy release. Finally Leloni, still holding Ben, pressed up against Grace's other side and put her hand on the back of Kimo's neck. Ben was in direct contact with Grace and felt the surge of love flow through his body and into Leloni. Once again he could feel some of what Grace was feeling although not as intensely. He donated a couple squirts of boy cum to Namaka but somehow kept some in reserve.

Grace received a surge of love when each person made contact with her body directly or through someone else. When she felt Ben's body merging with hers she opened her eyes wide and looked at Kimo then up at the sky.

"Ka'ana'ana,. Macca Uei Namma Namma Ka'ana'ana". She yelled.

Kimo looked at Leloni who just shrugged.

"No idea what that meant. Something about magic but that wasn't modern Hawaiian." He said as he held Grace's panting body close.

The two families stayed joined together through wave after wave of ecstasy as Grace rode Kimo to exhaustion. It was only the group supporting each other that kept them all from sinking beneath the waves.

"We should get to shore and rest." Leloni said as she put Ben down and turned to leave. "Ben will have his turn on Pele's territory."

They all staggered to the shore and collapsed on the two large Hawaiian quilts that Kimo had brought. Dan and Emma put Ben and Grace between them and gently stroked their bodies as everyone calmed down and rested. Kimo looked at Leloni and shook his head in disbelief. Grace's release had been as powerful as Cindy's, maybe even stronger. He wondered if it was felt on the other side of the volcano. Someone from his extended family would tell him if it was. He couldn't imagine what would happen if Cindy and Grace joined in a mutual release but he wanted to find out with the guidance of their Kahuna.

Chapter 15 - On Pele's territory

Kimo's family recovered faster than the Martins and they returned to the water for more playing in the waves and sexy fun. Luana and Cindy decided they needed to take turns sinking down on their father's willing dick. The goddess Namaka restored his vitality so that he could give pleasure to his two girls. When Leloni said she wanted a turn Kimo held her shoulders and Luana and Cindy held her legs out level as Kaleo moved between them and gave his mother some boy love and boy cum. They returned for lunch as the Martins were beginning to stir.

"Kimo, what happened to me?" Grace asked. "I remember feeling like I was flying and lots of colored lights and there were voices."

"You released your love energy into the waters and think Namaka spoke to you. You said a few Hawaiian words we understood but a lot we didn't. You have great power for good in you."

"I don't know about power but I sure have a lot of you in me. It's dripping out." Grace said laughing.

The children all gathered around to see the cum dripping out of Grace and onto her towel. When Luana walked back to her mother Leloni whispered something to her and she and Cindy walked over to where Ben was rubbing some of Kimo's cum onto Grace's breasts.

"Ben, it's your turn now. Come with us." Liana and Cindy said as they took his hands.

"Ben, would you share some of your love with me now?" Leloni asked as she spread her arms and legs to invite him in.

"Sure but I can't make the lights blink like Grace can."

"Oh Ben, you have much to learn. The man unlocks the girl's love with his key. I am too old to do a love release. I just want to know if you will share your love with me and make me feel the joy of bonding with you."

"Um, I guess. I'm not sure what all that means."

"It means she wants you to make love to her." Emma said as she gently pushed Ben closer to Leloni.

"She wants you to put your penis inside her and give her the same good feelings you give to me. Would you like to do that Ben?"

Emma looked over Ben's shoulder to Leloni and shook her head smiling. Sometimes she wondered how boys could be so clueless for so long. Some of them never grow out of it. Ben finally got the message. He loved all the new sex things they were doing as a family and now an exotic other woman was being included.

"Oh yeah. I want to do that. Right now?"

"Yes!" Leloni said. "Right now. Come here you handsome boy."

Leloni took Ben's hands and pulled him on top of her naked body as she lay back on the quilt.

"That's right Ben. You know where the hole is. Oh yes! Just like Kaleo, you feel so good in there."

Ben had enough experience to easily find Leloni's entrance and sink in fully. He was too short to kiss her without pulling out so he settled for sucking on a nipple as he felt her vagina lick up and down his shaft.

"Oh geeze, your insides feel like my mom's."

"Well thank you. It's not as tight as Grace or Luana but we can share love like you and your mom do."

Grace came over and got down on all fours to try to see where her brother's dick disappeared inside Leloni. She had her head down and her bum in the air trying to see between the two bodies when she felt an amazing sensation in her pussy.

"Well I didn't want to waste Daddy's love stuff when it was right there." Luana said as she wiped Grace's wet pussy then licked her fingers clean. When Grace stopped dripping Luana bent down and licked the remainder out of Grace. That caused Grace to moan along with Leloni who was rising fast with the friction of Ben's dick plunging into her. Ben picked up the pace when Kaleo put his hand on Ben's butt and pushed him into Leloni with extra force on each down stroke. When he felt a little hand touching his bum and playing with his balls he reached his peak and slammed hard into Leloni. She felt him thicken slightly and spasm as he deposited his boy cum three and a half inches inside her vagina.

Ben wasn't thick like her husband and he wasn't experienced like her son but he was a child giving love to an adult and that tripled the impact of her orgasm as she felt him empty his love into her. Everyone watched as Leloni sucked in a breath, pressed her abdomen up, raising Ben up with her, then let the breath out with a scream of joy.

"Oh keiki! Yes! Yes! Give me your love. Fill me up with it."

Everyone joined in on their pleasure in one way or another. Kaleo saw Grace's butt up in the air, nudged Leloni to move and positioned himself behind her.

"Oh crap!" She said as he sank his dick into her from behind.

It was about to turn into a full-fledged orgy when they heard the rumble of tires on gravel and saw a car heading down the hill towards the beach.

Dan and Emma grabbed towels and threw one to Grace. Ben tried to pull out of Leloni but she held him tight to her body and covered his backside with her towel.

Kimo, who is it?" She asked. She knew that only a few close friends and relatives knew about that beach.

"I think it's cousin Ino. What's he doing here?"

"Are we in trouble?" Dan asked quickly. Shouldn't Ben get up?"

"Not yet Dan. Let me make sure it's just his family with him. If it is they're like us and probably are just here to swim.

Kimo got up and walked over to the car.

"Hey cousin. You here to swim?"

"Hey Kimo. We felt Cindy's love release and wondered why you didn't invite us. Who are those people?"

"Wait, you felt the release? That's impossible. It wasn't Cindy, it was those people's daughter Grace. The dad is part Hawaiian from way back and they want to learn about Kapulehie."

"Cousin you took an awful chance telling them. What if they went to the cops."

"Ino, don't worry. I was careful. Grace has the gift. She may have more love energy than Cindy."

"So how far along are they on the path?"

"Luana and Kaleo slept at their house last week. Today was their first time with us. I don't think they are ready to go to the next step yet but it won't be long. If they say they're ready you might have come at the perfect time."

Geeze, stronger than Cindy? Who should try to release her? Think Tommy could handle it?"

"Well Kaleo did but he might get a little jealous if she goes with Tommy in front of him."

"Haukea could keep Kaleo busy or even Layla. Kimo, can you imagine if Cindy and this Grace get together?"

"I know. It's probably not something we should try alone. Maybe at their acceptance by the Kahuna."

"That should be interesting when you bring haloes to Kahoolawe for the ceremony."

"Ha, yeah. I may need your family to come with us for support."

"So everything is cool if we swim and you know"!"

"Absolutely cousin. Let me introduce you."

Kimo walked Ino and his family over to where they sat covered in towels. Ben was still between Liloni's legs where she still held him tight.

"Martin family, this is my cousin Ino, his wife Layla and his sons Tommy and Jimmy and his daughter Haukea. Ino, this is Dan Martin, he works with me, and his wife Emma. That handsome embarrassed boy giving some love to Liloni is Ben and that pretty lady there is Grace. Grace, cousin Ino felt your love release all the way to Kihei. That's a long way."

"Did you really do that?" Haukea asked Grace.

"I guess so. It just happens. Kimo did it to me."

"Cousin Kimo, will you help me?"

"I would be happy to but probably not today. Grace wore me out pretty good. Why don't you guys set your stuff up here and we'll join you in the water in a while. Dan, I hope you don't mind. Ino is family."

"Not a bit." Dan responded. "We will probably rest a while before we join you."

Dan and his family watched as Ino and his family spread their quilt and stripped in front of them before running into the waves. Dan guessed that Tommy was about fourteen, Jimmy twelve and Haukea nine or ten. Ino was short and chunky. Dan guessed he would have an enormous belly in a few years. Layla and Haukea were like Hawaiian princesses with long silky black hair and golden-brown skin. Layla had a fit hourglass figure and Haukea was a typical young girl with a mostly flat chest and cute little butt that bounced as she ran to the water. Timmy looked like he played sports and was fit and trim. He was also well equipped in the genital department and probably made some young girl cousins very happy. Timmy was more like Ben but was starting to grow some pubic hair.

"Well that was a surprise." Emma said as she watched Ino's family playing in the surf.

"I know." Kimo said. "But it shows how much love energy Grace has. They came because they thought Cindy had done a big release. They felt Grace's love all the way to Kehei on the other side of the Haleakala."

"It's up to you guys but I'm sure they would like for you to join them and share as much love as you're willing to share. The next step before I presented you to the Kahuna would be for another member family like Ino's to share their children as you share yours."

"Okay Kimo, why don't you guys swim while we talk it over."

Kimo agreed and he and his family ran to join his cousin.

"I'm ready." Dan said. "But it's up to Ben, Grace, and Emma."

Emma dropped her towel and turned to Grace. "Grace? what do you think? Are we going too fast?"

"No, I love how Kimo made me feel inside and that Tommy is really cute. There's just one thing."

"What is it Gracie?" Dan asked.

"It's embarrassing and maybe selfish, I don't know."

"Grace, how can anything be embarrassing after what we've experienced?"

"Well, the thing is, well you see";

"Grace Martin, just say it already!" Emma said frustrated.

"Okay, okay. I want Daddy and Ben inside me before I let anyone else do it."

Dan sat back with a huge smile. "Well I think that can be arranged. Both at once or one at a time?"

"One at a time please. You first Daddy with me on top."

Out in the water Kimo told the rest to not stare as Grace mounted her father's hard dick and enjoyed several minutes of bliss before laying on her back and taking her brother in for more family pleasure time. Neither Dan or Ben gave her any cum but she enjoyed the feeling of them deep inside her body as her mother caressed her chest and gave her little kisses. It was family bonding like most families would never experience.

Chapter 16 - Another step along the path.

Kimo smiled when he saw the Martins coming hand in hand towards them. He didn't know how far they would go but the fact that they were all naked and that Ben and Dan both had hard-ons was a good sign.

"Hey Martins! Namaka is pleased with us today. The water is warm and the waves are gentle. How about some Marco Polo with Dan it first?"

The children all cheered and Dan closed his eyes and shouted "Marco" to start the game. It was not like any Marco Polo game ever played. The kids were all faster than Dan and would dive under water and grab his dick or squeeze his bum. There were several side games where one child would give some pleasurable touches to another out of reach of Dan. Ben was surprised when Haukea dove under water and took his dick in her mouth for a few licks. Grace wondered who was left playing the game when she felt so many hands on her body.

The adults stood to one side and laughed as Dan lunged one way then the other, never quite catching a slippery body. Layla moved next to Emma and casually put her hand on Emma's bottom under the water.

"Kimo says you want to learn about Kapulehie."

"We do! We know the risks but we've come to believe that children are the source of love energy and the world would be a better place if we all released it."

"That's true. Children are the center of love energy but we don't limit our love to just them. Leloni and I like to have some "girl time" occasionally."

Emma wasn't against lesbians, she just never had the opportunity to experience that kind of pleasure.

"What exactly is girl time? Would I like it?"

"Looks like Cindy and Grace are." Layla said as she let her hand slide down Emma's bum and between her legs.

Emma looked and saw Grace holding Cindy who had her legs wrapped around Grace's waist. Cindy was obviously rubbing her pussy against Grace's and they were kissing. Emma let her hand slide down Layla's front and cupped her pussy as she casually watched the children playing. She was about to turn for a kiss when Kimo and Leloni came over.

"We better not let Grace and Cindy get together yet. We don't know how to handle that much power."

"Hey guys. How about some lunch. Let poor Dan have a rest." Leloni shouted.

"Maybe later, huh Emma?" Layla whispered to Emma.

"Um, yeah. Maybe"

Everyone headed to the shore where Kimo and Ino set up two portable gas grills. Soon there was hot pulled pork and chicken ready with rolls and lots of extras. All the activity made everyone hungry and they all enjoyed a great lunch. After some fruit for dessert Kimo suggested that the Martins get to know Ino's family better.

"Tommy, why don't you and Grace take the far quilt and get to know each other better. Ben, I think Haukea would like to get to know you better and Grace might be more comfortable with you close by."

Ino suggested that Jimmy and Emma could be next to Ben then looked at Kimo for suggestions.

"What do you think Kimo? Cindy or Luana for Dan?"

"Cindy has been begging me to have time with Uncle Dan but I don't want the poor guy to have a heart attack."

"He looks in pretty good shape but he should take the outside to direct Cindy's love energy to the rest of us." Ino replied. "And I promised Luana some quality time. I'm sure you and Layla can find something to do, right cousin?"

Kimo called Cindy over and asked her to try to control her release for Dan. She was so happy to be with Uncle Dan she readily agreed. Everyone spread out across the three large quilts but with that many people there wasn't a lot of room between couples. They all lined up with their feet pointing towards the water and all still naked from their swim. Down at the end Tommy was getting to know Grace.

"How long have you known you have the gift?"

"Only a few weeks. This is all new to me. It's still pretty weird."

"Yeah, guess it would be. We all grew up knowing about love releases so it's natural to us."

They talked a little about life in Hawaii and she let him put his hand on her waist and slide it down to her bum and back. She put her hand on his waist and nudged him to come closer. Grace knew she had changed since coming to Hawaii. She belonged here, she knew it. The land and the ancient ones spoke to her and she felt it more each day.

"Do you think I could kiss you now?" He asked politely.

"That would be nice." Grace replied and closed her eyes as Tommy leaned in and touched his lips to hers.

Grace didn't think about her life back on the mainland. She didn't think about all the teachings about bad touch or abstaining from sex. Instead she let herself totally enjoy Tommy's kisses and his touches. When he kissed her it made her feel warm and nice inside. His fingers on her skin sent tingles through her body straight to her pussy. She knew something special was going to happen again and it didn't frighten her a bit. Even after the huge release brought on by Kimo inside her she was ready to do it again with someone closer to her age. When she licked his lips during a kiss he felt himself rise noticeably. Grace excited him more than any of his other cousins except maybe Cindy.

Ben had tried to follow Tommy's example but since Haukea was older and more experienced he let her lead. He lay facing her with his back to Grace and asked her about life in Hawaii and school but when he started asking about sports she cut him off by kissing him and putting a hand on his bare bum. He got the message and found she was a very good kisser and had him stiff and ready within seconds. While Tommy was still kissing Grace next to him Ben moved between Haukea's legs and sank his erection fully into her. She seemed to appreciate it with no comparison of sizes and pulled him in by his butt cheeks so that she could grind against him.

Emma was asked to lay down next to Ben and she was surprised to see Layla lay right beside her with Kaleo laying between her legs. Kaleo was slowly fucking Layla before Emma had given Jimmy his first kiss. She looked over to Layla who smiled and said.

"Kaleo is such a good boy. He is always ready to share some love. Just like my Jimmy there."

Jimmy was a little shy but warmed up when Emma kissed him and ran her fingers through his thick hair. She took a breath and taking hold of his dick, guided him to her opening and enjoyed the feeling of another young boy entering her most private region. Jimmy was experienced enough to give Emma immense pleasure right from the first thrust and he had her panting in seconds. Layla next to her with Kaleo was approaching the first of many orgasms under Kaleo's expert care. Looking left she saw that Ben had already penetrated Haukea but Grace and Tommy were still kissing and caressing each other.

"That's nice." She thought. "He remembered love not lust."

Dan was going to have Cindy on top of him next to Layla but Kimo said he should be on the end opposite Grace. He moved over and started to lay down when Cindy said the bottom was where she belonged and told Dan that he should start by kissing her 'down there'. Dan was more than willing to taste Cindy's young nectar and took his position between her legs. She immediately pulled them up and out, giving him full access to her waiting pussy and bumping into Ino who had just penetrated Luana next to him. Luana knew how much love Cindy would broadcast and wanted to be close enough to touch her when she did.

Kimo looked at his cousin Ino and shrugged his shoulders. There was only he and Leloni left.

Leloni lay on her back between Luana and Layla and motioned Kimo to join the fun. He looked up and down the row of people across the three quilts. Pele and Namaka should be very pleased with the love offering they were about to receive. From left to right Kimo saw Dan licking Cindy and getting her ready for more, Ino inside Luana, himself ready to penetrate his wife Leloni, Kaleo pumping away in Layla and working on her second orgasm, Jimmy inside Emma who was trying to quiet a series of "ooo's", Ben giving Haukea as good a fuck as Jimmy did and Grace feeling herself rise and finally pulling Tommy on top of her to feel his dick fill her up and his masculine body press her to Mother Earth.

"I wish the Kahuna could see this. There's no question the Martins should be admitted to the Ohana." Kimo said as he enjoyed the familiar pleasure of his wife's vagina.

Grace loved Tommy's tenderness. His kisses were wet and sensual and his touch light and erotic. She had closed her eyes and let herself rise higher and higher as he moved over her and wiped his ample precum across her slit. She waited until he bottomed out to open her eyes and smile at her new lover. Kapulehie had brought her more pleasure than she could ever have imagined. As she started to climb the mountain to her orgasm she reached out and touched the back of her hand to Ben's hip to make sure he was close. She looked down the row at her new family members, cousins in love if not in blood. Kimo had placed her and Cindy a little higher on the quilt and she looked at Cindy smiling at her. There was a bond there and Grace smiled back before turning her attention to Tommy.

As Tommy moved in and out of Grace he felt the difference. His whole body was shaking with adrenaline. He should have cum by now. Grace was giving him an extreme form of edging where you stay right on the edge of cuming without going over. It was pure bliss and he kissed her continuously as he rocked his hips forward and back, in and out of his young lover.

At the other end of the quilt Cindy let Dan prepare her with his probing tongue. Dan couldn't believe the impact every drop of Cindy's love juice had on him. He had tried some really strong alcohol but nothing hammered his body like Cindy's vagina when his tongue dipped inside. His dick had grown so thick it ached from skin that couldn't stretch any more. When he thought he would cum on the quilt Cindy grabbed two fistfuls of his hair and pulled him up. He crawled over her on hands and knees and felt her grab his dick and aim it right where he had been licking. There wasn't the slightest question that he would penetrate her seven-year-old pussy. What did surprise him was that she took him all inside, every inch.

The women and girls in the row were all in ecstasy. Being sandwiched between Cindy and Grace kept all of the men from cuming and all of the women and girls having continuous orgasms. Cindy felt her itch gradually being satisfied. Dan was as big as her father and uncles and he rubbed all the right places deep inside her pussy. She felt the familiar blush starting but then she felt something new. She looked over to Grace who was smiling at her. Grace's lips didn't move but she thought she heard her talking.

"Namaka is pleased with our offering Cindy. Can you feel them all? Can you feel your brother inside your auntie? Can you feel Tommy inside me? I can feel my father in you every time he moves."

Cindy closed her eyes and concentrated and Grace was right. If she thought about Kaleo she could feel him pumping hard into her auntie Layla. She felt her parents making love and cute Ben dizzy from being on the edge so long. Cindy looked back at Grace.

"Why don't they finish?"

"Namaka is making them wait for us. When we fly they will too. Are you ready? Tommy is giving me so much love I am ready."

Cindy nodded yes and turned to look at Dan. Grace turned and pulled Tommy into a tongue filled kiss. He pressed his dick deeper and deeper into her until his pubic hair left marks on her smooth skin. Grace pushed him back and took a deep breath. Her eyes rolled back as she screamed.

"Ka'ana'ana,. Aakie Uei Namma Ooku Ka'ana'ana".

"Ka'ana'ana,. Aakie Uei Namma Ooku Ka'ana'ana". Cindy yelled from the other end of the quilts. No one had any idea what it meant.

They both screamed "Namaka" and pressed their abdomens up to take their lovers deeper inside as their orgasms finally hit and all of the men were released from their edges and allowed to cum. Grace and Cindy both felt the blush flow out from their vaginas to turn their bodies bright red. Instead of being confined to them, the blush flowed from couple to couple as each man and boy filled their lover with their seed and lit the fires inside them. When the blush reached the middle there was a bright flash and a pulse of love energy flowed out in all directions, passing through Haleakala, over the entire island and miles out to sea, almost reaching the big island of Hawaii to the south and Lanai to the northwest.

Dan came so hard he thought he would pass out. During one pulse it felt like he was inside Grace and he thought he heard her say "yes Daddy, give it to me". Grace was feeling every stroke her father was giving Cindy just as Cindy felt Tommy and Jimmy and Kaleo pleasuring their females.

Kimo looked at Ino, still pumping blast after blast of cum into Luana. He had practiced Kapulehie for years but had never felt this intensity. Touching Cindy's arm he thought she was dangerously hot. A few more minutes and he would bring her to the ocean to cool off. The flashes of light gradually faded and the men pumped their last drops and collapsed beside their partners. Kimo thought it was over but then he heard Cindy and Grace calling.

"Children hold the love. We need our brothers and sisters to complete the offering to Namaka. She will not bless us until we do."

The adults sat back and watched as Cindy and Grace arranged the final offering. Tommy moved to Luana, Jimmy moved to Grace, Ben moved to Cindy and Kaleo moved to Haukea. The four girls lay side by side holding hands and the boys all mounted them. Although they had just cum stronger than they ever had, each had a full erection capable of pleasuring any girl.

The boys went to work as their parents watched in awe. Four dicks pumped the four young but very experienced vaginas. Four pairs of heels pressed against four bare bums, encouraging them to go faster, harder, deeper.

"Come closer, touch us!" Cindy yelled to the adults. They all gathered around and put a hand on their child. The pleasure being felt by the children was transmitted to the parent and they experienced the rising emotions as they came closer and closer to orgasm. Cindy reached hers first and stiffened as Ben pumped fresh cum into her hungry vagina. She literally glowed pink as Grace joined her and sent a second pulse of love flying across the island. The boys did their part, contributing cum that acted like nitroglycerin to detonate the love release. They were literally burning up with passion as they all glowed red. Everyone was so involved in the release they didn't see the huge wave roll into the cove and up the beach. It broke right at their waists, instantly cooling their burning bodies and carrying traces of all of the semen down to Namaka as a final offering. Dan thought the water looked pink as it retreated and he was happy to see that Grace's skin color had returned to normal.

"Namaka says thank you." Grace and Cindy said together and they all had a good laugh as they tried to wring the salt water out of the three quilts.

"Dan, when we get back I'll make some calls. We need your family installed as members. I'll try to arrange a welcoming for next weekend on Kahoolawe."

"Isn't that island off limits to people?"

"It was for years but the army finally cleaned up all the bomb remains and it's available to native Hawaiians. Ino and I will escort you and your family over."

As they were packing up to go Grace walked up to Kimo.

"Kimo, what does Kupu mean?"

"It means to sprout or suddenly grow or become important. Why?"

"Namaka said I was the Kupu."

"I think she might be right."

Chapter 17 - Prepare for Ohana

Things changed that day. When it was time to leave Cindy took Kaleo's place in back and made him sit between Dan and Emma. Ben was allowed to stay but had to sit on the edge next to Grace. Kimo looked at the three girls sitting together and made two rules. They had to keep their clothes on and they could not do a love release while he was driving.

Luana was thrilled to be included. She had always been overshadowed by Cindy's power but now a part haloe had equaled Cindy's power. She sat between Cindy and Grace and received lots of loving touches on the trip back. Ben looked out the window most of the trip but near the end Grace slipped her hand in his swimsuit and gave him some relief.

Sunday was a family day for the Martins. Kimo had called and said the ceremony was all set for the following Saturday. One of his cousins had a boat large enough to take them all to the island where all of the members of Kimo's "church" would be there for the formal acceptance of the Martins into their Ohana. Most of the ceremony would center around Grace as the keeper of the love energy but the whole family would have a part.

The change in Grace was striking. She was always pretty but now she had an air of confidence and a glow that made her beautiful beyond her years. Emma found that mornings were about the same. They would find a new part of the island to explore then have a picnic lunch at one of the many small public beaches on Maui. It was when they got home that the change in Grace was evident. The three would leave a trail of clothes from the front door to the back and be in the pool in minutes. Grace could induce an orgasm in Emma just by hugging her and Ben could plan on giving his sister a good dose of cum every afternoon.

By Wednesday Emma and Ben couldn't keep up with Grace so they tried to get Leloni to bring her three for a visit. When they said they were busy Leloni suggested Emma call Layla which she did and soon the pool was hosting five naked children while Emma and Layla worked on their all over tans.

"Saturday is going to be very special." Layla said as they watched Jimmy and Grace kissing at the edge of the pool.

"I hope it's not too much for Grace. Kimo won't tell us what's going to happen.

"I think Grace may be too much for them. I wish I could tell you but it could spoil their chance of being accepted. Just remember it is always love not lust.

"Speaking of love, I think Jimmy and Grace are getting to share some right now.

"Maybe we should join them?" Layla finally said as she finished her drink and headed to the pool.

Grace found that Jimmy's dick gave her feelings that she didn't get with the other boys. She was very happy her mother had invited them over. She knew now how Cindy felt when she needed a love release. The excess energy gave her an itch deep inside her pussy that only a warm hard dick could scratch. When her mother and Layla entered the pool Grace was floating on her back with her hands on the edge and Jimmy was pumping his dick into her as deeply as possible. Jimmy was a great lover for twelve. He didn't rush or get rough. He gently held Grace's waist and pulled himself in and out, in and out while staring at her beautiful eyes and occasionally leaning forward for a kiss or to lick her almost flat nipples.

Ben had stuck to Haukea as soon as she arrived and had talked about school and sports while continuously sliding his dick in and out of her tight vagina. She would occasionally stop talking to gasp and giggle if he hit an extra good spot inside her. Tommy had been hugging his sister from behind but headed to Emma as soon as she entered the pool.

"Looks like you have a friend." Layla laughed as Tommy approached.

"Hello Mrs. Martin. Would you like to share some love?"

"Tommy is such a polite boy." Layla said as she pushed him up against Emma.

"Yes he is." Emma replied. "But what about you Layla? You should receive some love too. I wouldn't be a very good host if I left you standing alone. Maybe we should move to the lounge chairs."

Emma knew Layla had a lesbian streak and she was actually a little curious herself. She told Layla to lay on the lounge and crawled up between her legs. When Emma bent down to taste Layla's juices she lifted her bum up so that Tommy could take her from behind. The moan she emitted when he sank his teen dick into her pussy vibrated up into Layla's vagina and gave her a mini orgasm.

"Oh Emma! You do that so well!"

"You should thank". oh shit". Tommy". oh yes Tommy, right there!"

Tommy had reached around Emma and was playing with her clit as he curled his hips in and penetrated her fully. He really wanted to be with Grace but she had insisted on taking Jimmy inside her.

"Layla, watch the kids. I can't see them from here." Emma gasped as Tommy continued to pound her from behind and Layla gave her a fountain of arousal liquid to drink.

Layla counted heads and verified that all of the kids in the pool could be seen. Grace had let go of the pool and was wrapped around Jimmy with his erection still inside her and his hands on her bum cheeks. He gave her a thrill deep inside that she knew was special but she didn't know why yet.

She would have stayed with him inside her all night but after three exhausting orgasms Layla said that they needed to get home and prepare supper. Grace leaned back and stared at Jimmy with an intense look then squeezed her vagina muscles three times and let her love release.

Jimmy had been riding on the edge for half an hour and suddenly released at the third squeeze from Grace. Hot cum raced up his shaft and boiled over into Grace's waiting tunnel. Pele smiled as all three boys sent their lava erupting like her volcanos had done for thousands of years. Grace felt the first drop of Jimmy's cum touch her insides and her body flushed red. When he thrust hard into her and stayed there she squeezed her eyes closed tight, watched the explosion of colors before her and felt the pool shake as her love release rushed out over the neighborhood and half way to Lahaina.

Ben felt his sister's flash of heat and pulled Haukea in for an intense kiss as he pumped boy cum into her. She responded with her own orgasm that milked Ben's dick dry. Tommy felt it a second later and screamed as he filled Emma with his semen. Emma's orgasm hit as she had sucked Layla's clit into her mouth and pressed two fingers into her. She collapsed against Layla's abdomen and asked Tommy to make sure everyone in the pool was okay. Tommy counted heads and verified that none were missing then slipped out of Emma and lay on the grass.

"Everyone out of the pool please." Emma said weakly.

There were no arguments and the two pool couples joined Tommy on the grass to rest. Grace never let go of Jimmy and spent her rest time gently kissing him and touching his cheek. Ben and Huakea cuddled together until they had air dried.

"Layla what are we going to do when school starts? We can't keep this up."

"Emma it's never been like this. Cindy has been the only one with that much power and she has been able to hold it until after school. I'm wondering when the power company will come looking for the source of the flickering lights."

Emma found it hard to get basic household chores done the rest of the week because Grace would give her a hug and fill her with a need to lick her daughter's vagina or take her son's growing dick inside her. Dan had a tough time concentrating on work. He kept replaying everything that happened that Saturday. He was sure that he could feel and even smell Grace's pussy as he was deep inside Cindy. Grace and Ben slept with their parents every night now and Dan often woke up to the feeling of his morning wood inside his daughter. His life had been completely turned upside down by Kapulehie but after seeing Cindy and Grace's power he was a true believer.

Chapter 17 - I am Kupu

Saturday finally came and the Martin family climbed into Kimo's SUV for the trip to the dock. They were dressed in matching Hawaiian shirts and dresses and Kimo choked back a laugh because none of their clothes were authentic ancient Hawaiian. Ino and his family were there along with a cousin who was providing the boat. They made the short trip to Kahoolawe island and pulled up to an old dock. There were two men on the dock waiting to greet them and two women on the shore with special clothing for them.

"Hey cousin Kimo. Are these the new candidates? They don't look like family?"

"Just wait till the ceremony cousin. Little Grace will blow you away with her love energy."

"They gonna undress now? You know the rules bro."

Kimo had already explained to the Martins that everything from their life on Maui had to be left on the boat. They would walk naked down the dock and put on traditional Hawaiian clothes, malos, or loin cloths for the men and pau, which were a skirt of leaves reaching about to their knees, for the woman. None of the clothes hid much when they moved because underwear was not allowed. The Martins had been nude so much in the past two months that it didn't bother them at all. The two guards admired how Grace walked down the dock with her head up like a real princess.

Kimo escorted them down a path through dense growth to a large ceremonial house at the edge of the water. The four corners were Cook's pines reaching sixty feet into the air with the lower branches cut off. Palm logs tied the corners together and formed a sturdy floor and ceiling. The walls were woven Matt's and bamboo with flowers and bright feathers decorating them. The back half of the building extended out over the water and there was a large ramp leading to intricately carved doors at the front. All of the poles were covered with carvings including fierce looking tikis with big tongues sticking out and there were flowers everywhere.

Kimo lined his family up in front with Dan's family behind them and Ino's family in back. Ben and Grace stood between their parents and they all held hands waiting for the signal to enter. There were two men standing at the entrance and when Kimo nodded they opened the double doors wide and stood guard as the procession led by Kimo moved inside. The interior was similarly decorated and contained benches on two sides of a center aisle. Large windows let the breezes in and the waves could be seen through small gaps in the floor. There was a huge ceremonial chair in the center of the back wall and four ornate chairs across the front with the Kahuna, or high priest, sitting in the center chair in full ceremonial dress. He was wearing a large multicolored head piece and a cape like cover of woven palm and feathers. He was also covered in tattoos and sat between two tall ceremonial stands with drum shaped tops also covered in bright red and yellow feathers.

"Kimo. Who have you brought here to this sacred place?" The Kahuna asked.

"Uncle, I have brought the Martin family for acceptance into our Ohana. Dan Martin is related to a Hawaiian Princess and his daughter Grace has great love energy. She rivals my daughter Cindy's power."

"Do they know the requirements? Are there sponsors?"

"They know and accept the requirements. My daughters Cindy and Luana and Ino's son Jimmy are sponsors."

"That's too many sponsors Kimo." The Kahuna said crossly.

"We would like your permission to include Cindy. I think you need to see the power that she and Grace can generate together."

"Let's begin and we will see about that later. Present the children for acceptance by the members."

Dan brought Grace to one of the middle chairs and gently removed her pau. There were a few gasps as her naked beauty was revealed. Grace smiled at her father and stood proudly in front of the group. Emma took Ben to the other chair and did the same. His dick stood straight out from his body and the head almost glowed reddish purple. The children sat in the ceremonial chairs with legs spread and waited and their parents sat in the outside two chairs. One by one the adults filed up to place their hands on Grace's pussy and wrap their hands around Ben's dick. Several nodded yes as they returned to their seats.

"To join our Ohana you must be willing to share your love unconditionally. Are you all willing to do that?"

One by one the Martins answered yes.

"Let the senior members test that, Wahini first."

A line formed of four men and four women, the senior members of the church entrusted with testing new candidates. Wahini, the first woman in line, lifted Ben out of his chair and sat down. Then she pushed her leaf skirt aside and pulled him in until his dick was fully inside her. Ben instinctively thrust in and out and gave the woman enough pleasure to give Ben a passing grade. She was about to stop him when Grace reached out her hand and took hold of Ben's. A jolt of pleasure shot through his body and into the woman in front of him. She immediately orgasmed violently and pulled him in tight against her body as waves and waves of pleasure overwhelmed her. When Grace let go of Ben's hand the orgasm subsided almost immediately.

"What was that?" The woman exclaimed? "Do you have a direct connection to the Gods? Kahuna, he passes the test!"

The next woman rushed to take her place and Ben repeated the process. He loved the feeling of sliding his dick into hot wet vaginas but he preferred younger ones like Luana. Again nothing much happened until Grace touched him and then the woman orgasmed instantly and ended just as quick when Grace let go. Kimo hoped that no one would be upset at the control that Grace seemed to have over the process. He also noticed that the sound of the waves under the ceremonial house was getting louder.

When the last woman had received her quick but powerful orgasm it was the men's turn. Dan had to grit his teeth to keep from complaining about a line of grown men waiting to penetrate his daughter. The first senior member was about forty years old and covered in tattoos. He pulled a lever on the chair and raised Grace up until her vagina was level with his dick. As a senior member he had shared his substantial erection with most of the young girls in the church. He was known for having incredible staying power and could satisfy several girls before cuming.

"Hello little one. Will you share some love energy with me today?"

"Yes sir it is required but if children are the source of love shouldn't it be another child joining with me?"

"You should not question our ways on the day you seek membership. May I join with you now? You must do it willingly."

Grace spread her legs wide and invited him to penetrate her. She felt his thick bulb press her opening and slowly stretch to take him in. The member felt the million little kisses along the length of his shaft as he sank deeper and deeper into the nine-year-old. He bottomed out and leaned in to kiss her. She touched her lips to his and squeezed her vaginal muscles around his dick. He only managed to pull back and press in once before he exploded with the strongest cum of his life. Colored lights flashed in front of his open eyes and cum flowed in a series of pulses he couldn't control. The man who had been known to fuck for hours only lasted a few seconds in Grace. She noticed that his cum didn't excite her insides the way Ben's or Kaleo's or especially Jimmy's did. It did make her very wet inside and some of the cum dripped out of her and down between the floorboards to the sea below. He was known for staying hard after a cum but as soon as he gave Grace his last drop he shriveled up to a limp noodle.

The second and third senior member had the same result. They tried their best to hold back but filled Grace with their hot cum after one or two thrusts. The last senior member approached the chair.

"It appears you have great power over men. Do you think you could restrain some of that power so that we could enjoy our union for more than a few seconds?"

Grace liked the man's kind eyes and his gentle way of asking so when he penetrated her she didn't squeeze her pussy and when he kissed her she returned the kiss and felt her love energy rise. The guy was receiving so much stimulation he was almost passing out and Grace kept him on the edge for several minutes. When he finally whispered "Now Grace, please" she released him and felt him pump spurt after spurt of his cum into her.

The Kahuna didn't know what to do next. All of the previous child candidates had sat passively and let the adults do their tests. Grace had turned the process on its head. He decided to continue with the next part and decide what to do after that. He called Dan and Emma to take Ben and Grace's place. Ben and Grace sat with Kimo's family and watched. Grace made sure that the cum dripping out of her ended up in the sea below them.

"To be part of Ohana the children must accept you and share their love energy with you. Who will share with Dan and Emma? Come forward now."

Dan and Emma were amazed at the line that formed for each of them. Tommy was at the head of Emma's line followed by Kaleo and three other boys from the group. Dan's line included Cindy, Luana, Haukea and three girls ranging from six to twelve years old. It also included a boy about ten or eleven. Dan looked at the Kahuna for guidance.

"They will tell you how they share their love. If you receive it they will have accepted you."

Dan stood up and put Cindy on the chair.

"I just want a little bit." Cindy whispered. "Grace and me have something planned for later."

Dan moved in front of Cindy and wiped some precum across her already wet pussy. He sighed with immense pleasure when she took him inside as easy as could be. Everyone smiled as she wrapped her legs around him and pulled him in with her heels. He must be good if Cindy took him in so fast. Dan was just beginning to rise when she pushed him back and announced to the room that she accepted him. Luana let him fuck her deep and slow for ten minutes before the Kahuna told her he needed her decision.

"Oh yes! Mr. Dan and his family must be accepted."

Haukea was next and kissed him hard as he sank into her. Again the Kahuna had to call for a decision and she readily said yes. The six-year-old was next and she waved to Cindy as she approached Dan. Dan was a little surprised when she lifted her bum up and presented him with a well-oiled anus to penetrate. He slipped in on the fourth try and came very close to cuming in her buttery smooth colon. She announced her approval with a giggle and a loud fart. The next girl looked like a Princess with jet black silky hair down to her waist and fiery eyes that stared at him as he sank into her. He gave her ten fantastic pumps and she declared him accepted. The next girl was right on the edge of puberty and determined to get the maximum pleasure out of her childhood. She took him deep and fast and kicked his bum with her heels when he didn't go fast enough. The Kahuna stopped her before Dan came inside her.

Dan didn't know what to do when the boy approached but the Kahuna explained that love knew no gender or limits. The boy handed Dan a small bottle of oil, turned around and bent over. Dan shrugged his shoulders and pressed his dick against the boy's sphincter. If he could take the girl that way he guessed he could take the boy too. The boy groaned in pleasure when Dan felt his abdomen press against the young bottom. He gave the boy several slow pumps and reached around to wrap his hand around the boy's small but hard dick. When the boy stiffened and his knees gave out Dan slipped out of him and pulled him up into a hug. Several people nodded in approval.

While Dan was being tested by the girls and the one boy Emma was enjoying the love of a line of boys. Tommy had politely asked if he could share his love with her then pressed his fourteen-year-old very hard dick all the way inside her. She was sitting on the edge of the large ceremonial chair and wrapped her legs around Tommy for support. If she was a little younger she might rest her heels on his shoulders but after two children she didn't have quite that much flexibility. Tommy saw the problem and held her legs under her knees as he piston'd into her. He knew he was only allowed ten penetrations to make his decision and he enjoyed every second of each one before announcing his approval.

The rest of Emma's line each took their turn and each voiced their approval to allow the new family to join. Kaleo knew what Emma liked and had her panting by his tenth stroke. She smiled at the sweet seven-year-old who was next but jumped when he sank his little dick in her and pinched her clit with his fingers. The last two were twin ten-year-olds and she found they each gave her different but outstanding pleasure.

It was time for the final part of the ceremony. Since girls were the ones who did love releases Grace was called up to the front for a final test. She was supposed to give love to the Kahuna in whatever way she chose. If he felt the love she and her family would be accepted. Grace took her position at the front and looked at the wrinkled old man standing with his hard-on pushing out his malos.

"If children are the source of love energy, children should decide if we are accepted. I want Jimmy to release my love energy!"

"Young lady!" The Kahuna shouted. "You do not dictate our traditions!"

"Namaka said I was the Kupu. This is my time to grow!"

"How dare you speak for Namaka! You are a mainlander." He roared.

Grace stood up and held the arms of the chair tightly. She closed her eyes and concentrated then sat back down, held on tight and waited. No one heard the rogue wave coming until it slammed into the back of the building and rushed up through the floorboards like dozens of fountains. The whole building shook, part of the back wall caved in, and everyone screamed except Grace and Cindy. The Kahuna turned white with fear and looked at Grace then at Kimo.

"What have you brought among us Kimo?"

"The Kupu. The one who will sprout and grow to greatness. Let her be accepted by the children of her choosing. Her love releases are so powerful they can penetrate Pele's home."

"Do I need to call Namaka again?" Grace said as she glared at the Kahuna.

"No. That won't be necessary. Show us what you mean by the children deciding." the Kahuna said.

Grace stood up and looked at the crowd of people.

"Jimmy, I need you with me. Ben, you and Cindy need to be next to me. We will give Namaka a great offering of love."

Grace sat on the edge of the chair and looked at the crowd. When Jimmy stood in front of her she untied his malo and let it drop to the floor then pulled him into a kiss. Cindy did the same to Ben and felt her temperature rise as he caressed her petite body and rubbed his crown up and down her crease. He looked over to Jimmy and they both pressed into their respective girl's vaginas until they were fully impaled.

Grace gasped with the thrill generated by Jimmy penetrating her. Over the last few weeks she had taken her brother, her father, two other boys and today the four men inside her but Jimmy was different. Every millimeter of his erection caused explosions of pleasure inside her. She kissed him like they were the only people in the world. When he moved in her she growled with an animalistic gratification.

"Love me Jimmy! Fuck me! Give me all of your love energy!" She growled. Grace had never said the word fuck before in her life. Jimmy was bringing out something wild in her.

Next to Grace Ben was giving Cindy immense pleasure. Being close to Grace seemed to magnify her feelings. When she felt herself rising, she reached over and put her hand on Grace's upper thigh. Grace immediately felt Ben's dick sliding in and out of Cindy as well as Jimmy's thrusting. As Grace felt the blush starting in her vagina she opened her eyes long enough to look at the crowd.

"Namaka wants ALL the childrens' love today. Let the girls choose who will release their love. Namaka is waiting for us."

The realization of what Grace was saying swept over the crowd like Pele's hot breath. Haukea grabbed a boy from her class and pulled him to the front. She sat in an empty chair and pulled him into her until their abdomens touched. One by one all the girls picked a mate and took their dicks deep inside their young pussies. One girl picked her father and one picked another girl. The few extra boys picked a favorite auntie to sink their hard dicks into. Emma was even picked by one of the boys who didn't have a partner.

Up front, Grace was getting higher than she had ever been. Jimmy was sending explosions of ecstasy inside her body. She kept building more and more love energy as she drew love from all of the other children.

"Can you feel them Cindy?" She shouted above the moans and the wind that had suddenly started to blow. Grace could feel every dick rubbing every vagina in the room. The amount of stimulation was earth shaking.

"I can, Grace. I can! Are you ready?"

"Yes" Grace shouted as she leaned over and kissed Cindy.

Ben reached over to touch Grace again as he continued to enjoy Cindy's tight vagina. As soon as he made contact with Grace he could feel himself in her vagina, giving his sister his love as he gave it to Cindy.

The adults who were not chosen by a child sat in awe at the spectacle around them. Children were fucking children with an intensity they had not seen in previous ceremonies. They watched and waited as first Grace and then Cindy started to blush, at their abdomens and then over their whole bodies. When Grace's lips touched Cindy's the room filled with colored lights and lightning flashes and the two girls moved to levels of pleasure only felt by the Gods.

"Ka'ana'ana! Ooku Knama Oi Mokuu Nakaka!" Grace screamed as she squeezed her pussy muscles around Jimmy's dick and returned to kissing Cindy.

No one knew what the words meant but the effect was instantaneous. All of the boys were released and allowed to cum. Grace felt the first drop of Jimmy's cum hit her vagina and kissed Cindy harder. A huge pulse of combined love energy flowed out from her and Cindy at the same instant. It blew out the side walls of the building and flooded the island of Maui with love energy. Everyone inside the building with Grace experienced the best orgasm of their life. All the boys, and the one dad lucky enough to be inside his daughter's pussy, poured out their cum in bone shaking pulses. Each girl's orgasm was triggered by the first drop of cum released inside them and they continued to tremble with erotic joy until long after their mate had run out of cum to give them. Grace found that if she made eye contact with someone she could feel what they felt and they could feel Jimmy's dick rubbing her deepest places.

Grace locked eyes with Haukea and felt her classmate's unusually thick dick filling her up inside. Haukea felt Jimmy giving Grace sparks up her spine with every movement. Looking around Grace found Luana staring at her and immediately enjoyed Tommy's dick hitting the back of Luana's pussy. She smiled as Luana twitched with every movement Jimmy made inside her as he gave her more spurts of cum. One by one she and Cindy connected with each child in the room and exchanged feelings with them.

The boy pleasuring his mother surprised Grace when she felt the boy's father sink his adult dick into the boy's rear. Her best experience was sharing feelings with Cindy. She felt Ben's dick stretching Cindy's vagina as he entered her. She gave Cindy the feeling of her cousin's dick setting fires inside Grace.

The adults were not spared the experience. Husbands gave their cum to their wives and men without a partner gave their cum to the waters under the house. Namaka was very pleased and continued to lap the bottom of the building with waves, licking the cum dripping through the floor from the many leaking vaginas. Later the participants would have slightly different recollections but one common description was a shock wave similar to pictures of an atomic blast flowing out from the island, creating a ripple in the water and reaching far beyond Maui.

No one was in a hurry to leave and once they regained their strength the members warmly accepted the Martin family into the Ohana. They had planned a feast to celebrate the acceptance of new members and everyone filed out of the ceremonial house to enjoy it. The Kahuna said that the repairs could wait and that he would make an offering to Namaka to apologize for doubting Grace. Grace was made an official advisor to the Kahuna and showed her appreciation by taking him inside her where she gave his old dick the vitality of a twenty-year-old. His granddaughters smiled at the realization that their pleasure would probably be a major part of his offering to Namaka.

Namaka was so pleased with the Kudu that she calmed the waves and gave everyone a smooth ride back to Maui. Things would never be the same for anyone involved in the ceremony that day and Dan, Kimo and Ino took the lead in planning for a broader acceptance of Kapulehie. They didn't have to wait long.

Grace and Cindy's love release had flooded the island of Maui with Kapulehie love energy. Residents were suddenly awakened to the realization that love for children in all forms and expressions was good for everyone and should not be regulated by the state. The Maui county governing board called an emergency meeting for Monday to reconsider all restrictions on nudity at Maui beaches. They also passed a measure allowing wide latitude on how native Hawaiians practiced their religions. All interactions between native Hawaiian adults and children were protected and exempt from child molesting laws. Only physical harm and neglect would be illegal. Similar measures were passed on Lanai and Molikini. One was proposed for the big island but Grace and Cindy's love release hadn't quite covered enough of the island to influence everyone and the measure was defeated.

Of course the changes caused a huge uproar at the state capital on Oahu which was out of reach of Cindy and Grace's love release. Dan and Kimo brought their families and Jimmy to Oahu for the next legislative session.

A rented van parked near the state capital building allowed Grace and Cindy to send their love energy throughout the island. Separate trips to Kawaii and the big island were needed but eventually the state constitution was changed to recognize Kapulehie as a protected religion free from government interference. The change meant that any child practicing Kapulehie in the state of Hawaii could legally give their love to anyone they chose, adult or child, in any form mutually agree upon.

Epilogue

It took a while for a complete understanding of the change to reach the mainland. The reaction took two predictable paths. First the politicians who use religion to get votes and the so called ministers who use religion to get rich tried to get the Hawaii change declare unconstitutional. They ran into a stone wall because the US Supreme Court had been packed with "States Rights" justices who decided that unless interstate travel was involved Hawaii could make its own laws concerning the protection of children. By the time large scale protests could be organized Kapulehie had spread to all of the islands and more children were performing love releases every day. The Islands were so full of love energy that when the protesters stepped off the plane they immediately understood how children were the source of love and they wondered why they had objected to Hawaii's new laws.

The second predicable consequence was the arrival of pedophiles thinking they could grab the first child who walked by and molest them. Since Kapulehie is based on love not lust, the pedophiles lost their desire to touch someone else's child when they were enveloped in the island's love energy. Nudity at beaches became so common no one cared if they took pictures of the children and they returned home with lots of pictures of naked children but without touching any of them. Unfortunately many stepped off the plane to police from their home states with search warrants and were arrested for possession of child pornography. Grace and Cindy's love releases couldn't reach the mainland US where cold hearted bigots couldn't accept that children's bodies were beautiful things and not the source of evil.

The Martin family became welcome members of the Ohana and helped start a Kapulehie school where recess included love release time. They spent their remaining years sharing their love with each new generation. Grace gradually lost her powers as she aged but she became a mentor to hundreds of young girls over the years. Grace and Jimmy married right after college and their first girl inherited her mother's ability to release love energy and connect with others. Their daughter retained her power well into puberty and started a gradual extension of love energy into teen years. Kapulehie became the dominant religion throughout Hawaii and received new converts every year. When Congress passed federal laws banning the religion they were ignored and no one outside of Hawaii could get anyone to enforce them.

When mainlanders come to Hawaii now they hear about the Polynesians who founded the island, the kings who unified it, the Americans who plundered it and the Kupu who restored love and peace to Hawaii.
