DRAFT - Mornings In Grey (Prelude - Expanding Horizons) (Part 00)

FMAst, Vaginal, Anal, Toys

I'm picturing you wearing a pencil skirt, black with grey pin striping, seamed stocking thigh highs, a snug fitting red satin blouse, and a charcoal grey jacket. You come into the room, stepping easily in calf height boots of soft black leather.

Turning you reach over and pick up a soft grey silk scarf with a rippling flow of bright blue running through it, and tie it in place to cover your eyes. After a few adjustments it's comfortably in place, and you can sense the light in the room but cannot see.

You walk cautiously up to the nearby wall, and find it with your hands. Squaring your shoulders to face it head on, you put both hands at shoulder height and width on to the flat surface and lean forward. Slowly you roll your hips and move your thighs apart as much as the pencil skirt allows. After a minute or two of this, you lean back from the wall and remove your jacket. In scarlet red and pinstriped grey, you reach up and cup and stroke your breasts and nipples while still facing the wall. Your hands run down over the smooth satin and along your abdomen. Then you unzip the pencil skirt and slip it away.

In just your stockings, boots, and blouse - the red satin hanging down over your buttocks - you begin fingering your clit while moaning into the wall. Your face is leaning into the supporting surface even as your hips are visibly thrusting against your caressing fingers. Your feet come further apart, and with your shoulder and face against the wall you thrust your ass out further. Your labia are visible, their fleshy swelling stroking back and forth from the vigorous stroking you are giving your clitoris.

You pause long enough to slip off the blouse. Bending down you unzip your boots and step out of them. Naked except for the seamed thigh high stockings, you straighten out enough to lean into the wall and begin driving your fingers in and out of your wet labia folds. You step back from the wall and tip forward more - your pussy even more obvious and your fingers glistening with your juices as you continue finger fucking yourself.

The pattern of motion changes as you stroke in and out, dragging your fluids over your exposed anus. Soon your ass is soaking and you reach back with your other hand. Two fingers push into your anus as you continue to work three fingers in and out of your pussy. Your head is turned to the side, your open mouth shaping sounds of pleasure and words of need and hunger. Your shoulders are largely supporting your weight against the wall. Your fingers and hands are moving faster and furiously working your ass and pussy. Finally you explode, and the motion slows as you gasp for air.

Slightly recovered after a few moments of slow stroking and running your hands over your abdomen and breasts and nipples, you pause to find a moist hand towel just off to the side near where you've been standing. You wipe your hands off, and then apply some lube from a bottle sitting next to the hand towel. The white creamy Liquid Silk is like pearls of cum on your labia as you apply it and then stroke it in and out.

Adjusting the silk scarf blindfold, you find your way to a round end table with two toys on it. Your swollen labia peek out from between your thighs as you find a position for squatting down. Your back still to the camera, you position the larger of the two toys - a solid cock - and lube it with stroking motions of your hands. And then you lower your ass down on to it, the toy stretching your anus, and with your hands rubbing your clit and squeezing your nipple you push down until the plum sized rubber head slips all the way in.

Supporting the shaft with your hand you move around so you are facing the camera. The thick cock is pushing your labia forward and your pussy is slightly open like a flower from the pressure and the swelling. The pink petals contrast with the pale skin of your thighs and pelvis. You apply more lube to your labia as you stroke and pull and tug on them. All while rocking gently back against the cock in your ass. With its base on the table there is no risk of it coming out, just the positioning of your body and the sensation of it penetrating you.

The other toy is smaller - almost like an electric toothbrush - and you finally begin to stroke it along your labia and your clit. Turning it on, the vibrations begin to soak into your loins and you can feel the heat as your pussy spasms. You begin to sit back harder on the thick cock working its way up your ass, and your own grinding motions encouraged and amplified by the sensations of the vibrations on your pussy lips. Finally you place the buzzing head alongside and over your clitoris and begin fucking down.

Harder. Harder. The juices are flowing from your pussy as the petals gape a bit from the thick shaft you're enjoying fucking into your bottom. The vibrations add even more hunger to your urge to be fucked, and as you let go the strength of your humping thrusts has you sitting down on the thick rubber cock - every time you lift up, it comes up with you. Your free hand has been moving from gripping and squeezing and kneading your breasts and nipples. Now you reach down and begin working two fingers in alongside the cock in your ass.

It only takes a few moments longer - the vibration, the fullness from being anally fucked, and the sensation of your two fingers pressed against your g-spot... you cum so hard you nearly squeeze the toy out of your ass and crush your superheated fingers. Lifting up you pull the toy out of your ass and grab a dark hand towel to wipe up any mess. You set the toys aside, and pick up another one from beside the bed.

Climbing up on to the bed, you prop your head on pillows and place yourself with knees up and ankles well apart. Your pussy is a wet mess of swollen lips and heavy clit. In a matter of moments you've lubed the black toy and are feeding and pulling it into your pussy as you use your other hand to stroke and massage your pelvis and clit. This toy has a set of unnatural bumps on either side, soft spikes that push your labia in and pull them out again with each stroke. It starts small, but it is horn shaped with a broad oval base. After a minute of working up to putting most of the toy in, you begin fucking it all the way out and back again stroke after stroke. There's a slapping sound from when your hand comes off the base with how hard you are fucking your pussy. And your other hand is moving around - pinching and stroking your body as your abdomen tenses and thrusts out toward the black horn shaped toy that is pounding into you over and over.

Eventually your frantic motions slow, and you feel partially satiated. You take off the blindfold and find a moist hand towel nearby on the bed. You wipe your hands and body, around the toy you are still holding in, and your thighs and pelvis. Then you pick up a harness, and awkwardly work the straps, until it is fit around your waist and the pelvis strap is cradling the base of the spiked rubber toy. It takes you a few more adjustments and then another wipe down.

Finally you can ease your way back on to slightly wobbly legs. The thick toy is stroking your inner walls as you move with it held in place. You get dressed again - scarlet red satin blouse over erect nipples and goose pimpled arms and belly, grey pinstriped pencil skirt over creamy white thighs and stockings and harness holding your toy in, and then jacket and boots.

You flash a smile and then wave, walking a bit differently as you adjust to the feeling of the rubber toy motions and how your thighs have to walk a bit around the protruding base.

Off to a nice dinner and club date with a pouch of wet wipes, some extra lube, and a couple of ziplock bags (for the toy and harness if you can't wear it all night) in your purse.
